

THE WHOLE BOOK OF PSALMES:

Collected
INTO ENGLISH MEETER, BY THOMAS STERNHOLD, JOHN HOPKINS,
and others, conferred with the Hebrew, with apt
notes to sing them withall.

Set forth and allowed to be sung in all churches, of all the people together, before and after morning and evening prayer, and also before and after sermons: and moreover in private houses, for their godly solace and comfort, laying apart all ungodly songs and ballads, which tend onely to the now-rising of vice, and corrupting of youth.

JAMES 5.

If any be afflicted, let him pray: and if any be merry, let him sing psalmes.

COLOSSIANS III.

Let the word of God dwell plentifully in you, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another in psalmes, hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing unto the Lord in your hearts.

VENI CREATOR.

One holy Ghost,

eternall God, proceeding from above,

Both from the Father and the Sonne, the God of peace and love. Visit our mindes, and into us

thy heavenly grace inspire: That in all truth and godlinesse we may have true desire.

Thou art the very comforter

in all wo and distresse:

The heavenly gift of God most high,

which no tongue can expresse:

The fountain and the lively spring

of joy celestiall:

The fire so bright, the love so cleare,

and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,

whereby Christs church doth stand:

In faithfull hearts writing thy law,

the finger of Gods hand.

According to thy promise made,

thou givest speech of grace:

That through thy help the praise of God

may stand in every place.

O holy Ghost into our wits

send down thy heavenly light:

Kindle our hearts with fervent love,

to serve God day and night.

Strength and stablish all our weaknesse,

so feeble and so frail:

That neither flesh, the world, nor devil,

against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies farre from us,

and graunt us to obtain

Peace in our hearts with God and man,

without grudge or disdain.

And graunt (O Lord) that thou being

our leader and our guide:

We may eschew the snares of sinne,

and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace,

good Lord graunt we thee pray,

That thou mayst be our comforter

at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and dissention,
O Lord, dissolve the bands;
And make the knots of peace and love,
throughout all Christian lands.

Graunt us (O Lord) through thee to know
the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Sonne
we may attain the sight:
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee,
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the sonne equall,
And to the holy Spirit also,
one God coeternall
And pray we that the onely Sonne vouchsafe his spirit to send
To all that do professe his name, unto the worlds end.

The humble suit of a sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I do depend, behold my care-

full heart: And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my smart. Thou seest my sorrows what they are, my grief is known to thee: And there is none that can remove, or take the same

from me;

But onely thou whose aid I crave,

whose mercy still is prest

To ease all those that come to thee

for succour and for rest.

And sith thou seest my restless eyes,

my teares and grievous groanes,

Attend unto my suit, O Lord,

mark well my plaint and moane.

For sinne hath so enclosed me,

and compassed me about,

That I am now remedilesse,

if mercy help not out.

For mortall man cannot release,

or mitigate this pain:

But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,

who for my sinnes was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,

though not with mortall eye:

Venite exultemus.

Yet do thy faints behold them all,
and to I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and bloud.

And as thine angels and thy faints
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy name:
But whilst I live here in this vale
where sinners do frequent, Asist me ever with thy grace
my sinnes still to lament:

Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickednesse,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To graunt me pardon for my sinne,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy church and house of faints
sing psalmes to thee alwayes.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcvi.

Sing this as the Benedictus.

O Come and let us now rejoyce,
And sing unto the Lord,
And to our onely Saviour
Also with one accord.
O let us come before his face
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sinnes,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefites
Alwayes distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In psalmes now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other Gods
A king omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where,
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains farre and neare.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord;
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and king,
And we his people are,
His flock and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

Te Deum.

This day if ye will heare his voice
Then harden not your heart,
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.
Whereas your fathers tempted me
And tride me every way:
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These fourty yeares I have been griev'd
With this generation,
And evermore I said, they err'd
In their imagination:
Wherewith their hearts werefore cumber'd
Long time and many dayes:
Wherefore I said, Aluredly
They have not known my wayes.

To whom I in my anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patri.

All laud and praise be to thee Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Father, and the Sonne,
and to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was
for ever heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The song of saint Ambrose, called Te Deum.

W  E praise thee, God, we knowledge thee

 the onely Lord to be; And as eternall Father, all the earth doth worship thee. To thee all angels cry, the heavens and all the powers therein: To thee cherub and seraphin to cry they do not lin,

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of sabaoth Lord the God;
Through heaven and earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad.
Th' apostles glorious company
yeeld praises unto thee:
The prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious hoast
of martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee alwayes.
Father of endlesse majestie
they do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ thine honourable, true,
and onely soane to be.

The song of the 3 children.

The holy Ghost the comforter,
of glory thou art king;

O Christ and of the Father art
the Sonne everlasting.

When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,

To be inclos'd in virgins wombe
thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruell might,

Thou heavens kingdome didst set ope
to each beleev'ing wight.

In glory of the Father thou doest sit on gods right hands

We trust that thou shalt come our judge
our cause to understand.

Lord help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood,

And in eternall glory set them with thy faints so good.

O Lord do thou thy people save,
blesse thine inheritance:

Lord govern them, and Lord, do thou
for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end

Adore thy holy name: O Lord, vouchsafe us to defend

From sinne this day: Have mercy, Lord,
have mercy on us all,

And on us, as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall,

O Lord I have repofed all
my confidence in thee:

Put to confounding shame therefore Lord let me never be.

The song of the three children.

O All ye works of God the Lord, blesse ye the Lord, praise him and magnifie him for ever.

1 O ye the angels of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, praise him
and magnifie him for ever.

3 O ye the starrie heavens high,
blesse ye the Lord, praise him
and magnifie him for ever.

4 O ye waters above the skie,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

5 O all ye powers of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

6 O ye the shining sunne and moon,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

7 O ye the glistering starres of heaven,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

8 O ye the showres and dropping dew,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

9 O ye the blowing windes of God,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

10 O ye the fire and warming heat,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

11 Ye winter and the summer tide,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

12 O ye the dews and binding frosts,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

Benedictus.

13 O ye the frost and chilling cold,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

14 O ye congealed ice and snow,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

15 O ye the nights and lightsome dayes,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

16 O ye the darknesse and the light,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

17 O ye the lightnings and the clouds,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

18 O let the earth eke blesse the Lord,
yea blesse the Lord, &c.

19 O ye the mountains and the hills,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

20 O all ye green things on the earth,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

21 O ye the ever-springing wells,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

22 O ye the seas and eke the foulds,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

23 Whales and all that in waters move,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

24 O all ye flying fowls of the aire,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

25 O all ye beasts and cattell eke,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

26 O ye the children of mankinde,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

27 Let Israel eke blesse the Lord,
yea blesse the Lord, &c.

28 O ye the priests of God the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

29 O ye the servants of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

30 Ye spirits and souls of righteous men
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

31 Ye holy and ye meek of heart,
blesse ye the Lord, &c.

32 O Ananias blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.

33 O Azarias blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.

34 And Misael, eke blesse the Lord,
blesse thou the Lord, &c.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

T He onely Lord of Israel Be praised ever

more: For through his visitation And mercy

kept in store, His people now he hath redeem'd,

That long have been in thrall. And spread abroad

his saving health Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servants true,
According to his minde,

And also his anointed king,
As we in scripture finde.

As by his holy prophets all
Of times he did declare,
The which were since the world began
His wayes for to prepare.

Magnificat.

That we might be delivered
From those that make debate,
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
Our fathers to fulfill,
And think upon his covenant made
According to his will.

And also to perform the oath
Which he before had sworn
To Abraham our father deare,
For us that were forlorn:

That he would give himself for us
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteousness:
And also for to leade our lives
In stedfast holiness.

And thou (O childe) which now art born,
And of the Lord elect,
Shalt be the prophet of the high't,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face
For to prepare his wayes,
And also for to teach his will
And pleasure all thy dayes.
To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is neare:
And that remission of their finnes
Is through his mercy meare.

Whereby the day-spring from on high
Is come us for to visit,
And those for to illuminate
Which do in darknesse sit.

To lighten those that shadowed be
With death, and eke oppress,
And also for to guide our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The song of blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord, My spirit

eke evermore Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,

Which is my Saviour. And why? because he did regard, And gave respect unto So base estate of his handmaid, And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call:

Because he hath me magnified
Which is the Lord of might;
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth inflame,

Nunc dimittis.

Throughout all generations
To such as fear his name.

He shewed strength with his great arm,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they bear in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
From their supernall seat,
And did exalt the meek in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good,
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deal,
Hath holpen up assilantly
His servant Israel.

According to his promise made
To Abraham before,
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.

The song of Simeon, called Nunc dimitta.

O Lord because my hearts desire Hath wished long to see My onely Lord and Saviour, Thy Sonne before I die: The joy and health of all mankinde, Desired long before, Which now is come into the world Of mercy bringing store.

Thou sufferest thy servant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,
Of thine abundant grace,
In open sight and visible
Before all peoples face,
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan overquell,
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

The symbole or creed of Athanasius,
called Quicumque vult.

WHAT man soever he be that salvation will atrain, The catholick belief he must before all things retain. Which faith unlesse he holy keep,

and Quicumque vult.

and undoubtedly, Without all doubt, eternally

he shall be sure to die,

The catholick belief is this,
that God we worship one In trinity, and trinity in unity alone:

So as we neither do confound
the persons of the three,
Nor yet the substance whole of one in sunder parted be.

One person of the Father is,
another of the Sonne, Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
Of father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is,
Like glory, coeternall eke
the majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree,
And such also we do beleeve
the holy Ghost to be.

Uncreate is the Father, and
uncreate is the Sonne,
The holy Ghost uncreate, so uncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is,
incomprehensible Sonne,
And comprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none.

The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so,
And in like sort eternall is
the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleeve that each of these eternall be:

Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternalls three.

As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet uncreate three,
But one incomprehensible, one uncreate hold to be.

Almighty so the Father is,
the Sonne almighty so,
And in like sort almighty is
the holy Ghost also.

And albeit that everyone
of these almighty be;
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also;

Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God, and no mo.

So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Sonne,
And Lord the holy Ghost; yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compell'd to grant
by christian verity,
Each of the persons by himself
both God and Lord to be:
So catholick religion
forbiddeth us alway,

That either gods be three, or that there Lords be three, to say.

Of none the Father is, ne made,
ne create nor begot:

The Sonne is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got:

The holy Ghost is of them both
the Father and the Sonne;
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three,
one Sonne also, not three,
One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.

None in this trinity before nor after other is,
Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves
of all the persons three, Together coeternall all
and all coequall be.

So unity in trinity,
as said it is before,
And trinity in unity
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soever that salvation will attain,
This faith touching the trinity of force he must retain.

And needfull to eternall life
it is, that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
but Lord beleeve aright.

For this the right faith is, that we
beleeve and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Soane of God,
is God and man also.

God of his fathers substance got
before the world began,
And of his mothers substance born
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man
in one, one Jesus Christ:

That doth of reasonable soul
and humane flesh subsist.

Touching his Godhead, equall with his Father God is he:

Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God
and very man also:

Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.

One, not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of man;
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one;

But onely by the unity
that is of one person.

For as the reasonable soul
and flesh but one man is:
So in one person God and man
is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to save us all,
to hell he did descend:

The lamentation of a sinner.

The third day rose again from death,
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God
th' almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick and dead
again he shall appear.

At whose return all men shall rise
with bodies new restor'd,
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord.
And they into eternall life
shall go that have done well:
Who have done ill shall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the catholick belief:
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt
he saved cannot be.
To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord turn not away thy face From him that lies prostrate, Lamenting sore his sinfull life Before thy mercie gate. Which gate thou openest wide to those That do lament their sinne. Shut not that gate against me, Lord, But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account,
How I have lived here:
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.

I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell:
What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou knowest it well.

O Lord thou knowest what things be past,
And eke the things that be:
Thou knowest also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heavens and earth were made,
Thou knowest what things were then,
As all things else that have been since
Among the sonnes of men.

And can the things that I have done
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou knowest them all, O Lord,
Where they were done, and when.

Wherefore with teares I come to thee
To beg and to intreat,
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercie gate,
Where mercy doth abound,
Requiring mercy for my sinne,
To heal my deadly wound.

The Lords prayer.

O Lord, I need not to repeat
What I do beg or crave:
Thou knowest (O Lord) before I ask,
The thing that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the totall summe:
For mercy (Lord) is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords prayer, or Pater noster.

O Ur father which in heaven art, Lord hallowed be thy name: Thy kingdome come, Thy will be done in earth, even as the same in heaven is.
Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day. As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray. Into temptation lead us not, from evil make us free: For kingdome, power, and glory
thine, both now and ever be.

The x. Commandements.

Audi Israel. Exod. xx.

Heark Israel, and what I say give heed to understand, I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Eeypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst in thraldome live a slave. None other Gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee;
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in heaven above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in the waters beneath the earth:
To them thou shalt not bow,

Nor shalt them serve: the Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I,
That punish parents faults unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The complaint of a sinner.

The name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use:
For him that takes his name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred sabbath-day:
Six dayes thou labour shalt, and do
thy needfull works alway:

The seventh day is set by the Lord
thy God to rest upon;
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy sonne,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding place:

For in six dayes God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make,
And after those his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain,
And sacred to himself alone
appointed to remain.

Yield honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his man-servant, nor his maid,
nor ox, nor asse of his,
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The complaint of a sinner.

W Here righteousness doth say, Lord, for my sinfull part, In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert: I can it not deny, But needs I must confesse. How that continually Thy laws I do transgresse.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinnes not in thy sight
Full oft and every day?

The scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and then
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise;
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteounesse none have,
Whereo then shall I trust
My sinfull soul to save?

But truly to that post
Whereto I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord, let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart to drie,
That I with sinne repleat,
May live, and sinne may die:

That being mortified
This sinne of mine in me,
I may be sanctified
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into such mortall sinne,
That my foes internall
Rejoyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keep
From those internall foes,
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercy grows.
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the just,
That unto thee belongs,
Which art mine only trust.

THE PSALMES OF DAVID IN MEETER.

Beatus vir. Psal. I. T. S.

This psalme is fit first as a preface, to exhort all godly men to study and meditate the heavenly wisdom: for they be blessed that so do: but the wicked contemners thereof at length shall come to misery.

He man is blest that hath not

bent to wicked read his care:

Nor led his life as sinners do, nor sat in scorners

chair. 2 But in the law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight: And in that law doth exercise himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows

fast by the rivers side,

Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit

in his due time and tide.

Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,

but flourish still and stand:

Even so all things shall prosper well,

that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,

they shall be nothing so:

But as the dust which from the earth

the winde drives to and fro.

5 Therefore shall not the wicked men

in judgement stand upright:

Nor yet the sinners with the just

shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:

And eke the way of wicked men

shall quite be overthrowen.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. ii. T. S.

David rejoiceth that albeit enemies and worldly power rage, God will advance his kingdom, even to the farthest end of the world: therefore he exhorteth princes humbly to submit themselves under the same. Herein is signified Christ and his kingdom.

Sing this as the x. psalme.

Why did the Gentiles cumults raise,

what rage was in their brain?

Why did the Jewish people muse,

seeing all is but vain?

2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his sonne,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking-stocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say
to them upon a day:

And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,

6 I have anointed him my king
upon my holy hill:

I will therefore (Lord) preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wor,

Thou art my deare and onely sonne,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request:

The ends and coasts of all the earth,
by thee shall be possess.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a mace,
as men under foot trod:

And as the potters sheards shalt break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,

By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above,
in trembling and in fear:

See that with reverence ye rejoyce
to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kisse and eke embrace
his blessed sonne, I say,

Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid-way.

13 If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his breast:

O then all they that trust in Christ,
shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid. Psal. iiii. T. S.

David driven out of his kingdom by his sonne Absalom, was greatly tormented in minde for his sinne. Therefore he calleth upon God, and is bold in his promises against the terror both of enemies and present death. Then he rejoyceth for the victorie given to him and the church, over their enemies.

O Lord how are my foes increast, which vex

Psalme iii. v. vi.

- 4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill
did heare me by and by.
5 I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again:
For why? I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.
6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call:
7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth
of these wicked men all.
8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord above: Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Psal. iii. T. S.

David persecuted by Saul, calleth upon God with assured trust, reproveth his enemies for resisting his dominion, and preferreth the favour of God before all treasure.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

- O God that art my righteousness,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou hast set me at libertie,
when I was bound and thrall.
1 Have mercy (Lord) therefore on me,
and graunt me my request:
For unto thee uncessantly
to cry I will not rest.
3 O mortall men how long will ye
my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?
4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and choose:
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.
5 Sinne not but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.
6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.
7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:

- But Lord, graunt us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyfull and more glad,
Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.
9 In peace therefore lie down will I taking my rest and sleepe
For thou onely wilt me, O Lord, alone in safety keep.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

David persecuted by Doeg and Achitophet, Sauls flatterers, calleth upon God to punish their malice. Thun assured of successe, he conceived comfort.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

- Encline thine cares unto my words,
O Lord my plaint consider:
1 And heare my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Heare me betime, Lord tarrie not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.
4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleas'd with wickednesse,
and ill with thee dwells none.
5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious fools, O Lord:
Vain workers of iniquitie
thou hast alwayes abhor'd.
6 The liars and the flatterers,
thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the bloud-thirsty,
and the deceitfull man.
7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee
toward thine holy place.
8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness
for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walk
before my face disclose.
9 For in their mouthes there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and faine.
10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heaps of sinne,
which have rebellion wrought.
11 But those that put their trust in thee
let them be glad alwaies:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.
12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace, as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

Domine ne infurore. Psal. vi. T. S.

David for his sinnes felt Gods band, and conceived the horror of everlasting death. Therefore he deserveth forgiveness, and not to die in Gods indignation. Then suddenly feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies, who rejoiced at his affliction.

Sing this as the 1. psalme.

- Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire:

Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.

2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear,
And heal me (Lord) for why? thou knowest
my bones do quake for fear.

3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:
But (Lord) how long wilt thou delay
to cure my misery?

4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soul up take;
O save me, not for my desert,
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
remembereth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernall pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I wail my bed
with teares of my complaint.

7 My sight is dimme, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart,
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.

8 But now away from me all ye
that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard not onely the request
and prayer of my heart;
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vii. T. 3.

David falsely accused by Chus Sauls knifeman, calleth to God to be his defender. First, for that his conscience did not accuse him of any evil toward Saul; mean, that it touched Gods glory to award sentence against the wicked: and so upon Gods mercies and promise, he waxeth bold, threatening that it shall fall on their own necks, that which his enemies purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee;
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me.

2 Left like a lion he me teare
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress;
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causeleslie:

5 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Start up (O Lord) now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the kingdome promised
to me which wrong sustain.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,

If thou declare, for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.

8 And as thou art of all men judge
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integritie.

The second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:

10 By whom the secrets of all hearts,
are searched and descride.

11 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

12 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and houre.

13 Except he change his minde, I die,
for even as he should smite,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
ayming where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortall darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whiles he doth mischief warp.

15 But loe, though he in travail be
of his devillish forecast:
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

16 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.

17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred,
And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall upon his head.

18 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteously,
And with my song will praise the name
of him that is most high.

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viii. T. 3.

The prophet considering the excellent liberality and fatherly providence of God towards man, whom he made as it were a God over all his works, giveth thanks, and is astonied with the admiration of the same.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

O God our Lord, how wonderfull
are thy works every where,
Whose fame surmounts in dignity,
above the heavens cleare!

2 Even by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand;
The sunne, the moon, and all the starres,
in order as they stand:

4 What thing is man (Lord) think I then,
that thou dost him remember?
Or what is mans posture,
that thou dost it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little lesse
then angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also
with glory and dignity.

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

Psalme ix. x.

- 7 As sheep, and neat, and all beaſts elſe,
that in the fields do feed;
8 Fowls of the aire, fiſh in the ſea,
and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore muſt I ſay once again,
O God that art our Lord,
How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world!

Conſitebor tibi Domine. Pſal. ix. T. S.

*David giveth thanks for his manifold victories received,
deſireth the ſame wanted help again, againſt his new enemies, and their malicious arrogancy to be deſtroyed.*

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord
will I ſing laud and praiſe:
And ſpeak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwayes.
2 I will be glad and much rejoyce
in thee, O God moſt high:
And make my ſongs extoll thy name
above the ſtarry ſkie.

- 3 For that my foes are driven back
and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat and are deſtroyd
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou haſt revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudges:
Thou doſt with juſtice heare my cauſe,
moſt like a righteous judge.
5 Thou doſt rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked ſo confound,
That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou haſt made good diſpatch,
and all their towns deſtroyd:
Thou haſt their fame with them deſac'd,
through all the world ſo wide.
7 Know thou, that he which is above
for evermore ſhall reigne,
And in the ſeat of equity
true judgement will maintain.
8 With juſtice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And ſo will yeeld with equity
to every man his right.
9 He is protectour of the poore
what time they be oppreſt:
He is in all adverſity
their refuge and their reſt.
10 And they that know thy holy name,
therefore ſhall truſt in thee:
For thou forſakeſt not their ſuit
in their neceſſity.

The ſecond part.

- 11 Sing psalmes therefore unto the Lord
that dwells in Sion hill:
Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindeſull of the bloud
of thoſe that be oppreſt:
Forgetting not the afflicted heart
that ſeeks to him for reſt.
13 Have mercy (Lord) on me poore wretch,
whoſe enemies ſtill remain,
Which from the gates of death art wont
to raiſe me up again.
14 In Sion that I might ſet forth
thy praiſe with heart and voice,
And that in thy ſalvation, Lord,
my ſoul might ſtill rejoyce.

- 15 The heathen ſtick faſt in the pit
that they themſelves prepar'd,
And in the net that they did ſet
their own feet faſt are ſnar'd.
16 God ſhews his judgements, which were good for every man to mark,
When as ye ſee the wicked man
lie trapt in his own wark.
17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever,
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
18 But ſure the Lord will not forget the poore mans grief and pain:
The patient people never look
for help of God in vain.
19 O Lord ariſe, leſt men prevail
that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy fight.
20 Lord ſtrike ſuch terrour, fear, and dread,
into the hearts of them,
That they may know aſſuredly
they be but mortall men.

Ut quid Domine. Pſal. x. T. S.

He complaineth of all the wrongs which worldly men uſe, becauſe of their proſperity, who therefore without all fear of God think they may do all things uncontrolled. He calleth for remedy againſt ſuch, and is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

What is the cauſe that thou, O Lord,
art now ſo farre from thine,
And keepeſt cloſe thy countenance
from us this troublous time?
2 The poore do periſh by the proud
and wicked mens deſire:
Let them be taken in the craft,
that they themſelves conſpire.

- 3 For in the luſt of his own heart
th' ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praiſe himſelf,
and doth the Lord deſpight.
4 He is ſo proud that right and wrong
he ſetteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, ſaith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
5 Becauſe his wayes do proſper ſtill,
he doth thy laws neglect,
And with a blaſt doth puff againſt
ſuch as would him correct.
6 Tuſh, tuſh, ſaith he, I have no dread,
leſt mine eſtate ſhould change:
And why? for all adverſity
to him is very ſtrange.
7 His mouth is full of curſedneſſe,
of fraud, deceit, and guile:
Under his tongue doth miſchief ſit,
and travail all the while.
8 He lieth hid in wayes and holes
to ſlay the innocent:
Againſt the poore that paſſe him by his cruell eyes are bent.
9 And like a lion, privily
lies lurking in his den,
If he may ſnare them in his net,
to ſpoil poore ſimple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I ſay:
11 So are great heaps of poore men made
By his ſtrong power, his prey.

Pfalme xi. xii. xiii.

The second part.

- 11 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
- 12 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poore mans hope doth rest
Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord,
the poore that be oppress.
- 13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhorre it,
To heare the wicked in their heart
say, Tush, thou car'st not for it?
- 14 But thou seest all their wickednesse,
and well dost understand
- 15 That friendlesse and poore fatherlesse
are left into thy hand.
- 16 Of wicked and malicious men
then break the power for ever,
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.
- 17 The Lord shall reigne for evermore
as king and God alone,
And he will chafe the heathen folk
out of the land each one.
- 18 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the poore mens plaint,
their prayers and request:
Their hearts thou wilt confirm, untill
thine cares to heare be prest:
- 19 To judge the poore and fatherlesse,
and help them to their right;
That they may be no more oppress
by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Psal. xi. T. S.

This psalme sheweth, first, what assaults of temptation, and anguish of minde he sustained in persecution. Next he joyntly that God sent him succour in necessity, declaring his justice, as well in governing the good and wicked men, as the whole world.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

- I Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul untill,
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill?
- 2 Behold, the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prest
To shoot in secret and to hurt
the sound and harmlesse breast.
- 3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shrunk,
and cleady brought to nought:
Alas, the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?
- 4 But he that in his temple is
most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royall majesty,
- The poore and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde;
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankinde.
- 5 And with a chearfull countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhorre
all such as mischief use.
- 6 And on the sinners casteth snares
as thick as any rain,
Fire and brimstone, and whirlwindes thick,
appointed for their pain.
- 7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace,
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

Salvum me fac. Psal. xii. T. S.

The prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good order, desireth God speedily to send reformation. Then comforted with the assurance of Gods help and promises, concludeth that when all orders are most corrupted, then God will deliver his.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

- Help (Lord) for good and godly men
do perish and decay:
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.
- 4 Whoso doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain:
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and feign.
- 5 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stout
To speak proud words and make great brags,
the Lord soon cuts them out.
- 6 For they say still, we will prevail,
our tongues shall us exroll:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak;
what Lord shall us controll?
- 7 But for the great complaint and cry
of poore and men oppress, Arise will I now saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.
- 8 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tride,
And hath no less: then seven times
in fire been purifide.
- 9 Now sith thy promise is to help,
Lord, keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore
from this ill kinde of men.
- 10 For now the wicked world is full
of mischiefes manifold,
When vanitie with worldly men
so highly is extold.

Usque quo Domine. Psal. xiii. T. S.

David as it were overcome with afflictions, flieth to God his onely refuge, and encouraged through Gods promises, he conceiveth confidence against the extrem ravours of death.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

- How long wilt thou forget me, Lord,
shall I nere be remembered?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?
- 2 In heart and minde how long shall I
with care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me?
- 3 Behold me now my Lord my God,
and heare me sore oppress, Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death possesst:
- 4 Lest that mine enemy say to me,
behold I do prevail:
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.
- 5 But from thy mercy and goodnesse
my hope shall never start:
In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my heart.
- 6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:
Because he hath heard my request,
and graunted my wishing.

Psalme xiiii. xv. xvi. xvii.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xiiii. T. S.

He describeth the wickednesse of men grown to such licentiousnesse, that God was brought to utter contempt: for which, albeit he was greatly grieved, yet persuaded that God would redresse it, he is comforted.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

There is no God, as foolish men affirm in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.
3 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankinde,
And saw not one that fought indeed
the living God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none
That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their judgement so farre lost,
that all work mischief still,
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will?

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.

6 Ye mock the doings of the poore,
to their reproach and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.

7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel
from out of Sion hill?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

Here is taught why God chose the Jews to be his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them, which was that they by living uprightly, might witnesse that they were his speciall and holy people.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

O Lord within thy tabernacle
who shall inhabite still?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?

1 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight:
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill
in body, goods, or name,
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empair the same.

4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully,
Although he make his covenant so that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coyne,

Ne for to hurt the innocent
doth bribe, or else purloyn.

7 Whoso doth all things as you see that here is to be done,
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvi. T. S.

David prayeth to God for succour, not for his works, but for his faiths sake, protesting that he hateth all idolatry, taking God onely for his comfort and felicity, who suffereth him to lack nothing.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

Lord keep me; for I trust in thee;
and do confesse indeed,
Thou art my God and of my goods,
O Lord, thou hast no need.

2 I give my goods unto the faine
that in the world do dwell,
And namely to the faithfull flock
in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heap sorrows on their heads,
which runne as they were mad,
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloudy sacrifice
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell:
Mine heritage assign'd to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.

10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life;
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvii. T. S.

Here he complaineth to God of the cruell pride and arrogancy of Saus, who rageth without any cause: therefore he desireth God to revenge his innocency and deliver him.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

O Lord give care to my just cause,
attend when I complain:

And

And heare the prayer that I put forth
with lips that do not feign.
2 And let the judgement of my cause
proceed alwayes from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my simplicitie.

3 Thou hast well try'd me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the works of wicked men
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy name,
I have refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me (Lord) and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee, O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid:
Then heare my prayer, and weigh right well
the words that I have said.

7 O thou the saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee,
Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy majestie.

8 O keep me as thou wouldst keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me
and daily me annoy,
And from my foes that go about
my soul for to destroy:
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so far,
That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should passe,
with craft me to confound;
And musing mischief in their mindes,
to cast me to the ground.
12 Much like a lion greedily
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a lions whelp
within some secret place.

13 Up Lord in haste, prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliver me (Lord) by thy power
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rife,
That have no hope nor part of joy
but in this present life.

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st
with pleasure to their minde:
Their children have enough, and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.

17 But I shall with pure conscience

behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Psal. xviij. T. S.

David giveth thanks entering into his kingdom extolling the marvellous graces of God in his preservation: herein is the image of Christs kingdom, which shall conquer through Christ, by the unspeakable love of God, though all the world resist.

God my strength and fortitude, of force I must love thee: Thou art my castle and defence in my necessity. 2 My God, my rock in whom I trust, the worker of my wealth: my refuge,

buckler, and my shield, the horn of all my health.

3 When I sing laud unto the Lord
most worthy to be served,
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved.

4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.

5 The flie and subtle snares of hell
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did heare my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake, Yea the foundation of the mount
of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoke
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens high;
And underneath his feet he cast
the darknesse of theskie.

10 On cherubs and on cherubims
full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the windes
came flying all abroad.

The second part.

- 11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.
- 12 But when the presence of his face
in brightnesse shall appeare,
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coals of fire.
- 13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts
disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.
- 14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding cheare,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appeare.
- 15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below,
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
- 16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.
- 17 They did prevent me to oppresse
in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
- 18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free,
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.
- 19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward:
- 20 For that I walked in his wayes,
and in his paths have trod,
And have not wavered wickedly
against my Lord and God.

The third part.

- 21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.
- 22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt
appear'd before his face,
And did refrain from wickednesse
and sinne in any case.
- 23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.
- 24 For (Lord) with him that holy is
wilt thou be holy too,
And with the good and vertuous men
right vertuously wilt do.
- 25 And to the loving and elect
thy love thou wilt reserve:
And thou wilt use the wicked men
as wicked men deserve.
- 26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie,
And dost bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.
- 27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:

- The Lord my God will make also my darknesse to be light.
- 28 For by thy help an host of men
discomfit (Lord) I shall:
By thee I scale and overleap
the strength of any wall.
- 29 Unspotted are the wayes of God,
his word is purely true:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
- 30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:
Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone?

The fourth part.

- 31 The God that girdeth me with strength,
is he that I do mean,
That all the wayes wherein I walk
did evermore keep clean.
- 32 That made my feet like to the harts
in swiftnesse of my pace,
And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.
- 33 He did in order put my hands
to battell and to fight:
To break in sunder barres of brasse
he gave mine arms the might.
- 34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiaritie
doth still increase my power.
- 35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk,
So that my feet shall never slip
nor stumble at a balk.
- 36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoyd:
And from the field do not return
till they be all destroyd.
- 37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more:
For at my feet they fall down flar,
I strike them all so sore.
- 38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to warre in such a wise,
That they be all scattered abroad
that up against me rise.
- 39 Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortall enemies yokes
And all my foes thou dost divide
in sunder with thy stroke.
- 40 They call'd for help, but none gave care,
nor help them with relief:
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

- 41 And still like dust before the winde
I drive them under feet,
And sweep them out like filthy clay
that sticketh in the street.
- 42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk;
that still in strife are led:
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.
- 43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve:
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will swerve.

Psalme xix. xx. xxi.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he alwayes.

46 For God it is that gave me power
revenged for to be:
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me higher then those,
That cruell and ungodly were
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy name
among the Gentiles all.

49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the king, I say,
To David thine anointed king,
and to his seed for aye.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. xix. T. S.

He moveth the faithfull to glorifie God by the workmanship, proportion, and ornaments of the heavens, and by the law wherein God is revealed familiarly to his chosen people.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wonderfully declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.
2 The wondrous works of God appeare
by every dayes successe:
The night likewise which their race runne,
the self same thing expresse.

3 There is no language, tongue or speech,
where their sound is not heard:
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.

4 In them the Lord made for the sunne
a place of great renown,
Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haste to take in hand
some noble enterprize.

6 And all the skie from end to end
he compasseth about,
Nothing can hide it from his hear,
but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure,
Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure!

8 Just are the Lords commandements,
and glad both heart and minde,
His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blinde.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever:
The judgements of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether.

10 And more to be embrac'd alway
then fined gold, I say:
The hony and the hony combe
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd
to have God in regard:
And in performance of the same
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord, what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret sinnes,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sinnes
prevail not over me,
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dom. Psal. xx. T. S.

*The people pray to God to heare their king and receive his sacrifice which he offered before he went to bat-
tell against the Ammonites, declaring that the heathen put their trust in horses, but they trust onely in his name:
wherefore the other shall fall, but the king and his people shall stand.*

Sing this as the 14 psalme.

IN trouble and adversity
the Lord God heare thee still,
The majestie of Jacobs God
defend thee from all ill;
2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need,
And so in Sion stablish thee
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that now to him is done:
And so receive right thankfully
thy burnt-offerings each one.
4 According to thy hearts desire
the Lord graunt unto thee,
And all thy counsel and device
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us sav'st,
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace;
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence
and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.

8 They fall down flat, but we do rise
and stand up stedfastly.

9 Now save and help us, Lord and King,
on thee when we do cry.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxi. T. S.

*David in the person of the people praiseth God for the victory given them against the Syrians and Ammonites;
2. Sam. 10. wherein he was crowned with the crown of the king of Ammon, 2. Sam. 12. and indued with the manifold blessings of GOD.*

Sing this as the 18 psalme.

O Lord how joyfull is the king
in thy strength and thy power?

How vehemently doth he rejoyce
in thee his Saviour!

1 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast deny'd
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold,
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicitie
that never shall decay,
And with thy chearfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the king doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail:
Wherefore his goodnesse and his grace
will not that he shall quail.

8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand:
Finde out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief did they muse
against thy holy names:
Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to perform the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place,
And charge thy bow-strings readily
against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted (Lord) therefore in thy strength every houre:
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. xxii. T.S.

*David complaineth of his desperate extremities,
and declareth whereby he recovereth himself from temptation. Under his person is figured Christ.*

Sing this as the 21 psalme.

O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,
And helpst not when I do make my great complaint and cry?

2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call:
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy sanctuary
and holy place dost dwell,
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.

5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy name:
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm
more like then any man:
An outcast whom the people scorn
with all the spight they can.

7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and on this wise they say,

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love,
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy request:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her breast.
10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mothers wombe
thou hast been ere my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me
in this my present grief,
Since I have none to be my help
my succour and relief.

12 So many bulls do compass me
that be full strong of head:
Yea bulls so fat as though they had in Basan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay:
Much like a lion roaring out
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break,
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax against the heat.

15 And like a potsherd drieth my strength,
my tongue is cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel eke
Conspire against me cursedly,
they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told:
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not farre
from me at my great need:
But rather, sith thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.

20 And from the sword (Lord) save my soul
by thy might and thy power:
And keep my soul thy darling deare,
from dogs that would devour.

21 And from the lions mouth, that would me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns
Lord safely me deliver.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record:
And in thy church shall praise the name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him:
And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.
25 Among the folk that fear the Lord
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy name.
26 The poore shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do their deuer
To know the Lord, shall praise his name,
their hearts shall live for ever.
27 All coasts of th' earth shall praise the Lord
and turn to him for grace:
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.
28 The kingdome of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their governour
and king for evermore.
29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also:
And in his presence worship him
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.
31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Dominus regit me. Psal. xxiii. W.W.

David having tried Gods manifold mercies diverse wayes, gathereth the assurance that God will continue his goodnesse for ever.

Sing this as the 18 psalme.

THe Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing
whereof I stand in need?
2 He doth me fold in cores most safe
the tender grasie fast by:
And after drives me to the streams
which runne most pleasantly.
3 And when I feel my self neare lost,
then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths
even for his own names sake,
4 And though I were even at deaths doore,
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crook
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt
in despight of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balm refreshed,
my cup doth over flow.
6 And finally while breain doth last thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same, by T. S.

MY shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need;
In pastures fair with waters cald
he sets me forth to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my minde in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy name.
3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my foes
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.
5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shewed to me;
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiiii. T. H.

*The grace of God being now uttered in the temple,
more glorious then before in the tabernacle, David with exclamation setteth forth the benouit thereof, moving the consideration of the eternal mansions prepared in heaven, whereof this was a figure.*

Sing this as the 18 psalme.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it
above the seas to stand,
And laid a low the liquid founts,
to flow beneath the land.
3 For who is he (O Lord) that shall ascend into thy hill,
Or passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still?
4 Whose hands are harmlesse, and whose heart
no spot there doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guile.
5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blisefull plight,
And God his God and Saviour
shall yeeld to him his right.
6 This is the brood of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.
7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.
8 Who is the king of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord,

The

The mighty Lord in battell stout,
and triall of the sword.

- 9 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gates:
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.
10 Who is the king of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The kingdome and the royaltie
of glorious state is his.

Arte Domine. Psal. xxv. T. S.

*David grieved at his finnes and malicious enemies,
most fervently prayeth for forgiveness, especially of such finnes as he committed in his youth.*

Sing this as the 45. psalme.

- I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown
that put their trust in thee.
3 But shame shall them befall
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right wayes
unto me, Lord, describe.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee Lord remember,
And eke thy pity plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

- Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy finde:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord have me in thy minde.
7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.

- 8 The humble he will teach
his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his wayes
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the wayes of God
are truth and mercy both,
To them that keep his testament
the witness of his troth.

The second part.

- 10 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord I thee intreat
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
12 His soul shall evermore
in goodnesse dwell and stand,

His seed and his posteritie
inherit shall the land.
13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.

- 14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance,
That pluckt my feet out of the snare
of sinne and ignorance.
15 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my monet
For I am poore and desolate,
and comfortlesse alone.

- 16 The troubles of my heart
are multiply'd indeed: Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.
17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain,
Remit my sinne and mine offence,
and make me clein again.
18 O Lord behold my foes,
how they do still increase,
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain wou'd live in peace.
19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
20 Let my simple purenesse
me from mine enemies shend:
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldst me defend.
21 Deliver (Lord) thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

Judica me Domine. Psal. xxvi. T. S.

David injuriously oppressed, and helpless, yet assured of his integrity to Saul, calleth to God to defend him being causeles afflicted: Then he desireth to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregation of God, whence he was banished by Saul, promising godly life, open praises, thanksgiving, and sacrifice for his deliverance.

Sing this as the 24 psalme.

- Lord be my judge, and thou shalt see my paths be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.
2 Prove me my God, I thee desire
my wayes to search and trie:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart elsie.

- 3 Thy goodnesse laid before my face
I durst behold alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.
4 I do not lust to haunt or use
with men whose deeds are vain:
To come in house I do refuse
with the deceitfull train.

- 5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort
that hurtfull things devise.

- 6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
in works to walk upright:
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.
- 7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee,
And so declare how wondrous wayes
thou hast been good to me.
- 8 O God thy house I love most deare,
to me it doth excell:
I have delight and would be neare
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O shut not up my soul with them,
in sinne that take their fill;
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seek much blood to spill.
- 10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and guile,
their lives thereof are full:
And their right hand with wretch and wile,
for bribes doth pluck and pull.
- 11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and dayes to serve:
Have mercy (Lord) and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.
- 12 My foot is stayd for all assayes,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xxvii. J. H.

*David delivered from great perils, giveth thanks;
wherein we see constant faith against the assaults of all enemies, and the end why he desireth to live and to be delivered; then he exhorteth to faith, and to attend upon God.*

Sing this as the 14 psalme.

- THe Lord is both my health and light,
shall man make me dismayd?
Sith God doth give me strength and might,
why should I be afraid?
- 2 While that my foes with all their strength
begin with me to brall,
And think to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.
- 3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid:
In battell pight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.
- 4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:
For which I pray, and will desire
till he to me apply:
- 5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.
- 6 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure,
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.
- 7 At length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface,
that compass me about.
- 8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With psalmes and songs I will apply
to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

- 9 Lord heare the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call:
Have mercy (Lord) on me oppress,
and send me help withall.
- 10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face, faith thou to me;
Lord, I will seek thy face.
- 11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
- 12 My parents both their sonne forsook,
and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.
- 13 Teach me (O Lord) the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right,
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
- 14 Do not betake me to the will
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.
- 15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast,
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see
in life that aye shall last.
- 19 Trust still in God whose whole thou art,
his will abide thou must,
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te Dom. clamabo. Psal. xxviii. T. S.

*Being in fear and pensiveness to see God dishonoured
by wicked men, he cryeth for vengeance against them, and being assured that God hath heard him, he commendeth
all the faithful to his tuition.*

Sing this as the 28 psalme.

- THou art (O Lord) my strength and stay,
the succour which I crave:
Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.
- 2 The voice of thy suppliant heare,
that unto thee doth cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.
- 3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert,
That speak right fair unto their friends,
and think full ill in heart.
- 4 According to their handy work,
as they deserve indeed,
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.
- 5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.
- 6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint,
that heard so willingly I
- 7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse:
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confesse.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord blesse, guide, and preserve:
Increase them, Lord, and rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T.S.

David exhorteth princes, who for the most part think there is no God, as the least to fear him for the thunders and tempests, for fear whereof all creatures tremble. And albeit it threateth sinners, yet it moveth him to praise his name.

Sing this as the 21 psalme.

Give to the Lord, ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world
Give ye all praise, honour and strength,
unto the living Lord.

2 Give glory to his holy name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his majesty,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunderclaps,
and governs all the seas.

4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the cedar-trees so long:
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong:

6 And makes them leap like as a calf,
or else the unicorn,
Not onely trees but mountains great,
whercon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:

8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cades.

9 It makes the hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain:

Then in his temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord was set above the fouds,
ruling the raging sea:

So shall he reigne as Lord and king
for ever and for aye.

11 The Lord will give his people power
in vertue to increase:

The Lord will blesse his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

Exaltabo te Domino. Psal. xxx. J.H.

When David should dedicate his house to the Lord, he fell extreme sick without all hope of life, and therefore after recovery he thanketh God, exhorting others to do the like, and to learn by him that God is rather mercifull then severe towards his, also that adversity is sudden: then he prayeth, and promiseth to praise God for ever.

LI laud and praise with heart and voice O

Lord, I give to thee, Which didst not make my foes rejoyce, but hast exalted me. 2 O Lord my

God, to thee I cried in all my pain and grief:

Thou gav'st an care, and didst provide to ease

me with relief.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save:

Thou didst revive when strength did lack,
and keptst me from the grave.

4 Sing praise, ye saints that prove and see the goodness of the Lord:
In memory of his majestic
rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last, and slack again:
But in his favour and his grace
alwayes doth life remain.

Though gripes of grief and pangs full sore
shall lodge with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world as will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou (O Lord) of thy good grace
haddst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my minde was sore dismayd.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and prayd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my dayes?
Doth dust declare thy majestic,
or yet thy truth doth praise?

10 Wherefore my God some pitie take,
O Lord I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.

11 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo
into a cheerfull voice:

The mourning weed thou took'st me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoyce.

12 Wherefore my soul uncessantly
shall sing unto thy praise:

My Lord my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks alwayes.

● In te Domino. Psal. xxxi. J.H.

David delivered from great danger, sheweth first what meditation he hath by the power of faith, when death was before his eyes, and how the favour of God alwayes is ready to those that fear him: he exhorteth the faithful to trust in God, because he preserveth them.

Sing this as the 18 psalme.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:

As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me quite from blame.

2 Heare me, (O Lord) and that anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why? as stones thy strength is tride,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands (Lord) I commit
my spirit which is thy due:
For why? thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd.
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou see'st when ought would me annoy,
and know'st my soul full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand
that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail,
some pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dimme, my sight doth fail,
my wombe for wo doth ake.
10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my yeares in wo are past,
My strength is gone and through disdain,
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born
to see me are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they finde
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my minde did fray,
How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my life away.

14 But (O Lord) I trust in thee for aid,
not to be overtrod:
For I confesse and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant (Lord) expresse,
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me (Lord) for thy goodnesse,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked beare the shame,
and in the grave to fall.
18 O Lord make dumbe their lips outright,
which are addit to lies,

And cruelly with pride and sight,
against the just devise.

19 O how great good hast thou in store
laid up full safe for them
That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men!
20 Thy presence shall them fence and guide
from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so farre,
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of warre.

22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd,
Lo, I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heard'st thou my request.

23 Ye saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.

24 Be strong, and God shall stay your heart,
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye on him do trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxii. T. S.

*David punished with grievous sickness for his sinnes,
counteth all them happy to whom God doth not impute their transgressions. And after that he had confessed his sinnes and obtained pardon, he exhorteth the wicked men
to live godly, and the good men to rejoyce.*

Sing this as the 30th psalme.

THe man is blest whose wickednesse
the Lord hath clean remitted:
And he whose sinne and wickednesse,
is hid and also covered.

1 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

2 For whilest that I kept close my sinne
in silence and constraint,
My bones did weare and waste away
with daily mone and plaint.

3 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moist
to drynesse did convert.

4 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my sinnes discover:
Then thou (O Lord) did'st me forgive,
and all my sinnes passe over.

5 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

6 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.

7 Come hither and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guide as I my self have learn'd by proof and sight.

8 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule, Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.

C

10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God
his goodnesse shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

*Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiii. J. H.
He exhorteth good men to praise God for creating and governing all things, for his faithfull promise for scattering the counsell of the wicked, teaching, that no creature preserveth any man, but onely his mercy.*

Sing this as the 30 psalme.
YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankfull voice
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in psalmes and pleasant things:
With lute and instrument among
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his wayes.
5 To judgement, equity, and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hosts and powers every one
his breath to passe hath brought.
7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in an house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
fear God and keep his law:
Ye that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.
9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:
What he doth will is brought to passe
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude,
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The second part.
12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth choise of meeke accord
to take them as his own.
13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight
on men mortall by birth:
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers of the earth.
15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought
and working of the same.
16 A king that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevail at length:

The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troupes of horsemen eke shall fail,
their sturdy steeds shall sterve:
The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.

18 But lo, the eyes of God intend
and watch to aid the just:
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.

19 That he of death and great distresse,
may set their souls from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might:
For why? in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.
22 Therefore let thy goodnesse, O Lord,
still present with us be:
As we alwayes with one accord
do onely trust in thee.

*Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiiii. T. S.
David having escaped (Actis 1. Sam. 22.) praiseth God for his deliverance, giving others example to trust in God, to fear and serve him who defendeth the godly with his angels, and utterly destroyeth the wicked in their sinnes.*

Sing this as the 30 psalme.
I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwayes,
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.
2 I do delight to laud the Lord,
in soul and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortify'd
may heare and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord,
And let us now exalt his name
together with one accord.
4 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answered me again,
And me delivered incontinent
from all my fear and pain.

5 Whoso they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:
Their countenance shall not be dasht,
they need it not to fear.

6 This silly wretch for some relief
unto the Lord did call;
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place:
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore that God is good and just:
O happy man that maketh him
his onely stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly things:
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The lions shall be hungerbit,
and pinde with famine much:
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

11 Come neare therefore my children deare,
and to my words give care:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should fear.
12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life?
13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Enquire for peace and quietnesse,
and follow it with speed.
15 For why? the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent:
His eares likewise do heare the plaint
of the poore innocent.

19 But he doth frown and bend his browe
upon the wicked train:
And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.
17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kinde and straight at hand
to such as be conrite:
He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poore and meek in sprite:
19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep his very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.
21 The sinne shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them found:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Judica me Domine. Psal. xxxv. J. H.

Sauls flatterers persecuted David, who prayeth for revenge, that his innocency may be declared, and that such as take his part may rejoyce, for which he promisseth to magnifie Gods name all the dayes of his life.

Sing this as the humble suit of a sinner.

Lord plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:
Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour dresse:
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:
That thou unto my soul mayst say,
lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seek my soul to spill:
Let them turn back, and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as winde doth drive the dust:
And that the angel of our God
their might away may thrust, 6 Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slippery like to fall:
And send thine angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have
in secret set their grins:
And for no cause have dig'd a cave
to take my soul therein.
8 When they think least and have no care,
O Lord destroy them all:
Let them be trapt in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soul, my heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may rejoyce,
and in his saving health.
10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my parts shall all agree:
O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what man is like to thee?

The second part.

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.
12 My cruell foes against me rise,
to witnesse things untrue:
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.

13 Where I to them did owe good will,
they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.
14 When they were sick I mourn'd therefore,
and clad my self in sack:
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.

15 As they had been my brethren deare,
I did my self behave:
As one that maketh wofull cheare
about his mothers grave.
16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.

17 The belly-gods and flattering train,
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.
18 Lord when wilt thou amend this gear,
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul mine onely deare,
out of these lions claws.

19 And then will I give thanks to thee
before the church alwayes:
And where most of the people be
there will I shew thy praise.
20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to wink or turn their eye,
that causelesse me assault.

The third part.

- 21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
- 22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they flee:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.
- 23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they take,
cease not this gear to mend:
Be not farre off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.
- 24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.
- 25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God, set me free:
And let them not their pride expresse,
nor triumph over me.
- 26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry,
there, there, this gear goes trim:
Nor give them cause to say on high,
we have our will on him.
- 27 Confound them with rebuke and shame,
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with spight and blame,
that brag at me with scorn.
- 28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce,
which love mine upright way:
And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say,
- 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
for why? he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
- 30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise:
Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praise alwayes.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvi. J. H.

David vexed by the wicked, complaineth of their malice, but considering Gods great mercy to all creatures, especially towards his children, by faith therefore he is comforted and assured of his deliverance.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

- THe wicked with his works unjust
doth thus perswade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his fear is set apart.
- 2 Yet doth he joy in his estate
to walk as he began,
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.
- 3 His words are wicked vile and nought,
his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.
- 4 When he should sleep then doth he muse
his mischiefs to fulfill:
No wicked waies doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
- 5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend
above the heavens high:
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.
- 6 Much more then hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest:

Thy judgements like to seas most deep,
thou sav'st both man and beast.

- 7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excell:
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
- 8 Within thy house they shall be fed
with plenty at their will:
Of all lights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
- 9 For why? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee,
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.
- 10 From such as thee desire to know
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousness declare and show
to men of upright heart.
- 11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord, of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.
- 12 But they in their device shall fall
that wicked works maintain:
They shall be overthrown withall,
and never rise again.

Noli emulari. Psal. xxxvii. W. W.

Because the godly should not be daunted to see wicked men prosper, David sheweth that all things shall be granted even with hearts desire to them that love and fear God: but the wicked, albeit they flourish for a time, shall at length perishe.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

- GRudge not to see the wicked men
in wealth to flourish still:
Nor yet envie such as to ill
have bent and set their will.
- 2 For as green grasse and flourishing herbe
are cut, and wither away:
So shall their great prosperitie
soon passe, fade, and decay.
- 3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy minde:
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
- 4 In God set all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst with in all the world,
thou need'st it not to crave.
- 5 Cast both thy self and thine affairs
on God with perfect trust,
And thou shalt see with patience
th' effect both sure and just.
- 6 Thy perfect life and godly name
he will cleare as the light:
So that the sunne even at noon day
shall not shine half so bright.
- 7 Be still therefore, and steadfastly
on God see thou wait then,
Nor shrinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men.
- 8 Shake off despise, envy and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked steps avoid and flee,
and follow not their guile.
- 9 For every wicked man will God
destroy, both more and lesse:

But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to possesse.

20 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train,
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second part.

21 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land:
In rest and peace they shall rejoyce,
for nought shall them withstand.

22 The lewd men and malicious
against the just conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane desire.

23 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn:
For why? he sees their term approach,
when they shall sigh and mourn.

24 The wicked have their sword out drawn,
their bow eke have they bent,
To overthrow and kill the poore,
as he the right way went.

25 But the same sword shall pierce their heart,
which was to kill the just:
Likewise the bow shall break to shivers,
wherein they put their trust.

26 Doubtlesse the just mans poore estate
is better a great deal more Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.

27 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.

28 He sees by his great providence
the good mens trade and way:
And will give them inheritance
which never shall decay.

29 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard beset:
When others shall be hunger bit,
they shall be clad and fed.

30 For whosoever wicked is
and enemy to the Lord, Shall quail, yea melt even as lambes grease,
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

31 Behold the wicked borrow much,
and never payes again.
Whereas the just by liberrall gifts
makes many glad and faine.

32 For they whom God doth blesse, shall have the land for heritage:
And they whom he doth curse, likewise
shall perish in his rage.

33 The Lord the just mans wayes doth guide,
and gives him good success:
To every thing he takes in hand
he sendeth good address.

34 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand
at need and doth not fail.

35 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The just man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.

36 But gives alwayes most liberrally,
and lends whereas is need:

His children and posterity
receive of God their meed.

27 Flee vice therefore and wickednesse;
and vertue do embrace:
So God shall graunt thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.

28 For God to loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace,
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.

30 The just mans mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and high.
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.

31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.

32 The wicked like a ravenging wolf
the just man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill,
it he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give God would him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then:
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see
destroyd these wicked men.

35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree,
Flourishing in all wealth and store;
as doth the lawrell-tree.

36 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not finde
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressours, wo to them,
destroyd they shall all be:
God will cut of their budding race,
and rich posteritie.

39 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his meere grace and love.

40 God doth them help, save, and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

Domine nē. Psalm xxxviii. J.H.

David sick of some grievous disease, acknowledgeth himself to be chastised of the Lord for his sinnes, and therefore prayeth to God to turn away his wrath: but in the end with firm confidence, and commending his cause to God, hopeth for speedy help at his hand.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:

Psalm xxxix.

Ne in thy heavy wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire.

1 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth presse me fore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

2 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sinne.

3 For lo my wicked doings, Lord,
above my head are gone:
A greater load then I can beare,
they lie me sore upon.

4 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnesse
betideth unto me.

5 And I in carefull wise am brought
in trouble and distresse:
That I go wailing all the day
in dolefull heavinesse.

6 My loyns are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:

7 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart.

8 Thou knowest (Lord) my desire, my groans
are open in thy sight:

9 My heart doth pant, my strength doth fail,
mine eyes have lost their light.

10 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:

And eke my kinsmen farre away,
are me departed fro:

11 They that did seek my life, laid snares,
and they that sought the way
To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischief all the day.

The second part.

12 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot heare at all:

13 And as one dumbe, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.

14 For all my confidence, O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:

O Lord thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give care to me.

15 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:

For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.

16 And truly I poore wretch am set
in place, a wofull sight:

And eke my grievous heavinesse
is ever in my sight.

17 For while that I my wickednesse
in humble wise confesse:

And while I for my sinfull deeds
my sorrows do expresse.

18 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are also:

And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

19 They stand against me that my good
with evil do repay:

Because that good and honest things
I do ensue away.

20 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:

21 Haste me to help, my Lord my God,
my safety and my stay.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. xxxix. J. M.

David having determined silence, yet burst forth into words that he would not through his bitter grief: for he maketh certain requests, which talke of mans infirmity, yet mixed with many prayers, and all to shew a minde wonderfully troubled, that it may appeare how he did strive mightily against death and desperation.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

I Said I will look to my ways
for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:

Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my breast,
with musing, thought, and doubt:
Which did increase and stirre the fire,
at last these words burst out;

5 Lord number out my life and dayes
which yet I have not past,

So that I may be certified
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy

In getting goods, and cannot tell
who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now Lord, fish things this wife do frame,
what help do I desire?

Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the finnes that I have done
Lord quit me out of hand,

And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumbe, and to complain
no trouble might me move:

Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge and plague,
I can them not withstand:

I faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sinne dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan,

As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord heare my suit and give good heed,
regard my teares that fall:

I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore,

Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

Expectans expectavi. Psal. xl. J. H.

David delivered from great danger, doth magnifie God therefore, and commendeth his providence towards all mankind: then he promisseth to give himself wholly to Gods service, and declareth how God is truly worshipped: afterward he giveth thanks, and having complained of his enemies, he calleth for aid and succour.

Sing this as the 13 psalme.

I Waited long and fought the Lord,
and patiently did beare:
At length to me he did accord
my voice and cry to heare.

2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a psalme of praise,
which I must shew abroad,
And sing new songs of thanks alwayes,
unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see,
as people much afraid,
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain,
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and faine.

6 For Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds
in greatnesse farre do passe, Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that eyer was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show,
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offerings thou delight'st not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sinne
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not have at all:
But thou (O Lord) hast open made mine eares to heare withall.
10 But then said I, behold and look,
I come a mean to be:
For in the volume of thy book
thus is it said of me,

11 That I (O God) should do thy minde,
which thing doth like me well:
For in my heart thy law I finde
fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou knowst full well.

The second part.

13 I have not hid within my breast
thy goodness as by stealth:
But I declare and have exprest
thy truth and saving health.

14 I kept not close thy loving minde,
that no man should it know:
The trust that in thy truth I finde,
to all the church I show.

15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me
withdraw thou not away:
But let thy love and veritie
preserve me still for aye.

16 For I with mischief many a one am fore beset about:
My sinnes increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord, I thee require:
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.

19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame
that seek my soul to spill:
Drive back my foes, and them defame
that wish and would me ill.

20 For their ill teats do them deserie,
that would deface my name:
Alwayes at me they rail and cry,
fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee alwayes:
That those that love thy saving health
may say, To God be praise.

22 But as for me I am but poore,
opprest and brought full low:
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge help and stay:
Wherefore my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T. S.

David grievously afflicted, blesteth them that pitie his case, complaining on his faithlesse friends, such as Judas, Joh. 13. Then he giveth thanks for Gods mercy in chastising him gently, and not suffering his enemies to triumph.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

THe man is blest that carefull is
the needie to consider:
For in the season perilous
the Lord will him deliver.

2 The Lord will make him safe and sound,
and happy in the land:
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his sickness and his sore.

4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my soul which is full wo,
that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wish me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away?

6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well:
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me harm,
C 4

Psalme xlii. xlii. xliii.

And cast their fetches how to trap
me with some mortall harm.
8 Some grievous sinne hath brought him to this sicknesse, say they plaint:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not again.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit:

Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.

10 Have mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preserved:
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserved.

11 By this I know assuredly
to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore:
Even so be it, Lord, will I say,
even so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xlii. J. H.

David is grieved, that through persecutors he could not be present in the congregation, protesting his presence in heart, albeit in body separate. At last he sheweth, that notwithstanding these sorrows and thoughts, yet he continually putteth his trust in the Lord.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

Like as the hart doth breath and bray
the wel-springs to obtain;
So doth my soul desire alway
with thee (Lord) to remain.

2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw neare
the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appeare
in presence of his sight.

3 The teares all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men crie out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?

4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedome once I had?
Therefore my soul as at pits brink
most heavy is and sad.

When I did march in good aray,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way
with songs and hearts most faine

5 My soul, why art thou sad alwayes,
and farest thus in my breast?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need
against all pain and grief:
He is my God, which with all speed
will hast to send relief.

6 And then my soul within me, Lord,
doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:

The fouds of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.

8 Yet I by day felt his goodnesse
and help at all affaires:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to say
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.

Why do I then in penivenessse hanging the head thus walk,
While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and vex me with their talk?

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd,
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?

11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy self assail
so fore within my breast?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies,
and thou the time shalt see,
To give him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Judica me Domine. Psal. xlii. T. S.

He prayeth to be delivered from them which conspire with Absalom, to the end that he might joyfully praise God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitfull men
O Lord, deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why puttst thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light, and cke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace,
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and cheare;
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most deare.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and farest thus in my breast?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwayes best.

6 By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alway
at need send me relief.

Deus auribus. Psal. xliii. T. S.

A most earnest prayer made in the name of the faith-
full in persecution, for sustaining the quarrell of Gods word, as in S. Paul Rom. 8.

O

Ur cares have heard our fathers tell, and reverently record The wondrous works that thou hast

hast done in older time, O Lord. a How thou

didst cast the Gentiles out, and stroidst them with strong hand: Planting our fathers in their place,

and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor strength
the land of thy behest:

But by thy hand, thy arm and grace,
because thou lovest them best.

4 Thou art my King O God, that holp
Jacob in sundry wise.

5 Led with thy power we threw down such as did against us rise.

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:

7 Thou keptst us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy name:

9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
and so were overtrod:

Our enemies rob'd and spoil'd our goods,
when we were spent abroad.

11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:

Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves;
and as a thing of nought:

For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was fought.

13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing stock:

And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:

They mock, they scorn, they nod their heads
where ere they go or walk.

15 I am ashamed continually,
to heare these wicked men:

Yea so I blush, that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we heare such slanderous words,
such false reports and lies:

That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:

18 We turn not back our hearts from thee
nor yet thy paths forsake.

19 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be,

And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversitie.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of idols sought,

21 Would not God then have tride this out,
for he doth know our thought?

22 Nay, nay, for thy names sake, O Lord,
alwayes are we slain thus:

As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.

23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou awake,
and leave us not for all:

24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall?

25 For down to dust our soul is brought
and we novv at last cast

Our belly, like as it were glude,
unto the ground cleaves fast.

26 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need:

We thee beseech for thy goodnesse,
to rescue us with speed.

Eruſtavit. Psal. xlv. J. H.

Solomon, his majesty, honour, strength, beauty, riches, and power are praised: his marriage with the Egyptian an heathen woman is blessed, if that she renounce her people and country, and give herself wholly to her husband. Here is figured the wonderfull majesty and increaſe of Christs kingdome, and the church his spouse now taken of the Gentiles.

Sing this as the 25 psalme.

MY heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein
pertaineth to the king.

2 My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.

3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.

4 About thee gird thy sword,
O prince of might elect:
With honour, glory and renown,
thy person pure is deckt.

5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meeknesse truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.

6 Thine arrows sharp and keen,
their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O king.

7 Thy royall seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
Because the scepter of thy realm
doth righteousness maintain.

8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest,
God, even thy God hath nointed thee
with joy above the rest.

9 With myrthe, and savours sweet,
thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace passe,
therein to make thee glad.

10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

- 11 O daughter take good heed,
encline and give good eare:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most deare.
- 12 Then shall the king desire
thy beauty fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.
- 13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see,
And all the wealthy of the land,
shall make their suit to thee.
- 14 The daughter of the king
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit,
all deckt in beaten gold.
- 15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the king.
- 16 Thus are they brought with joy
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they do abide.
- 17 In stead of parents left,
(O queen the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou maist set
as princes in all lands.
- 18 Wherefore thy holy name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. xlii. J.H.

A song of thanksgiving for the deliverance of Jerusalem, after Sennacherib with his army was driven away, or some other like sudden and marvellous deliverance by the mighty hand of God: whereby the prophet commending his great benefits, doth exhort the faithfull to give themselves wholly into the hand of God, doubting nothing but that under his protection they shall be safe against all the assaults of their enemies.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

- THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismayd,
he is our help at hand.
- 2 Though th' earth remove, we will not fear,
though hills so high and steep,
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.
- 3 No, though the waves do rage so fore
that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beate down mighty hills.
- 4 For one fair floud doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace,
To fresh the cite of our God,
and wash his holy place.
- 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell,
the Lord will truly slay.
- 6 The heathen folk the kingdomes fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appeare,
when God puts forth his voice.

- 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
- 8 Come here and see with minde and thought
the working of our God:
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.
- 9 By him all warres are hushd and gone,
which countreys did conspire:
Their bows he brake and spears each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.
- 10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout,
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.
- 11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xliii. J.H.

An exhortation to worship God for his mercies to Jacobs posterity. Herein is prophesied the kingdome of Christ in the time of the gospel.

Sing this as the 46 psalme.

- YE people all with one accord
clap hands and eke rejoyce:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord
with sweet and pleasant voice.
- 2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold:
A mighty king he is truly,
in all the earth extold.
- 3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.
- 4 For us the heritage he chose
which we possesse alone,
The flourishing worship of Jacob
his welbelov'd one.
- 6 Our God ascended up on high
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skie
with trumpets royall voice.
- 6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is king of all the earth,
all skilfull praises sing.
- 8 God on the heathen reignes and sits
upon his holy throne:
The princes of the people have them joynd every one To Abrahams people: for our God,
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xliiii. J.H.

Thanks is given to God for the notable deliverance of Jerusalem from the hands of many kings: the estate whereof is praised, for that God is present at all times to defend it. This psalme seemeth to be made in the time of Ahaz, Jchothaphat, Asa, or Hezekiah, for then chiefly was the cite by forraign princes assaulted.

Sing this as the 21 psalme.

- Great is the Lord, and with great praise
to be advanced still,

Within

Within the citie of our God,
upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:

The citie of the mightie King,
on her north side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof
God is a refuge known:
For lo, the kings are gathered, and together they are gone.

4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.

5 Great terrour there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travail by and by.

6 As thou with eastern winde the ships
upon the sea dost break:
So they were stroy'd, and even as we heard our fathers speak.

7 So in the city of the Lord
we saw as it was told,
Yea in the citie which our God
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord we wait and do attend
on thy good help and graces:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy name
for ever is thy praise:

And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousness alwaies.

10 Let, for thy judgements, Sion mount fulfilled be with joyes:

And eke of Juda, grant O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.

12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also
our guider shall he be.

Audite hæc omnes. Psal. xlix. J. H.

*Gods spirit moveth the consideration of mans life,
shewing that the wealthie are not happiest, but noteth
how all things are ruled by Gods providence: who as he judgeth these worldly misers to everlasting torments; so doth he preserve him, and will reward them in the day of the resurrection. 2. Theff. 1.*

Sing this as the 43 psalme.

AL people hearken and give care
to that that I shall tell,
2 Both high and low, both rich and poore
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse
of many things right wise:
In understanding shall mine heart
his study exercise.

4 I will encline mine eare to know
the parable so dark:

And open all my doubtfull speech
in meeter on my harp.

5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any carefull toyl:
Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoile?

6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most;
And they which of their treasures great
themselves do brag and boast;

7 There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeem,
Or that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain:
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.

9 They see wise men as well as fools,
subject unto deaths bands:
And being dead, strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.

10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure
To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.

11 Yet shall no man alwayes enjoy high honour wealth and rest;

12 But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they try their foolish thoughts
to be most lewd and vain:

Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sinne remain.

14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave:
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall lordship have.

15 Their image and their royall port shall fade and quite decay,
When as from house to pit they passe
with wo and wel-away.

16 But God will surely preserve me
from death and endlesse pain:
Because he will of his good graces
my soul receive again.

17 If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not I say therefore:
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.

18 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive:
His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leave.

19 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under sunne:
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, All is well done.

20 And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old;
Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to deaths fold.

21 Thus man to honour God hath brought,
yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beasts so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

Deus deorum. Psal. L. W. W.

He propheseth how God will call all nations by the gospel, and require no other sacrifice of his people, but the confession of his benefits and thanksgiving: and how he detesteth all such as seem zealous of ceremonies, and not of the power of the word.

He mighty God, th' eternall hath thus spoke,

And all the world he will call and provoke: Even from the east, and so forth to the west. 2 From toward Sion, which place he liketh best, God

will appeare in beauty most excellent: Our God

will come before that long time be spent.

3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face;

A great tempest
shall round about him trace.

4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right:

5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble:
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.

6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness:
For God is judge
of all things more and lesse.

7 Heare my people,
for I will now reveal,
Lift Iſrael,

I will thee nought conceal.
Thy God, thy God

am I, and will not blame thee

8 For giving not all manner offerings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall:

10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:

On thousand hills
cattell are mine own goods.

11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:

All beasts are mine
which haunt the fields and fountains.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell;

For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks?

Or drink the bloud
of goats, or of the flocks?

14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God everliving.

15 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked
thus saith th' eternall God,
Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad:

17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hatest to be
by discipline reformed?

My words I say,
thou dost reject and hate:

18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou run'st with him,
and so your prey do seek,
And art all one
with bauds and ruffians eke.

19 Thou givest thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.

20 Thou sittest musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mothers sonne to shame.

21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.

22 Consider this
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when
he threatneth with his word:
Left without help

I spoil you as a prey.

23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same, by J. H.

Sing this as the 25 psalme.

THe God of Gods, the Lord,
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the sunne doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.

- 4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise,
He will call forth to judge and trie,
his folk he doth devise.
- 5 Bring forth my saints, saith he,
my faithfull flock so deare:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and feare.
- 6 And when these things are tride,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just; and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.
- 7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
- 8 I do not say to thee
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me
much more then I do lack.
- 9 Thinkst thou that I do need
thy cattell young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on goats out of thy fold?
- 10 Nay; all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:
And thousands more of neat and kine;
that run wilde on the hills.

The second part.

- 11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight:
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to thy might.
- 12 Then though I hungered fore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?
- 13 To bulls flesh have I minde
to eat it dost thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I finde
the bloud of goats to drink?
- 14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows alwaies
unto the God most high.
- 15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame:
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou maist praise my name.
- 16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say,
- 17 With what a face darest thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?
- 18 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behinde thy back.

The third part.

- 19 When thou a thief dost see
by theft to live in wealth,
With him thou run'st, and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
- 20 When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile,

Thou likest it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.

- 21 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
- 22 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so neare:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers sonne most deare.
- 23 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not see,
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
- 24 But sure I will not let
to strike, when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.
- 25 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in minde:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be farre to finde.
- 26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walk in godly wayes.

Miserere mei. Psal. li. W. W.

David rebuked by the prophet Nathan for his great offense, acknowledged the same to God, protesting his naturall corrupt on. Wherefore he prayeth God to forgive his sins, and renew in him his holy Spirit, promising that he will not be unmindfull of these great graces. Finally, fearing lest God would punish the whole church for his fault, he requieth that he rather would increase his grace towards the same.

Lord consider my distresse, and now with speed some pitie take: My sinnes deface, my faults redresse, good Lord for thy great mercies

take. 1 Wash me O Lord, and make me clean

from this unjust and sinfull act, And purifie yet

once again my hainous crime and bloody tact.

- 3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excess:
My sinne alas doth still remain
before my face without release.
- 4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgements just and right.
- 5 It is too manifest alas
that first I was conceived in sinne:

Yea of my mother so born was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
6 Also behold (Lord) thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wilddome from above
thou hast reveal'd, me to convert.
7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.
8 Therefore O Lord such joy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace,
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast twag'd for my trespasse.
9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sinnes, I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
10 Make now my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not (Lord) out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those joyes again
which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retain,
which unto thee may stirre my minde.
13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flee sinne.
14 O God that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloudy vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.
15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testifie
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.
17 The heave heart the minde oppress,
O Lord thou never dost reject:
And to speak truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the best.
18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face,
poure out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls, and love it still.
19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings
of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yea calves and many other things
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same, by J.H.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAve mercy on me (Lord) after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sinnes deface.
2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sinne:

For I do know my faults, and still
my sinne is in mine eyne.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face:
4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou maist be tride,
And eke in judging, that the doom
may passe upon thy side.

5 Behold, in wickednesse my kinde
and shape I did receive:
And lo my sinfull mother eke
in sinne did me conceive.

6 But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee;
And secrets of thy wilddome thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of joy and gladnesse make thou me
to heare the pleasant voice:
That to the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my sinnes,
Lord turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednesse
do utterly deface.

10 O God create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renew a stable sprite.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving health,
give me again I pray.

12 With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from bloud deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unclose:
The praises of thy majestie
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice
delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart
God, thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jerusalem
upreard may be the wall.

18 Burnt-offerings gifts and sacrifice of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. lii. J.H.

David describeth the arrogant tyranny of Doeg Sauls chief shepherd, who by false surmises caused Abimelech and the priests to be slain: he prophesieth destruction, encourage the faithfull to trust in God, who must sharply revenge his, and rendreth thanks for his deliverance. Herein is lively set forth the kingdom of antichrist.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?

Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alwayes?

1 Why dost thy minde yet still devise such wicked wiles to warp?

Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a rasour sharp.

3 On mischief why setst thou thy minde,
and wilt not walk upright?

Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
then bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, blood, and wrong:

Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for aye confound,
and pluck thee from thy place,
Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

6 The iust when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall
crie out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence:

But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.

8 But I as Olive fresh and green
shall spring and spread abroad:

For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:

I will set forth thy name alwayes,
Wherein thy saints rejoyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. liii. T.S.

David describeth the crooked nature, cruelty, and punishment of the wicked, when they look not for it, and desireth the deliverance of the godly, that they may rejoyce together.

Sing this as the 46 psalme.

The foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said,
That there is any God at all
hath utterly denaid.

1 They are corrupt, and they also
a hainous work have wrought:

Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord lookt down on sonnes of men,
from heaven all abroad:

To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:

There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know that they do feed upon

My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismayd, Whereas there was no cause at all
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd
hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

9 When God his people shall restore that erst was captive led,

Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. liiii. J.H.

David in great danger through Ziphims, calleth upon God to destroy his enemies, promising sacrifice for his deliverance.

Sing this as the 44 psalme.

God save me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodnesse sake:
Unto the strength, Lord, of the same,
I do my cause betake.

1 Regard O Lord, and give an eare
to me when I do pray:

Bow down thy self to me and heare
the words that I do say.

3 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.

4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soul is staid
the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait:

And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.

6 An offering of free heart and will then I to thee shall make,
And praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord at length do set me free
from them that craft conspires:
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lv. J.H.

David in great distresse, complaineth of Sauls cruelty, and falshood of his familiar acquaintance, effectuously moving the Lord to pity him: then assured of his deliverance, he setteth forth the grace of God as if he had already obtained his request.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

O God give care, and do apply
to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.

1 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me again:

With plaints I pray full sore oppress'd,
great grief doth me constrain.

3 Because my foes with threats and cries,
oppresse me through despight:

D 2

And

And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.

4 For they in counsell do conspire
to charge me with some ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteith in my breast:
The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unrest.

6 Such dreadfull fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such honour whelmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.

7 But I did say, Who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair dove, that I may flie,
and rest me from these things?

8 Lo then I would go farre away,
to flie I would not cease:
And I would hide my self, and stay
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behinde:

That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boistrous winde.

10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull their devilish double tongue:
For I have spide their citie full of rapine, strife, and wrong.

11 Which things both night and day throughout,
do close her as a wall:

In midst of her is mischief flout,
and sorrow eke withall.

12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide,
From open enemies check and blame
some where I could me hide.

14 But thou it was my fellow deare,
which friendship didst pretend,
And didst my secret counsel heare,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad,
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

16 Let dearch in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief reigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.

18 At morning, noon, and evening tide,
unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly have cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though warre be now at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth reigne,
both now and evermore,

Will heare when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:

For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord.

22 Upon their friends they laid their hands
which were in covenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they have warre within their hearts,
as butter are their words:

Although their words were smooth as oyl,
they cut as sharp as swords.

24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:

For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit
that thirst for blood alwayes:

He will no guiltfull man permit
to live out half his dayes.

26 Though such be quite destroyed and gone,
in thee O Lord I trust:

I shall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psal. lvi. J. H.

David being brought to Achish the king of Gath. 1. Sam. 21. 10. complaineth of his enemies, demandeth succour, trusteth in God, and promiseth to perform his vow which was to praise God in his church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAve mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me devoure;
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.

2 Mine enemies daily enterprize
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid
with boasts and brags of pride;

I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.

4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
O Lord I stick to thee:
I do not care at all affairs
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrest them at their will;

And all the counsell that they take
is how to work me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay:

They spie my paths, and snares have tide
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set?
thou God on them wilt frowne;

For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdomes downe:

8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
and on my teares dost look:
Reserve them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy name,
my foes away do start:

I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.

10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:

With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began,
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.

12 I will perform with heart so free,
to God my vows alwayes:
And I O Lord all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soul from death thou dost defend,
and keep'st my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

Miserere mei. Pſal. Lvii. J. H.

David in the desert of Ziph, betrayed by the inhabitants, and in the same cave with Saul, calleth unto God, with full confidence that he will perform his promise and shew his glory in heaven and earth, against his cruell enemies. Therefore he rendreth laud and praise.

Sing this as the 44 psalme.

TAke pittie for thy promise sake,
have mercy Lord on mee:
For why? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.

2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I set my self full fast,
Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.

3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

4 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spight:
That to devoure me have assaid,
his mercy, truth, and might.

5 I leade my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fire like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long
as sharp as I have seen:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue
like swords and weapons keen.

7 Set up and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majestie and might.

8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fals in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy alwayes:
My heart, I say, doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp and strings:
For I my self before the day
will rise, rejoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodnesse of my God,
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as farre
as heavens all are high:
His truth as high as any starre
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

Si verè utique. Pſal. lviii. J. H.

He describeth his malicious enemies, Sauls flatterers, who secretly and openly sought his destruction, from whom he appealeth to Gods judgement, shewing that the just shall rejoyce at the punishment of the wicked, to Gods glory.

Sing this as the 48 psalme.

YE rulers that are put in trust
to judge of wrong and right,
Be all your judgements true and just,
not knowing meed or might?

2 Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to content,
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise:
And from their mothers wombe alway
have used craft and lies.

4 In them the poyson and the breath
of serpents do appeares:
Yea like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her eares.

5 Because she will not heare the voice
of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excell.

6 O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouthes throughout:
The tusks that in their great jaw-bones,
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forth right:
The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sunne.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong shall take them ere they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good,
that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in bloud
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell,
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

Eripe me. Pſal. lix. J. H.

David in great danger of Saul who sent to slay him in his bed, declarer his innocency and the r fury, praying God to destroy all malicious sinners, who live for a time to exercise his people, but in the end consume in his wrath, to Gods glory. For this he singeth praise to God, assured of his mercies.

S

End aid and save me from my foes, O Lord, I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those Psalm lx.

that rise and strive with me. a O Lord preserve

me from those men, whose doings are not good:

And set me sure and safe from them that thirst

still after blood.

- 3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.
- 4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.
- 5 O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all lands:
And pitie none that do rebell,
and in their mischief stand.
- 6 At night they stirre and seek about,
as hounds they howl and grin:
And all the citie clean thoroughout,
from place to place they run.
- 7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are words:
They greed my death, and then would say,
what? none doth heare our words.
- 8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espide,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.
- 9 The strength that doth our foes withstand,
O Lord, doth come from thee:
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.
- 10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

- 11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord,
lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and to consume them all.
- 12 For their ill words and truthlesse tongue,
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oathes with lies and wrong,
let all the world deride.
- 13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world,
that Jacobs God doth reigne.
- 14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spie.
- 15 They seek about for meat, I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.
- 16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise.

For thou art my defence and God
at need in all affaires.

- 17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid;
O Lord I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus repulisti. Psalm lx. J.H.

David now king over Juda, after many victories, sheweth by evident signes that God elected him king, assuring the people, that God will prosper them if they approve the same. After he prayeth unto God, to finish that that he had begun.

Sing this as the 35 psalme.

- O Lord thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatteredst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take;
return to us O God.
- 2 Thy might did move the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.
- 3 With heaveie chance thou plaguest thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.
- 4 But yet to such as fear thy name
a banner thou didst shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.
- 5 So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord grant this to me.
- 6 The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale,
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.
- 7 Gilead is given to my hand,
Manasses mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Judah guide.
- 8 In Moab I will wash my teer,
over Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine ought'st to seek for favour me unto.

- 9 But who will bring me at this tide
unto the citie strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?
- 10 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
thy folk, their land, and coasts?
Our warres in hand thou wouldst not take nor walk among our hosts.
- 11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain.
- 12 But through our God we shall have might
to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psalm lxi. J.H.

Whether he were in danger of the Ammonites, or pursued of Absalom, here he crieth to be delivered, and confirmed in his kingdome, promising perpetuall praises.

Sing this as the 59 psalme.

- R Egard O Lord, for I complain, and make my suit to thee

Let not my words return in vain,
but give an eare to me.

1 From out the coasts and utmost parts
of all the earth abroad,
In grief and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power
my wofull minde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.

4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With godly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his name.

6 The king shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his dayes:
That he from age to age shall reigne,
for evermore alwayes.

7 That he may have a dwelling place
before the Lord for aye;
O let thy mercy, truth, and grace,
defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I sing for ever still with praise unto thy name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Psal. lxii. J.H.

David declareth by his example, and the nature of God, that he and all people must trust in God alone, seeing that all without God goeth to nought, who onely is of power to save, and that he rewardeth man according to his works.

Sing this as the 59 psalme.

MY soul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.

1 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health, and aid:
He is my stay, that no pretence
shall make me much dismayd.

3 O wicked folk how long will ye
use craft? sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.

4 Whom God doth love, ye seek alwayes
to put him to the worke:
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:
From all ill feares me to defend,
none but him I require.

6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power
can move me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my souls desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.

8 Oh have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord:
Poure out your hearts to him, and say,
our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on balance but a sleight:
With things most vain do them compare,
for they can keep no weight.

10 Trust not in wrong, robbery, nor stealth,
let vain delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did tell,
which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.

12 And that thou (Lord) art good and kinde,
thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall finde
according to their deed.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. lxiii. T.S.

*David after his danger in Ziph, giveth thanks to God
for his wonderfull deliverance, in whose mercy he trust-eth, even in the midst of misery: prophesying the destruction of Gods enemies: and contrariwise, happinesse to all them that trust in the Lord. 1. Sam. 23.*

Sing this as the 44 psalme.

O God my God, I watch betime,
to come to thee in haste:
For why? my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.
And in this barren wildernesse
where waters there are none,
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I with alone.

2 That I might see yet once again
thy glory, strength, and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy temple bright.
3 For why? thy mercies farre surmount
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud and praise.

4 And whilst I live, I will not fail
to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.
5 My soul is fill'd as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs,
as are for thee most meet,

6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night tide.
7 For under covert of thy wings,
thou art my joyfull guide.
8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seek my soul to stroy,
them death shall soon devour.

10 The sword shall them devour each one,
their carcases shall feed
The hungry foxes which do run their prey to seek at need.
11 The king and all men shall rejoyce,
that do professe Gods word:
For liars mouths shall then be stoppt,
which have the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lxiiii. J.H.

David prayeth against the false reporters and slanderers: he declareth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the just, and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 59 psalme.

O Lord unto my voice give care,
with plaint when I do pray:

And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.

2 Defend me from that sort of men
which in deceit do lurk:

And from the frowning face of them
that all ill teats do work.

3 Who whet their tongues as we have seen men whet and sharp their swords:

They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.

4 With privy sleights shoot they their shaft,
the upright man to hit:

The just unware to strike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed,
in counsel thus they cry,

To use deceit let us not dread,
what? who can it espie?

6 What way to hurt they talk and muse
all times within their hearts:

They all consult what teats to use,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevail;
when they think least upon,

God with his dart shall sure assail,
and wound them every one.

8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall
shall work themselves such blame,

That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that see shall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought,

And praise his witty works, and tell what he to passe hath brought.

10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce,
still trusting in his might:

So shall they joy with minde and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

Te decet hymnus. Psal. lxxv. J. H.

A thanksgiving unto God by the faithfull, who are signified by Zion and Jerusalem, for the changing preservation, and governance of them, and for the plentiful blessings poured forth upon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30 psalme.

THy praise alone, O Lord, doth reigne
in Zion thine own hill:

Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their behests fulfill.

2 For that thou dost their prayers heare,
and dost thereto agree:

The people all both farre and neare,
with trust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:

But Lord, forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sinne.

4 The man is blest whom thou dost choose,
within thy courts to dwell:

Thy house and temple he shall use,
with pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great justice heare us God,
our health of thee doth rise:

The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.

6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power:

Thou mak'st the mountains strong and stout,
to stand in every shower.

7 The twelling seas thou dost assuage,
and make their streams full still:

Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

8 The folk that dwell full farre on earth shall dread thy signes to see,

Which no orn and even in great mirth
do passe with praise to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and dry,
and thirsteth more and more,

Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.

10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring

The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clods do fall:

Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and blisse her fruit withall.

12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace
with faire and pleasant crop:

Thy clouds distill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop:

13 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring:

The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.

14 In place, plain the flock shall feed,
and cover all the earth:

The vales vvith corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. lxxvi. T. S.

He exhorteth to praise the Lord in his wonderfull works: he setteth forth the power of God to affray rebels, and sheweth Gods mercy to Israel, and to provoke all men to beare and praise his name.

Sing this as the 68 psalme.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce,
with praise set forth his name:
Extoll his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.

2 How wonderfull O Lord say ye
in all thy works thou art!

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee,
full fore against their heart.

3 All men that dwell the earth throughout,
shall praise the name of God:

The laud thereof the world about
is shewd and set abroad.

4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:

Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to passe hath brought.

5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had,

On foot to passe both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:

All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be contrould.

7 Ye people give unto our God
due laud and thanks alwaies:

With joyfull voyce declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise,

8 Which doth endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withall:

He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.

9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide:
As workmen do when they desire to have their mettals tride, 10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast,
And there with chains and fetters strong,
to lie in bondage fast:

The second part.

11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on us to ride and reigne:
Though we through fire and vvater run,
of very grief and pain:
12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best,
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort vvill I
to offer and to pray,
And there I will my self apply,
my vows to thee to pay.

14 The vvows that vvith my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart:
The vvows I say, vvich I did make
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings I vvill give to thee
of oxen fat and rams:

Yea this my sacrifice shall be of bullocks, goats, and lambes.

16 Come forth and hearken here full soon,
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poore soul hath done,
to you I vvill record.

17 Full oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make speed apace
to praise him by and by.

18 But if I feel my heart vvithin
in vvicked vvorks rejoyce;
Or if I have delight to sinne,
God vvill not heare my voice.

19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and vvhat I do require:
My prayer he doth vvell regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shur,
vvhich I do ever finde.

Deus misereatur. Psal. Lxxii. JH.

A sweet prayer for all the faithfull to obtain the favour of God, and to be lightned with his countenance, to the end, that his way and judgements may be known throughout the earth. Rejoycing that God is the governour of all nations.

Sing this as the 25 psalme.

HAve mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou accord
the brightnesse of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the vvay to godly vvealth:
And all the nations on a rovv
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the vvorld, O God,
give praise unto thy name:

O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:

O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall,
And then our God the God of peace shall blesse us eke withall.

7 God shall us blesse, I say,
and then both farre and neare,
The folk throughout the earth alway
of him shall stand in fear.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. lxxiii. T. S.

David expresth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all means and most strange sortis declareth himself to them. Gods church therefore by reason of his promises, graces, and victories, doib excell all worldly things. Wherefore all men are moved to praise God for ever.

L Et God arise, and then his foes will turn themselves to flight: His enemies then will run abroad, and scatter out of sight. 2 And as the fire doth melt the wax, and winde blows smoke away: So in the presence of the Lord, the wicked shall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord
shall heartily rejoyce:

They shall be glad and merry all,
and chearfull in their voice.

4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:

Extoll the name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

5 The same is he that is above
within his holy place,
That father is of fatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.

6 Houses he gives, and issue both unto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distresse.

7 When thou didst march before thy folk
the Egyptians from among,
And broughtst them through the wildetnesse
vvhich vvvas both vvide and long,

8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down,
heard vvvere great claps of thunder;

The

The mount Sinai shooke in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.

- 9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was waſht;
And iſſo be it barren waſt,
by thee it was refreſht.
10 Thy choſen flock doth there remain,
thou haſt prepar'd that place:
And for the poore thou doſt provide
of thine eſpeciall grace.

The ſecond part.

- 11 God will give women cauſes juſt
to magnifie his name,
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchaſe bruit and fame.
12 For puiſſant kings for all their power,
ſhall ſee and take the ſpoil,
And women which remain at home
ſhall help to part the ſpoil.
13 And though ye were as black as pots,
your hue ſhall paſſe the dove, Whoſe wings and feathers ſeem to have ſilver and gold al owe.
14 When in this land God ſhall triumph
o're kings both high and low:
Then ſhall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any ſnow.

- 15 Though Baſan be a fruitfull hill,
and in height others paſſe:
Yet Sion Gods moſt holy hill
doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus ye hills moſt high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

- 17 Gods army is two millions of warriours good and ſtrong:
The Lord alſo in Sinai
is preſent them among.
18 Thou didſt (O Lord) aſcend on high,
and captives ledſt them all,
Which in times paſt thy choſen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou mad'ſt them tribute for to pay;
and ſuch as did repine,
Thou didſt ſubdue, that they might dwell
in thy temple divine.

- 19 Now praized be the Lord, for that he poures on us ſuch grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and ſolace.

The third part.

- 20 He is the God from whom alone
ſalvation cometh plain:
He is the God by whom we ſcape
all dangers, death, and pain.
21 Thus God will wound his enemies head,
and break the hairy ſcalp.
Of thoſe that in their wickedneſſe continually do walk.

- 22 From Baſan will I bring, ſaid he,
my people and my ſheep:
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.
23 And make them dip their feet in bloud
of thoſe that hate my name:
And dogs ſhall have their tongues embrude
with licking of the ſame.

- 24 All men may ſee how thou, O God,
thine enemies doſt deſace:
And how thou goeſt as God and King,
into thine holy place.

- 25 The fingers go before with joy,
the miſtreſſes follow after:
And in the miſt the damſels play
with umbrel and with taber.

- 26 Now in the congregation,
O Iſrael, praife the Lord:
And Jacobs whole poſterity
give thanks with one accord.
27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their hoſt,
With Zabulon and Nephtholim,
which dwelt about their coaſt.

- 28 As God hath given power to thee,
ſo Lord make firm and ſure
The thing that thou haſt wrought in us,
for ever to endure.
29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord,
For thine unto Jeruſalem
ſure promiſe made by word.

The fourth part.

- Yea, and ſtrange kings to us ſubdu'd,
ſhall do like in thoſe dayes:
I mean to thee they ſhall preſent
their gifts of laud and praife.
30 He ſhall deſtroy the ſpear-mens ranks,
the calves and bulls of might:
And cauſe them tribute pay, and daunt
all ſuch as love to fight.

- 31 Then ſhall the lords of Egypt come,
and preſents with them bring:
The Moors moſt black ſhall ſtretch their hands
unto their Lord and King.
32 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth,
give praife unto the Lord:
Sing psalmes to God with one conſent,
thereto let all accord.

- 33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright:
Yet by the ſearfull thunder claps,
men may well know his might.
34 Therefore the ſtrength of Iſrael
aſcribe to God on high, Whoſe might and power doth farre extend above the cloudy ſkie.

- 35 O God, thy holineſſe and power
is dread for evermore:
The God of Iſrael gives us ſtrength, praized be God therefore.

Salvum me fac. Pſal. lxi. J.H.

Chriſt and his elect is figured in Davids zeal and anguiſh: the malicious cruelty of whoſe enemies, and their puniſhments Judas and ſuch traitours noteth, who are accuſed: then gathereth he courage in afflictions, and offereth praifes to God, being more acceptable then all ſacrifices. Finally, he doth provoke all creatures to praifes, prophelying of the kingdome of Chriſt, and building of Judah, where all the faithfull and their ſeed ſhall dwell for ever.

Ave me, O God, and that with speed, the waters

ters flow full fast: So nigh my soul do they proceed, that I am sore agast. 2 I stick full deep in mire and clay, whereas I feel no ground: I fall into such floods, I say, that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drier:
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guiltlesse do oppresse
my soul, with hate are led:
In number sure they are no lesse
then hairs are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad:
They do compell me to restore the things I never had.

6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou Lord, all times canst tell:
And all the faults that I commit,
to thee are known full well.

7 O God of hosts defend and stay
all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away
for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake
that I do bear this blame:
In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sonnes, my brethren all
forlake me on a row:
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it doth pine me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee to heare,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I do fast, my flesh to chaste,
yea, if I weep and mone:
Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

12 If I for grief and pain of heart
in sackcloth use to walk,
Then they anon will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng
that sit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chief pastime
To seek which way to work me spight;
of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway,
send down thine aid to me:

16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep:

From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd,
and depth my soul devour,
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts to me give care,
as thou art good and kinde:
And as thy mercy is most deare,
Lord have me in thy minde.

19 And do not from thy servant hide
nor turn thy face away:
I am oppress'd on every side,
in haste give care, I say.

20 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:
Because of their great tyranny,
acquitt me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowst and thou canst tell:
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my heart,
I seek for help anon:
But finde no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruell for to think:
And gave me in my thirst withall
strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord turn their table to a snare
to take themselves therein:
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blinde,
that they may nothing see:
Bow down their backs, and do them binde,
in thraldome for to be.

26 Poure out thy wrath as hote as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire
take hold upon them all.

27 As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their offspring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full fore:
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heap up mischief still,
(sith they are all pervert.)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.

30 And raze them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with wo and grief
have been full fore oppress'd:
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.

32 That I may give thy name the praise,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwaies
with hearty thanks among.

- 33 Which is more pleaſant unto thee,
(ſuch minde thy grace hath born)
Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.
- 34 When ſimple folk do this behold,
it ſhall rejoyce them ſure:
All ye that ſeek the Lord, behold
your life for aye ſhall dure.
- 35 For why? the Lord of hoſts doth heare
the poore when they complain:
His prifoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not diſdain.
- 36 Wherefore the ſkie and earth below,
the ſea, with flood and ſtream;
His praife they ſhall declare and ſhow,
with all that live in them.
- 37 For ſure our God will Sion ſave,
and Juda's cities build:
38 Much folk poſſeſſion there ſhall have,
her ſtreets ſhall all be fill'd.
- His ſervants ſeed ſhall keep the ſame
all ages out of minde:
39 And there all they that love his name,
a dwelling place ſhall finde.

Deus in adiutorium. Pſal. lxx. J. H.

*He prayeth to be right ſpeedily delivered, his enemies
to be aſhamed, and all that ſeek the Lord to be comforted.*

Sing this as the 25 pſalme.

- O God to me take heed,
of help I thee requirer:
O Lord of hoſts with haſte and ſpeed,
help, help, I thee deſire.
- 1 With ſhame confound them all that ſeek my ſoul to ſpill:
Rebuke them back with blame to fall
that think and wiſh me ill.
- 3 Confound them that apply,
and ſeek to work me ſhame:
And at my harm do laugh, and cry,
ſo, ſo, there goes the game.
- 4 But let them joyfull be
in thee with joy and wealth,
Which onely truſt and ſeek to thee,
and to thy ſaving health.
- 5 That they may ſay alwaies
in mirth and one accord,
All glory, honour, laud and praife,
be given to thee, O Lord.
- 6 But I am weak and poore,
come Lord, thine aid I lack:
Thou art my ſtay and help, therefore make ſpeed, and be not ſlack.

In te Domine. Pſal. lxxi. J. H.

He prayeth in faith, eſtabliſhed by promiſe, and confirmed by the works of God from his youth, to be delivered from his wicked and cruell ſonne Abſalom, with his conſederacy, promiſing to be thankfull therefore.

Sing this as the 29 pſalme.

- MY Lord my God, in all diſtreſſe
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no ſhame my ſoul oppreſſe,
nor once take hold on me.
- 2 As thou art juſt, defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give care and to my ſuit accord,
and ſend me help at need.

- 3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times reſort:
Thy promiſe is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.
- 4 Save me, my God, from wicked men,
and from their ſtrength and power:
From folk unjuſt, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.
- 5 Thou art the ſtay wherein I truſt,
thou Lord of hoſts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a luſt
ſtill do depend on thee.
- 6 Thou haſt me kept even from my birth,
and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praife with mirth,
both evening and at morn.
- 7 As to a monſter ſeldome ſeen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and ſtill haſt been my fence and aid ſo ſtrong.
- 8 Wherefore my mouth no time ſhall lack
thy glory and thy praife:
And eke my tongue ſhall not be ſlack
to honour thee alwaies.
- 9 Refuſe me not (O Lord) I ſay,
when age my limmes doth take:
And when my ſtrength doth waſte away,
do not my ſoul forſake.
- 10 Among themſelves my foes enquire
to take me through deceit:
And they againſt me do conſpire,
that for my ſoul laid wait.

The ſecond part.

- 11 Lay hand and take him now, they ſaid,
for God from him is gone:
Diſpatch him quite, for to his aid
(I wiſe) there cometh none.
- 12 Do not abſent thy ſelf away,
O Lord when need ſhall be:
But that in time of grief thou may in haſte give help to me.
- 13 With ſhame confound and overthrow
all thoſe that ſeek my life:
Oppreſſe them with rebuke alſo,
that ſain would work me ſtrife.
- 14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all affiaies:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will ſet forth thy praife.
- 15 My mouth thy juſtice ſhall record,
that daily help doth ſend:
But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
- 16 Yet will I go and ſeek forth one,
with thy good help, O God,
The ſaving health of thee alone
to ſhew and ſet abroad.
- 17 For of my youth thou tookſt the care,
and doſt inſtruct me ſtill:
Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great minde and will.
- 18 And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didſt me keep and ſtay:
Forſake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

- 19 That I thy ſtrength and might may ſhow
to them that now be here:

And

And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a yeare.

20 O Lord thy iustice doth exceed thy doings all may see:
Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
oh who is like to thee!

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save;
Yea thou didst help and me restore,
and took'st me from the grave.

22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignitie maintain:
Yea, thou dost make all grief to cease,
and comfort'st me again.

23 Therefore thy faithfullnesse to praise
I will with viol sing:
My harp shall sound thy praise alwayes,
O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee:
And eke my soul will much rejoyce,
for thou hast made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightnesse shall sound,
and speak it daily still:

For grief and shame do them confound
that seek to work me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. Lxxii. J. H.

Gods kingdom by Christ is represented by Solomon, under whom shall be righteousness, peace, and felicity, unto whom all kings and nations shall do homage, whose name and power shall endure for ever.

Ord give thy judgements to the king, there instruct him well: And with his sonne that princely

thing, Lord let thy justice dwell.

2 That he may govern uprightly
and rule thy folk aright:
And so defend through equitie
the poore that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hills apply,
in justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poore
with aid, and make them strong:
And eke destroy for evermore
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might:
So long as sunne doth shine by day,
or else the moon by night.

6 Lord make the king unto the just like rain to fields new mown:
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace,
Untill the moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughour:

And from the foulds within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell
shall kneel to him full thick:
And all his enemies that rebell
the earth and dust shall lick.

10 The lords of all the isles thereby,
great gifts to him shall bring:
The kings of Saba and Arabia
give many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kinge shall seek with one accord
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world
shall serve him at his hand.

12 For he the neede fort doth save that unto him do call:
And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poore
that are with need oppress:
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their soules to rest.

14 He shall redeem their lives from dread,
from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold:
He shall be honoured as a king,
and daily be extold.

16 The mighty mountains of his land,
of corn shall bear such throng,
That it like cedar-trees shall stand
in Libanus full long.

17 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall farre exceed,
and spring as green as grasse.

18 For ever they shall praise his name,
while that the sunne is light:
And think them happy through the same,
all folk shall blesse his might.

19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israels God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himself alone.

20 And blessed be his holy name
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
amen, amen, say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. Lxxiii. T. S.

David teacheth, that neither the prosperity of the ungodly, nor the afflictions of the good, ought to discourage Gods children, but rather move them to consider Gods providence, and to reverence his judgements, for that the wicked vanish away like smoke, and the godly enter into life everlasting: in hope whereof, he resigneth himself into Gods hands.

Sing this as the 44 psalme.

However it be, yet God is good and kinde to Israel:
And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almost slip,
my feet began to slide:

E

And

And ere I wist even at a pinch
my steps awry gan glide.

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain
That wicked men all things should have without turmoil or pain.

4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong
and ever in good plight.

5 And free from all adversitie
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed that even for fat
their eyes oft times out start,
And as for worldly goods, they have more then can with their heart.

8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of the wrong
Which they have done to simple men,
and ever pvide among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord
they spare not to blaspheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem.

10 The people of God oft times turn back to see their prosperous states:
And almost drink the self same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they,
should know or understand These worldly things, sith wicked men
be lords of sea and land?

12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase,
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickednesse
my fantasie refrain,
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vain?

14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame:
And every morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame?

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate:
But that I should thy children judge
as folk unfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter understand:
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand:

17 Untill the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou settest them
upon a slipperie place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

19 Then all men muse at that strange sight,
to see how suddenly
They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consum'd,
and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight
shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much oppress't:

22 So fond was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beast.

23 Yet nevertheless by my right hand
thou hold'st me alwaies fast:

24 And with thy counsel dost me guide
to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish
but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can love.

26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail,
but God doth fail me never:
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo, all such as thee forsake
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing
saying in thee alone.

28 Therefore will I draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

Ut quid Deus. Psal. Lxxiii. J. H.

A complaint of the destruction of the church and true religion, under the name of Sion, and the altars destroyed. But trusting in the might and fremercies of God by his covenant, requireth help and succour to the glory of his name, the salvation of his poore afflicted servants and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 72 psalme.

Why art thou (Lord) so long from us
in all this danger deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus
at thine own pasture sheep?

1 Lord call the people to thy thought which have been thine so long,
The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Have minde therefore and think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou was wont to dwell.

4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar, O God:
They set as signes on every wall
their banners plaid abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.

7 The cycling sawd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,

With axes hammers, bills and swords
they beat them down at once.
3 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toill,
The house appointed to thy name
they raze down to the soill.

9 And thus they say within their heart,
dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houles through the land.
10 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end
among us there is none.

11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this shame
and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they alwaies blasphemé thy name,
and rail on thee so long?
12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
Oh pluck it out, and be not slack
to give thy foes arap.

The second part.

13 O God, thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been:
Yea, thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.
14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didst break the serpens head,
that he therein did die.

15 Yea, thou didst break the heads so great
of whales that are so fell:
And gav'st them to the folk to eat
that in the deserts dwell.

16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to rise
from rock both hard and high:
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep rivers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou send'st to serve us with their shine,
the light, and eke the sunne.
18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:
Both summer heats, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on, O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy name.
20 O let no cruell beasts devour
the turtle that is true:
Forget not alwaies in thy power
the poore, that much do rue.

21 Regard thy covenant and behold,
thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old
our realm as now doth stand.

22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poore and needy aye
give praise unto thy name.

23 Rise (Lord) let be by thee maintain'd
the cause that is thine owne Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption high,
Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. J. H.

*The faithfull praise the Lord, who shall come to judge
at his time, when the wicked shall drink the cup of his wrath; but the righteous shall be exalted to honour.*

Sing this as the 44 psalme.

VNto thee (God) will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.
2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on high.
4 I said unto them, Set not up your raised horns on high:
And see that you do with stiff neck
not speak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wildernesses,
promotion doth proceed.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein
himself doth poure abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,
The wicked of the earth shall drink
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God I say,
of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate
his praise for evermore.
10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

In Judea. Psal. lxxvi. J. H.

Here is described the power of God, and care for the defence of his people, by the destruction of Sennacheribs army, for which the faithfull are exhorted to be thank-full.

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

TO all that now in Jury dwell,
the Lord is clealy known:

His name is great in Israel,
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarric there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow:
the sword, the speare, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow
in battell on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoild through thee,
and they are faine on sleep:
Through men of warre no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove:
As half on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeed,
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath?

8 When thou dost make thy judgements heard from heaven through the grounds:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand
in judgement for to speak,
To save th'afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth reigne
shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats alwaies.

11 Make vows and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight
to all the kings on earth.

Voce meâ. Psal. lxxvii. J. H.

David rehearseth his great afflictions, and grievous temptations, whereby he is driven to consider his former conversation, and the course of Gods works, in the preservation of his servants, and so be confirmeth his faith against these temptations.

With my voice to God do cry, with heart and

heartie cheer: My voice to God I lift on high,

and he my suit doth heare. 2 In time of grief I sought to God, by night no rest I took: But stretcht my hands to him abroad, my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I spake but could not make an end,
my breath was stopp'd so sore.

4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwaies from rest,
that I alwaies awake:
With fear I am so sore oppress'd,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I cast,
and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past
full many yeares ago.

6 By night my songs I call to minde,
once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all,
cast off his people thus:
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What? is his goodnesse clean decayd
for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now delayd,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?

10 At last I said, My weaknesse is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can help all this
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the might
of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that dost forth show
thy wonders every houre:
And so dost make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou dost defend with strength and stretch'd arm:
The sonnes of Jacob that descend,
and Josephs seed from harm.

16 The waters Lord perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and black,
did rain full plenteously:
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy thafis abroad did flee.

18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
thy lightnings from above
With flashes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.
19 Thy wayes within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep:
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keep.
20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land
as sheep on every side:
Through Moses and through Aarons hand
thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. Psal. lxxviii. J. H.

He sheweth how God of his mercy chose his church of the posterity of Abraham, casting in their teeth the rebellion of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be ashamed of their perverse ancestors. The holy Ghost hath comprehended, as it were, the summe of all Gods benefits, that the grosse people might see in few words the effects of the whole historie.

Tend my people to my law, and to my words

encline: 2 My mouth shall speak strange parables, and sentences divine. 3 Which we our selves have heard and learnd even of our fathers

old; And which for our instruction our fathers

have us told.

4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race praise,
and all his works of wonder.
5 To Jacob he commandment gave
how Israel should live:
Willing our fathers should the same
unto their children give.
6 That they and their posterity
that were not sprung up tho,
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.
7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his laws
and his precepts in love.
8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they took the foil?
10 For why? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made;

Nor yet would walk or leade their lives
according to his trade:
11 But put into oblivion
his counsel and his will,
And all his works most magnifike,
which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our forefathers
did he himself disclose
In Egypt land within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?
13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as doth an heap of stones.
14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.
16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
that were both drie and hard,
Of such abundance, that no founts
to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sinne they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness.
18 They tempted God within their hearts,
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kinde of meat
as served to their lust.
19 Saying with murmuration
in their unfaithfullnesse
What? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?
20 Behold, he strake the stony rock,
and founts forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk
both bread and flesh also?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could alwaies help and succour them
in their necessity.
23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder, 24 And rain'd down manna for them to eat,
a food of mickle wonder.
25 When earthly men with angels food
were fed at their request, 26 He bad the east winde blow away,
and brought in the south west.
27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowl as thick as sand,
28 Which he did cast amid the place
where all their tents did stand.
29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire to serve their lusts and wills.

- 30 But as the meat was in their mouths
his wrath upon them fell, 31 And slue the flower of all their youth,
and choice of Israel,
32 Yet fell they to their wonted sinne,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not beleve.
33 Their dayes therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:
Their yeares did waste and passe away
with tertour and with pain.
34 But ever when he plagued them,
they fought him by and by,
35 Remenbring that he was their strength,
their help and God most high,
36 Though in their mouthes they did but glose
and flatter with the Lord:
And with their tongues and in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth part.

- 37 For why their hearts were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.
38 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.

Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.

- 39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a winde
That passeth away, and cannot well
return by his own kinde.

40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke!
How did they move and stirre the Lord
to plague them with his stroke!

- 41 Yet did they turn again to sinne,
and tempted God chifoon, Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they would have done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands of the fierce enemy.

- 43 Nor how he wrought his miracles
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power
their waters into bloud:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.

- 45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their country full of frogs
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

- 46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper.
47 With hailstones he destroy'd their vines,
so that they were all lost:

And not so much as wilde fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.

- 48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattell smote,
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with t under bolks full hot.

49 He cast upon them in his ire
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.

- 50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:

But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.

- 51 He strake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came:

And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

- 52 But as for all his own deare folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.

53 Without all fear, both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.

- 54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land, Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

- 56 Yet for all this, their God most high
they stirr'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.

57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray,
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

- 58 And griev'd him with their hill altars,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast:
The naughtinesse of Israel
he did so much detest.

- 60 Then he forsook the tabernacle
of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand,
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.

- 62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage:

63 Their young men were devour'd with fire,
maids had no marriage.

- 64 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one:
And not a vvidow left alive
their death for to bemoane.

- 65 And then the Lord began to vwake
like one that slept a time,
And like a valiant man of vvarre
refreshed after vvine.
- 66 With cymcrops in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetuall.
- 67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he vvould in no vvise chooset;
- 68 But chose the tribe of Jehuda,
vvhereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion,
vvhich he did love so vvell.
- 69 Whereas he did his temple build
both sumptuously and sure,
Like as the earth vvhich he hath made
for ever to endure.
- 70 Then chose he David him to serve,
his people for to keep;
Whom he took up and brought away
even from the folds of sheep.
- 71 As he did follow th'ews vvith young,
the Lord did him advance,
To feed his people Israel
and his inheritance.
- 72 Thus David vvith a faithfull heart
his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his power
did govern them indeed.

Deus, venerunt. Psal. Lxxix. J. H.

The Israelites complain to God for the calamities that they suffered, when Antiochus destroyed their temple and citie, desiring aid against his tyrannie, lest God and religion should be contemned by the heathen, who should see them forsaken and perishe.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

- O God the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoils:
Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they defile.
The bodies of thy saints most deare
abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that do thee fear
the beasts devoure and waste.
- 3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem
as water spilt they have:
So that there is not one of them
to lay their dead in grave.
- 4 Thus are we made a laughing stock
almost the world throughout:
The enemies at us jest and mock which dwell our coasts about.
- 5 Wilt thou (O Lord) thus in thine ire
against us ever fume,
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume?
- 6 Upon those people poure the same
which did thee never know:
All realms which call not on thy name
consume and overthrow.
- 7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs seed destroyed:
His habitation and his land
they have left vvasite and void.

- 8 Bear not in minde our former faults,
vvith speed some pity show:
And aid us, Lord, in all assaults,
for vve are vweak and low.

The second part.

- 9 O God that giv'st all health and grace,
on us declare the same:
Weigh not our vvorks, our finnes deface
for honour of thy name.
- 10 Why shall the vvicked still alvvay,
to us as people dumbe,
In thy reproach rejoyce, and say,
vvhere is their God become?
- Require, O Lord, as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in fight,
Of all these folk thy servants bloud
vvhich they spilt in despight.
- 11 Receive into thy fight in haste
the clamours grief and vvrong,
Of such as are in prison cast,
sustaining irons strong.
- Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord, let them out of band
Which unto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.
- 12 The nations vvhich have been so bold
as to bla'pheme thy name,
Into their laps vvith seven fold
repay again the same.
- 13 So vve thy flock and pasture sheep
vvill praise thee evermore,
And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. lxxx. J. H.

A lamentable prayer to God, to help the miseries of the church, desiring him to consider the first estate, when his favour shined towards them, that he might finish that work which he began.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

- Thou Herd that Israel dost keep,
give eare and take good heed:
Which ledest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.
- 2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seat is set
on cherubims most bright, Shew forth thy self and do not let,
send down thy beams of light.
- 3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise,
To shew thy power do thou begin;
come help us Lord, arise.
- 4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightnesse of thy face,
and then full safe are we.
- 5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
how long vvilt thou (I say) Against thy folk in anger swell,
and vvilt not heare them pray?
- 6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep,
their bread vvith teares they eat,
And drink the teares that they do vveep,
in measure full and great.
- 7 Thou hast us made a very strife
to those that dwell about:

And that out foes do love alife,
they laugh and jest it out.
8 O take us, Lord, unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well
thou brought'st a vine full deare:
The heathen folk thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about with shade that from it came,
And eke the cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that passe thereby thy vine may spoil and waste.

13 The boar out of the wood so wilde
doth dig and foot it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devoure it all about.

14 O Lord of hosts return again,
from heaven look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord, do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the sonne of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.

18 And so when thou hast set us free
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy name.

19 O Lord of hosts through thy good grace
convert us unto thee:
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Deo exultate. Psal. lxxxi. J. H.

*An exhortation to praise God both in heart and voice for his benefits, and to worship him only. God condemneth their ingratitude, and sheweth what great benefit
they have lost through their malice.*

E light and glad, in God rejoyce, which is our strength and stay: Be joyfull and lift up your voice to Jacobs God, I say. 2 Prepare your instruments most meet, some joyfull psalme to sing: Strike up with harp and lute so sweet, on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it vvere in the new moon,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done
at any solemne feast.

4 For this is unto Israel
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
vvhich Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause vvith Joseph was decreed vvhen he from Egypt came,
That as a vvitnesse all his seed
should still observe the same.

6 When God I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burden clean away:

And from the fornace quit him free,
from burning brick of clay.

8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by:
And I did answer thee vvithall
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the vvaters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord
vvith muttering thou didst move.

10 Heare O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my vvords full vvell,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no god in thee reserve,
of any land abroad:

Nor in no vvise to bow or serve
a strange or forrain god.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people vvould not heare
my voice vvhen that I spake:

Nor Israel vvould not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leave them to their vvill,
in hardnesse of their heart.

To vvalk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people vvould have heard
the vvords that I did say:
And eke that Israel vvould regard
to walk vvithin my vvay.

16 How soon would I confound their foes
and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those that vvould them overthrow!

- 17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him till:
But of his folk the time and age
should flourish ever still.
18 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat:
And made the rock with bony drop,
that they their fills should eat.

Deus stetit. Psal. lxxxii. J. H.

David declaring God to be present with judges and magistrates, reproveth their partiality and unwrighteousness, and exhorteth them to do justice: but seeing no amendment, he desireth God to do justice himself.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

A Mid the preasse with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with judges of the land.

2 How long (said he) will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard?

3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weak,
And when the poore man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.

4 If ye be wise defend the cause
of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darknesse walk.

6 For lo even now the time is come that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some,
for gain are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight
as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for love I did you call.

7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

8 Up Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

Deus quid. Psal. lxxxiii. J. H.

The Israelites pray the Lord to deliver them from their enemies, both at home, and farre off: also that all such wicked people be stricken with his stormy tempests, that they may know his power.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

DO not (O God) refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not (Lord) thy self so long,
and make no more delay.

2 For why? behold thy foes and see how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee
hold up their heads on high.

3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait
their counsel doth conspire.

4 Come on, say they, let us expell
and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ismaelites also:
The Hagarens and Moabites,
with divers other mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:
The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Athur eke is well appaid
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lots posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:
As to Siser, and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords appeare
like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zebah and Zalmana were,
the kings of Midian,

12 Which said, Let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad, Possesse and take into our hand
the faire houses of God.

13 Turn them (O God) with storms as fast
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff, which men do cast,
with winds to fly away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
the mighty forest's spils:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills:

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winde and shower,
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie
to perish eke vvitall.

18 That they may know and feel full well
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell,
and reigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Psal. lxxxiiii. J. H.

David exiled his country, desireth ardently to return to Gods tabernacle, and assembly of the saints, to praise God: then he praiseth the courage of the people, that passe through the wilderness to assemble themselves in Sion.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

HOw pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me!

The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant (Lord) they be!

2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:

My heart doth lust my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows finde a room to rest
and save themselves from wrong,
And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young.

4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing:

O Lord of hosts thou art, I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house alwayes:

For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

As they go through the vale of teares
they dig up fountains still:

That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.

7 From strength to strength they walk full fast
no faintnesse there shall be:

And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see

8 O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
and heare when I do pray:

And let it through thine cares proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.

9 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace
regard, and so draw neare:

Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed deare.

10 For why? within thy courts one day
is better to abide,

Then other where to keep or stay
a thousand dayes beside.

Much rather would I keep a doore
within the house of God,

Then in the tents of wickednesse
to settle mine abode.

11 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give:

And no good thing will he withhold
from them that purely live.

12 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest
and happy sure is he,

That is perfwaded in his brest
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti. Psal. Lxxxv. J.H.

Because God withdrew not his rod from his church after the return from Babylon, first, they put him in minde that he should not leave the work of his grace unperfekt, and complain of their long affliction. Then they rejoyce in hope of promised deliverance, which was a figure of Christs kingdome, under which should be perfect felicitie.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

Thou hast been mercifull indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land:

For thou restoredst Jacobs seed
from thraldome out of band.

2 The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them clean remit:

And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coveredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone:

And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God our health, do now convert thy people unto thee:

Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

5 Why, shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?

And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore and quicken us, that we

And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee?

7 O Lord on us do thou declare thy goodnesse to our wealth:

Shew forth to us, and do not spare,
thine aid and saving health.

8 I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,

And to his saints that never they return to foolishnesse.

9 For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him feare:

Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:

And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly:

Sorighteousnesse shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

12 Yea God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing:

And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go much like a guide or stay:

He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

Inclina, Domine. Psal. Lxxxvi. J.H.

David sore afflicted, prayeth fervently for deliverance, sometime rehearsing his miseries and mercies received, desiring also to be instructed of the Lord, that he may fear and glorifie his name: he complaineth also of his adversaries, and requirerth to be delivered from them.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

Lord bowe thine eare to my request,
and heare me by and by:

With grievous pain and grief oppressed,
full poore and weak am I.

2 Preserve my soul, because my waies
and doings holy be:

And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy, Lord, on me expresse,
defend me eke withall:

For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.

4 Comfort (O Lord) thy servants soul
that now with pain is pin'd:

For unto thee (Lord) I extoll
and lift my soul and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentifull
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an eare:
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me move
to thee I do complain:

For why? I know and well do prove thou answerest me again.

8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none,
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall
and glorifie thy name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me (Lord) thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:

O joyne my heart to thee so nigh
that I thy name may dread.

12 To thee my God will I give praise
with all my heart, O Lord:

And glorifie thy name alwayes
for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great and doth excell:

Thou setst my soul at libertie
out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:

They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:

Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:

O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids sonne am I.

17 On me some signe of favour show,
that all my foes may see

And be asham'd, because (Lord) thou dost help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Psal. Lxxxvii. J.H.

The holy Ghost promisseth, that the church, as yet in misery, after the captivity of Babylon, should be restored to great excellency, so that nothing should be more comfortable, then to be numbred among the members thereof.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

THat citie shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay,
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.

1 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad:

Great things, I say, are said of thee
thou city of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in minde the fame:

And Babylon shall eke apply
and learn to know my name.

5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise,

A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame

Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appeare,
Of Sion that the chiefe of all
had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:

My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compast all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. Lxxxviii. J.H.

The faithfull sore afflicted by sickness, persecution, adversity, and as it were, left of God without any consolation: yet be calleth on God by faith, and striveth against desperation.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

Lord God of health the hope and stay
thou art alone to me:

I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:

Encline thine eare, O Lord, attend
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:

My life and breath almost doth yeeld,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:

And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:

It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot:

The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardst them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,

In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth lie:

And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and trie.

9 Thou putst my friends farre off from me
and mak'st them hate me fore:

I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.
10 My sight doth fail through grief and wo,
I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?
12 Or shall thy loving kindnesse, Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroyd,
thy truth her honour have?
13 Shall they that lie in dark full low
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there shall they thy justice know where all things are forgot?
14 But I (O Lord) to thee alwaies
do cry and call apace:
My prayer eke ere it be day
shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhorre my soul,
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?
16 I am afflicted as dying still
from youth this many a yeare:
The terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled minde I beare.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not assuage,
but me oppresse withall.
18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with streams full stout
beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest farre from me my friends
and lovers every one:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

Miseri cordias. Psal. Lxxxix. J. H.

David praiseth God for his covenant made between him and his elect by Jesus Christ: then he complaineth of the desolation of his kingdom, so that the promise seemed to be broken. Finally, he prayeth to be delivered from afflictions, mentioning the shortnesse of mans life, and confirming himself by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remain:
In that thou dost the heavens stay
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:
My servant David to perswade,
I swore and did protest:

4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still uphold thy throne alway
from age to age to last.

5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works O Lord:
Thy saints within thy church on earth
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equall then
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sonnes of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of the faints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about
in terror to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world
what one is like to thee?
On every side, most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.

9 The raging sea by thine advice thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.

10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast subdurd,
and thou hast it destroyd:
Yea thou thy foes with mighty arm
hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heavens are thine and still have been,
likewise the earth and land:
The world and all that is therein
thou foundedst with thy hand.

12 Both north and south, with east and west
thy self didst make and frame:
Both Tabor mount and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy name.

13 Thine arm is strong and full of power,
all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each houre
thou liest up on high.

14 In righteousness and equity
thou hast thy seat and place:
Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is blest that knows aright
thy present power, O God;
For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce:
And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why? their glory, strength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodness eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.

18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:
The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy saints
in visions thou didst show:
And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy minde to make them know:

20 A man of might I have erect,
your king and guide to be:
And set him up whom I elect,
among the folk to me.

The third part.

21 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:

And with mine holy oyl anoint
him king of all the rout.
22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:
And with mine arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.
23 The enemies shall not him oppresse
they shall him not deuoure:
Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse
on him shall have no power:
24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in sight:
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.
25 My truth and mercy eke withall
shall still upon him lie:
And in my name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.
26 His kingdome I will set to be upon the sea and land:
And eke the running flouds shall he embrace with his right hand.
27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say,
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.
28 As my first-born I will him take
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.
29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told:
My faithfull covenant to fulfill
my mercy I will hold.
30 And eke his seed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure:
So that his seat shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve:
And of my iudgements have none aw,
nor will not them obserue:
32 Or if they do not use aright
my statutes to them made,
And set all my commandements light
and will not keep my trade:
33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend:
And so with scourging for their sinne,
if that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with craftinesse,
and so my truth forgo.
35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have told
shall alter or be broke.
36 Once sware I by my holinesse,
and that perform will I:
With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.
37 His seed for evermore shall reigne,
and eke his throne of might:
As doth the sunne, it shall remain
for ever in my sight.

38 And as the moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast
A faithfull witness from on high,
so shall his kingdome last.
39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject,
and now thou changeest cheer:
Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed deare.
40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord, thou hast quite undone:
And down upon the ground also hast cast his royall crown.

The fifth part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with might his walls thou dost confound:
Thou bearest eke his bullwarks down,
and break'st them to the ground.
42 That he is fore destroyed and torn of comers by throughout:
And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up
that him so fore annoy:
And all his foes that him deuoure
so thou hast made to joy.
44 His sword's edge thou dost take away,
that should his foes withstand:
To him in warre no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.
45 His glory thou dost also waste,
his throne, his joy, his mirth,
By thee is overthrowen, and cast
full low upon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lusty dayes:
And rais'd of him an ill report
with shame and great dispraise.
47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn?
And shall thine anger still alway,
as fire consume and burn?
48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men
as things in vain to waste?
49 What man is he that liueth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the hand of hell his soul
shall he deliver free.
50 Where is (O Lord) thine own goodnesse
so oft declar'd beforen,
Which by thy truth and uprightnesse
to David thou hast sworn.
51 The great rebukes to minde I call
that on thy servants lie:
The railings of the people all
born in my breast have I, 52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy name:
The steps of thine anointed one
they cease not to defame.
53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye:
Through skie and earth, and all the coasts,
amen, amen, I say.

Psalme XC. Xci.

Domine refugium. Psal. XC. J. H.

Moses seeing the people neither admonished by the brevity of their life, nor by plagues to be thankful, prayeth God to turn their hearts, and continue his mercies towards them and their posterity for ever.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

THou Lord hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest
In all times past, yea so long since
as cannot be exprest.
2 Ere there was made mountain or hill
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and alwaies still for ever thou art God.

3 Thou grindest man through grief and pain,
to dust or clay, and then,
And then thou sayest again, Return
again ye sonnes of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand yeares,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appeare,
or as a watch by night.

5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as a sleep, and like the grasse
whose beauty soon doth fade.
6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and dry.

7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayd:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume,
we are full sore afraid.
8 The wicked works that we have wrought
thou seest before thine eyes:
Our privie faults, yea eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spie.

9 For through thy wrath our daies do waste,
thereof doth nought remain:
Our years consume as words or blasts,
and are not call'd again.
10 Our time is threescore years and ten
that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then
we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

11 Yet of this time the strength and chief
the which we count upon,
Is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone.
12 Who once doth know what strength is there,
what might thine anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?

13 Instruct us (Lord) to know andary
how long our daies remain:
That then we may our hearts apply,
true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.

15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our joy shall be
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.

16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years wherein full sore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appeare,
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children deare
thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord let thy grace and glory stand on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord, prosper them to us.

Qui habitat. Psal. Xci. J. H.

Here is described the assurance he liweth in, that committeth himself wholly to Gods protection in all temptations. A promise of God to those that love him, know him and trust in him, to deliver them, and give them immortal glory.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace
at rest shall keep him well.
2 Thou art my hope, and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say,
My God is he, in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid.
4 And with his wings shall cover thee
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night.
6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waste.

7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand
a thousand dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.
8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard,
That even like to their deserts
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only lust
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the highest I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.
10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall not mell:
Nor yet the plague shall once come neare
the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why? unto his angels all with charge commanded he:
That still in all thy wayes they shall preserve and prosper thee.
12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot shall never chance to spurn at any stone.

- 13 Upon the lions thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long;
And tread upon the lions young,
with dragons stout and strong.
14 For he that trusteth unto me,
I will dispatch him quites
And him defend, because that he doth know my name aright.
15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give;
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.
16 With length of yeares and daies of wealth
I will fulfill his time:
The goodnesse of my saving health
I will declare to him.

Bonum est. Psal XCii. J.H.

A psalme for the sabbath, to stirre up the people to acknowledge and praise God in his works. David rejoyceth therein, but the wicked consider not that the ungodly, when he is most flourishing, shall most speedily perish. In the end is described the felicity of the just, planted in the house of God, to praise the Lord.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

- It is a thing both good and meet
to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy name, O thou most high,
to sing with one accord,
2 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord,
become ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.
3 Upon ten stringed instruments,
on lute and harp so sweet:
With all the nirth you can invent
of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice,
thy handy works to see.
5 O Lord, how glorious and how great
are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy counsels set
that none can try them out.
6 The man unwise hath not the wit
this geare to passe to bring:
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.
7 When so the wicked at their will
as grasse do spring full fast,
They when they flourish in their ill
for ever shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty, Lord most high,
yea thou dost reigne therefore
In every time eternally
both now and evermore.
9 For why? O Lord, behold and see,
behold, thy foes, I say,
How all that work iniquity
shall perish and decay.
10 But thou, like as an unicorn,
shalt lift mine horn on high:
With fresh and new prepared oyl
thine ointed King am I: 11 And of my foes before mine eyes
shall see the fall and shame,

- Of all that up against me rise,
mine eares shall heare the same;
12 The just shall flourish up on high
as date-trees bud and blow:
And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and well befecnt:
And pleasantly both bud and spring
with bows and branches green.
15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will:
He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal XCiii. J.H.

He praiseth the power of God in the creation of the world, and beateth down all people which lifted themselves up against his majesty: and provoketh to consider his promises.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

- The Lord as king aloft doth reigne,
with glory goodly dight
And he to shew his strength and main,
hath girt himself with might.
2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shap'd it so sure,
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.
3 Ere that the world was made or wrought
thy seat was set before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast been evermore.
4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they rear and make a noise:
The floods (I say) did enterprife,
and lifted up their voice.
5 Yea though the storms arise in fight,
though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.
6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend:
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal XCiiii. J.H.

He prayeth to God against the violence of tyrants, and comforteth the afflicted by the good issue of their afflictions, and by the ruine of the wicked.

Sing this as the 68 psalme.

- O Lord thou dost revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.
2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.
3 How long shall wicked men beare sway
with lifting up their voice?

- How long shall wicked men I say
thus triumph and rejoyce?
4 How long shall they with brags burst out
and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill?
5 Thy flock O Lord, thine heritage
they spoil and vex full sore:
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.
6 The widows which are comfortlesse,
and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherlesse,
and none doth put them by.
7 And when they take these things in hand
this talk they have of thee,
Can Jacobs God this understand?
tush no, he cannot see.
8 O folk unwise and people rude,
some knowledge now discern:
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.
9 The Lord which made the eare of man
he needs of right must heare:
He made the eye, all things must then
before his sight appeare.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct
and make them understand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect?
how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

- 11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man,
his heart he seeth full plain:
The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan
and findeth them but vain.
12 But Lord, that man is happy sure whom thou dost keep in aw,
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.
13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men shall be suppress,
and fall into the pit.
14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did choose
he will no time forsake.
15 Untill that judgement be decreed
to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed
that are of upright heart.
16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain?
17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell:
My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.
18 When I did say, my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodnesse, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withall.
19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:
Then Lord thy goodnesse did me touch,
and that did ease my minde.
20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self, and draw with wicked men to sit

Which with pretence in stead of law,
much mischief do commit?

- 21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife
to shed the guiltlesse blood, 22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence, or lock:
He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rock.
23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. XCv. J. H.

An earnest exhortation to praise God for the government of the world, and election of his church, and to eschew the rebellion of the old fathers, who tempted God in the wilderness, and therefore entred not into the land of promise.

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

- O Come let us lift up our voice
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.
1 Yea, let us come before his face
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing psalmes unto his grace
let us be glad alwaies.
3 For why? the Lord he is, no doubt,
a great and mighty God,
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.
5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of naught.
6 Come let us bowe and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord
the which hath made us all.
7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.
8 To day if ye his voice will heare,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a yeare,
provokt me in desert.
9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.
10 Twice twenty yeares they did me grieve,
and I to them did say,
They erre in heart, and not beleeve,
they have not known my way.
11 Wherefore I swate when that my wrath
was kindled in my breast:
That they should never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

Cantate Dom. Psal. XCvi. J.H.

An exhortation both to the Jews and Gentiles to praise God for his mercy: and this especially ought to be referred to the kingdome of Christ.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea, sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy name:

Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:

To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world throughout.

4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:

And he is to be dread of right
above all gods I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade:

But yet our God he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face:

Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world,

All might and worship eke, I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord also
the glory of his name:

And eke into his courts do go
with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright:

Let all the people of the world
be tearfull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth reigne above:

Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone
that rules with princely might,

To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.

12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoyce:

The sea with all that is therein
shall shout and make a noyse.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth:

The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladnesse and with mirth,

14 Before the pretence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:

When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus renavit. Psal. XCvii. J.H.

David exhorteth all to rejoyce for the coming of the kingdome of Christ, dreadfull to the rebels and idolaters, and joyfull to the just, whom he exhorteth to innocency, to rejoycing, and thanksgiving.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

The Lord doth reigne, whereat the earth
may joy with pleasant voice:

And eke the isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke do swell
and round about him beat:

Yea, right and justice ever dwell
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:

Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appeare:

Whereat the earth did look and gaze
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of that Lord:

They fled before the rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heavens eke declare and shew
his justice forth abroad,

That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vaine:

And eke to those that glory much dumbe pictures to maintain.

8 For all the idols of the world,
which they as gods do call,

Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

9 With joy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce:

For at thy judgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noyse.

10 That thou O Lord art set on high
in all the earth abroad:

And art exalted wondrously
above each other god,

11 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill:

For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:

Great joy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holinesse proclaim:

Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindefull of the same.

Cantate Domino. Psal. XCviii. J.H.

An earnest exhortation to all creatures to praise the Lord for his power, mercy and fidelity in his promise by Christ, by whom he hath communicated his salvation to all nations.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleasant song:
For he hath wrought throughout the world
his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour,

And get himself the victory
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his saving health and might:

The Lord doth eke his justice shew
in all the heathens sight.

Pfalme XCix. C. Ci.

His grace and truth to Israel
 4 in minde he doth record:
 That all the earth hath seen right well
 the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
 all people of the earth:
 Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce
 to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
 give thanks to him with psalmes:
 Rejoyce before the Lord our king
 with trumpets and with shalmes.

7 Yea let the sea with all therein
 for joy both roar and swell:

The earth likewise let it begin,
 with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the foulds rejoyce their filis,
 and clap their hands apace:
 And eke the mountains and the hills,
 before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and trie
 the world and every wight:
 And rule the people mightily
 with justice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Pfal. XCix. J. H.

He commendeth the power, equity, and excellency of the kingdome of God, by Christ, over the Jews and Gentiles, provoking them to magnifie the same, and to serve the Lord, as the ancient fathers, Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, who calling upon God, were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

THE Lord doth reigne, although at it
 the people rage full sore
 Yea, he on cherubins doth sit,
 though all the world do roar.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell
 is high and wondrous great:
 Above all folk he doth excell,
 and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name,
 for it is fearfull sure:
 And let them magnifie the same,
 that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our king
 doth love judgement and right:
 Thou rightly rulest every thing
 in Jacob, through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
 all honour to him do:
 Before his footstool worship him,
 for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
 as priests on him did call:
 When they did pray he heard them well,
 and gave them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
 then did they labour still
 To keep such laws as he did make,
 and pointed them untill.

8 O Lord our God, thou didst them heare,
 and answeredst them again:
 Thy mercy did on them appeare,
 their deeds didst not maintain.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
 within his holy hill:
 For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

Jubilate Deo. Pfal. C. J. H.

He exhorteth all men to serve the Lord, who hath made us to enter into his courts and assemblies, to praise his name.

All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerfull voice: 2 Him serve with fear,

his praise forth tell: come ye before him and rejoyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed,

without our aid he did us make:
 We are his flock, he doth us feed;
 and for his sheep he doth us take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise,
 approach with joy his courts unto:
 Praise, laud, and blesse his name alwaies,
 for it is seemly so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
 his mercy is for ever sure:
 His truth at all times firmly stood,
 and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

Sing this as the 68 psalme.

IN God the Lord be glad and light,
 praise him throughout the earth:
 Serve him, and come before his sight
 with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
 he did us make and keep,
 Not we our selves: for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

3 O go into his gates alwaies,
 give thanks within the same:
 Wlthin his courts set forth his praise,
 and laud his holy name.

4 For why? the goodnesse of the Lord
 for evermore doth reigne:
 From age to age throughout the world
 his truth doth still remain.

Misericordiam. Pfal. Ci. N.

David describeth what government he will observe in his house and kingdome, by rooting out the wicked and cherishing the godly persons.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

Mercy will and judgement sing,
 O Lord God, unto thee:

2 And wisely do in perfect way
 untill thou come to me.
 And in the midst of my house walk
 in purenesse of my spirit:

3 And I no kinde of wicked thing
 will set before my sight.

I hate their works that fall away,
 it shall not cleave to me:

4 From me shall part the froward heart,
 none evil will I see.

5 Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me.

7 I will no guilefull person have within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods citie cut
the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cii. N.

It seemeth that this prayer was appointed to the faithfull, to pray in the captivity of Babylon. A consolation for the building of the church, whereof followeth the praise of God, to be published unto all posterities. The conversion of the Gentiles, and the stability of the church.

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee:

1 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Encline thine eare to me, make haste
to heare me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as an harth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead,
And withers like the grasse, that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of my groning voice
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As Pelican in wilderness,
such case now am I in.

And as an owl in desert is,
lo I am such an one:
7 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house top am alone.
8 Lo, daily in reproachfull wise
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd:
And mingled have my drink with tears
that from mine eyes have still'd.
10 Because of thy displeasure, Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The dayes wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grasse
that soon away doth fade.

12 But thou, O Lord, for ever dost
remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:

The time of mercy, now the time
foreset is come to end.

14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.

15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:

And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame.

16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.

17 To prayer of the desolate
when he himself shall bend:

When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succede:
The people yet uncircumcised
the Lords renown shall spread.

19 For he from his high sanctuary
hath looked down below:

And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.

20 That of the mourning captive, he might heare the wofull cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to die.

21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy names:

And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same:

22 Then when the people of the land,
and kingdoms with accord,
Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:

And shorter he did cut my dayes,
thus I therefore did say,

24 My God, in midst of all my dayes
now take me not away:
Thy yeares endure eternally,
from age to age for aye.

25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:

And Lord, the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made.

26 Yea, they shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change,
and changed shall they be:

But thou dost still abide the same,
thy yeares do never flee.

28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:

And in thy sight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

Psalme Ciii. Ciii.

Benedic anima. Psal. Ciii. T. S.

The prophet provoketh men and angels, and all creatures to praise the Lord for his fatherly mercies in deliverance of his people from evils, in his providence over all things, and in preservation of the faithfull.

Y soul give laud unto the Lord, my spirit shall do the same: And all the secrets of my heart, praise ye his holy name. 2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts, shew not thy self unkind:

And suffer not his benefits to slip out of thy

minde:

3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.

4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd with goodnesse thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the eagle casts her ball,
whereby her age reneweth.

6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be oppress'd:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.

7 His wayes and his commandements
to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9 He chides not us continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our sinnes
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities,
he doth us not reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodnesse much more large
to them that do him love.

12 God doth remove our sinnes from us,
and our offences all,
As farre as is the sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And look what pety parents deare
unto their children beare:

Like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear.

14 The Lord that made us knows our shape,
our mould and fashion just:
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

15 And how the time of mortall men
is like the withering hay:

Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.

16 Whose glosse and beauty stormy windes
do utterly disgrace:

And make that after their assaults
such blossomes have no place.

17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:

Their childrens children do receive his righteounesse at hand.

18 I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:

And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the seat
and footstool of the Lord:

And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.

20 Ye angels which are great in power,
praise ye and blisse th' Lord:

Which to obey and do his will immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hosts and ministers,
cease not to laud him still:

Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.

22 Yea, all his works in every place,
praise ye his holy name:

My heart, my minde, and eke my soul,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic anima mea. Psal. Ciii. W. K.

A thanksgiving for the creation of the world, and governance of the same, by his marvellous providence: also a prayer against the wicked, who are occasions that God diminisheth his blessings.

Y soul praise the Lord, speak good of his name: O Lord our great God, how dost thou appeare? So passing in glory, that great is thy fame. Honour and majestic in thee shine most clear.

2 With light as a robe,
thou hast thee beclad, Whereby all the earth
thy greatnesse may see:
The heavens in such fort
thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber beams lie
in the clouds full sure;
Which as his chariots,
are made him to bear:
And there with much swiftnesse
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of windes in the aire.

4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go:
And lightnings to serue
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.

6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would deuoure.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be,
That in their great raging
they hast soon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascends:
If thou do but speak
thy word they fullfill.
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointest remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou hast set
how farre they shall runne:
So that in their rage
not that passe they can:
For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which runne do full swift
among the huge hills.

11 Where both the wilde asses
their thirst oft times slakes,
And beasts of the mountains
thereof drink their fills.

12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the aire abide shall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountains to moist
the clouds he doth use:
The earth with his works
is wholly repleat.

14 So as the brute cattell
he doth not refuse:
But grasse doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.

15 Yea, bread, wine, and oyl,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh
and heart to make strong.

16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long:

17 In these may birds build and make there their nests:
In firre-trees the storks remain and abide.

18 The high hills are succours
for wilde goats to rest:
And eke the rock stony
for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is set
her seasons to runne:
The dayes from the nights
thereby to discern.
And by the descending
also of the sunne,
The cold from heat alway
thereby we do learn.

20 When darknesse doth come
by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.

21 The lions range roaring their prey to deuoure:
But yet it is thou, Lord,
which givest them food.

22 As soon as the sunne
is up, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full faine:

23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found!
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches
they passe all mens thought.

25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad,
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.

26 There both mighty ships sail,
and some lie at rode:
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give:
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see.

29 But sore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again, when thy spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:

Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodnesse
the dry earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.

32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God
sing will I alwaies:
So long as I live
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please:
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
And eke the perverse
them root out with shame:
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithfull,
praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cv. N.

*He praiseth the singular goodnesse of God for choosing a peculiar people to himself, never ceasing to do them
good even for his promise sake.*

Sing this as the 81 psalme.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his name:
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.

1 Sing ye unto the Lord, I say,
and sing unto him praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought alwaies.

3 In honour of his holy name
rejoyce with one accord:
And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.

4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternall might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works which he hath done
keep still in mindefull hearts:
Ne let the judgements of his mouth
out of your minde depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servant are the seed:

Psalm Cv.

Ye his elect the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he only is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God;
And his most rightfull judgements are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago,
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.

10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternall covenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.

12 Although the number at that time
d d very small appeare:
Yea, very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walkt from land to land
without a sure abode:
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressours hands,
he suffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Ne do the prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stoid the store:
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before:

The third part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold to live a slave in wo:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons pierc'd also.

18 Untill the time came when his cause
was known apparantly.
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultlesse truth did trie.

19 The king sent and delivered him
from prison where he was:
The ruler of the people then
did freely let him passe.

21 And over all his house he made him lord to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land:
And wisdoms lore his auncient men
might cause to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow:
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose heart he turn'd, that they with hate
his people did entreat;
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signes
among them he did shewe
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.
28 Darknesse he sent and made it dark
in stead of brighter day:
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.
29 He turn'd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay:
30 Their land brought frogs even in the place,
where their king Pharaoh lay.
31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noyome flies:
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and stony hail
in stead of milder rain:
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.
33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts
down did he overthrow.
34 He spake, then caterpillars did
and grasshoppers abound:
35 Which ate the grasse in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

36 The first begotten in their land
eke deadly did he smite:
Yea, the beginning and first-fruit
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egypt land to passe:
And in the number of their tribes,
no feeble one there was.
38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did thence depart:
For terrour and the fear of them
was fall'n upon their heart.
39 To shroud them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.
40 They asked, and he caused quails
to rain at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he repress.
41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:
And eke the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.
42 For of his holy covenant,
aye mindefull was he thot

Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago:
43 He brought his people forth with mirth
and his elect with joy
Out of the cruell land where they had liv'd in great annoy.
44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,
And faithfully obey his laws:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. Cvi. N.

*The people dispersed under Antiochus, do magnifie the goodnesse of God among the repentant, and pray to be gathered from among the heathen, that they may praise
his name.*

Sing this as the 103 psalme.

PRaise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercie dures for aye:
2 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display?
3 They blessed are that judgement keep
and justly do alway:
With favour of the people (Lord)
remember me I pray.
4 And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me:
5 That I they great felicitie
of thine elect may see:
And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull minde possess:
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expresse.
6 Both we and eke our fathers all have sinned every one:
We have committed wickednesse,
and lewdly we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land,
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.
Nor they thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankfull minde:
But at the sea, yea the Red sea
rebelled most unkinde.
8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his name:
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad his fame.
9 The Red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dri'd:
And as in wildernesse, so through the deep he did them guide.
11 He sav'd them from the cruell hand
of their despightfull fo,
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd,
not one was left alive:
12 Then they beleeu'd his word, and praise
in song they did him give.
13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgate

And

And for his counsell and his will
they did neglect to wait.

14 But lusted in the wilderness
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.
15 And then their wanton mindes desire
he suffered them to have:
But wasting leanness therewithall
into their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord,
so did they envie much.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devoure:
And all Abirams company
did cover in that houre.

18 In their assembly kindled was
the hot consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol calf did frame:
And there the molten image, they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likenesse of a calf
which feedeth on the grasse:
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.
21 And God their onely Saviour
unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done:
And by the Red sea dreadfull things
performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkinde,
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his minde.

Had not his chosen Moses stood
before him in the break:
To turn his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter should him wreak.

24 They did despise the pleasant land
that he behight to give:
Yea, and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit beleve.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd.
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.
26 Therefore against them list'd he
his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness
ere they should see the land.

27 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod:
And through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.

28 To Baal Peor then they did adjoyn themselves also:
And eat the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.

29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke.

And in his fore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas stood up with zeal
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is
from race to race, I say.

32 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make:
Yea, so farre forth that Moses was then punish't for their sake:

33 Because they vex't his spirit so fore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slue the people tho:

35 But were among the heathen mix't,
and learn'd their works also.

36 And did their idols serve, which were their ruine and decay:

37 To fiends their sonnes and daughters they did offer up and slay.

38 Yea, with unkindly murdering knife
the guilelesse blood they spilt:
Yea, their own sonnes and daughters blood
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then offered with wicked hand:
And so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled fore:
And even his own inheritance
therefore he did abhorre.

41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey,
And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hatefull enemies
opprest them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subjects to their hand.

43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provokt him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse
were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse,
he hearkened to their cry.

45 He call'd to minde his covenant
which he to them had sworn:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.

47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
save us, O Lord, we pray:
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy name:
That we may glory in thy praise,
and founding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

*Confitemini Domino. Psal. Cuii. W.K.
David exhorteth all that are redeemed by the Lord,
and gathered unto him, to give thanks therefore; who by sending prosperity and adversity, bringeth men unto him.
Therefore as the righteous thereat rejoyce, so shall the wicked have their mouths stopped.*

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end
all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his name:
And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so farre about:
From east to west, from north to south
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandered in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way:
And found no citie where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:
That faintnesse did them fore assault,
and eke their souls annoyd.

6 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a citie go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his goodnesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustaind,
whom thirst had made to faint:
The hungry soul with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darknesse deep,
where they on death do wait:
Fast bound to taste such troublous storms,
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords own words
they fought so to rebell:
Esteeming light his counsell high,
which do so farre excell.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.

13 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

14 For he from darknesse out them brought,
and from deaths dreadfull shade:
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindenesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

16 For he threw down the gates of brass,
and brake them with strong hand:
The iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel,
and cannot from them wend:
But heape on more to those they have,
because they do offend.

18 Their soul so much did loath all meat
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly ride.

19 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore:
And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindenesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks, and also fear:
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull chear.

23 Such as in ships and bridle barks
into the seas descend,
Their merchandise through fearfull flouds
to compass and to end:

24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep, the same
most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy winde
aristeth in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so
as nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain:
And plunging down the depth, untill
their souls consume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro
now here now there they reel,
As men with fear of wiberets,
or had of sense no feel.

28 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy storms to cease:
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave:

Psalm Cxiii. Cix.

And are by him in haven brought which they to faine would have.

The fourth part.

- 31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindenesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.
- 32 Let them in presence of the folk
with praise extoll his name:
And where the elders do convent
there let them do the same.
- 33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn:
And drinck up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
- 34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt
full barren doth he make:
When on their sinnes that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.
- 35 Again the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear:
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.
- 36 Wherein such hungry souls are set
as he doth freely chooseth:
That they a citie may them build
to dwell in for their use.
- 37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
and vineyards also plant,
To yeeld them fruits of such increase,
as none may seem to want.
- 38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth blesse them for:
Who doth also the brute beasts make
by numbers great to grow.
- 39 But when the faithfull are low brought
by the oppressours stout:
And minish do through many plagues
that compass them about.
- 40 Then doth he princes bring to shame
which did them fore oppress,
And likewise caus'd them to erre
within the wilderness.
- 41 But yet the poore he raiseth up
out of his troubles deep:
And oft times doth his train augment,
much like a flock of sheep.
- 42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.
- 43 But who is wise that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindenesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. Cxiii. J. H.

David with heart and voice praiseth the Lord, and assureth himself of the promises of God, concerning his kingdome over Israel, and his power against other nations, who though he seem to forsake us for a time, yet he alone in the end will call down our enemies.

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is for:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving praise also.

- 1 Awake my viall and my harp
sweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.
- 2 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
- 3 Because thy mercy Lord is great
above the heavens high:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the loftie skie.
- 4 Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self, O God:
And, Lord, display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.
- 5 That thy dearly beloved may be set at libertie:
Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
- 6 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
wherefore my joyes abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.
- 7 And Gilead shall be mine own,
Manasses mine shall be:
My head strength, Ephraim; and law
shall Judah give for me.
- 8 Moab my washtpot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
- 9 Who shall into the citie strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how, by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?
- 10 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late
hadst us forsaken quite?
And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight?
- 11 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assaile:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.
- 12 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown,
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea, he shall tread them down.

Deus laudem tuam. Psal. Cix. N.

*David being falsely accused by Sauls flatterers, prayeth
God to help him to destroy his enemies, who represent Judas the traitour unto Jesus Christ, and all like enemies of the children of God.*

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

- I N speechlesse silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue alwaies:
O God, even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.
- 1 The wicked and the guilefull mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.
- 2 They did beset me round about
with words of hatefull spight:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.

- 4 For my good will they were my foes;
but then can I to pray:
5 My good with ill, my friendlinesse
with hate they did repay.
6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.
7 When he is judged let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sinne.
8 Few be his dayes, his charge also let thou another take:
9 His children let be fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his offspring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been fed.
11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store:
And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.
12 Let there be none to pite him,
let there be none at all
That on his children fatherlesse,
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

- 13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroy'd:
Their name out blotted in the age,
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickednesse
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sinne
be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull hearted wight.
17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so:
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be farre him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall Into his bowels, and like oyl
into his bones befall.
19 As garment let it be to him,
to cover him for aye:
And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.
20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

- 21 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
deal thou, I say, with me
After thy name, deliver me;
for good thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distresse
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

- 23 Even so do I depart away
as doth declining shade:
And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needfull food
enfeebled are my knees:
And all her fatnesse hath my flesh
enforced been to keefe.
25 And I also a vile reproach
to them am made to be:
And they that did upon me look
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercy, Lord,
save and deliver me.
27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they understand.
28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blesse with loving voice:
They shall arise and come to shame;
thy servant shall joyce.
29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.
31 For he with help at his right hand
will stand the poore man by,
To save him from the man that would condemne his soul to die.

Dixit Dominus. Pal. Cx. N.

David propheseth of the power and everlasting kingdome of Christ, and of the priesthood, which should put an end to the priesthood of Levi.

Sing this as the 77 psalme.

- THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
sit thou on my right hand
Till I have made thy foes a stool,
whereon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might:
Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.
3 And in the day on which thy reigne,
and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will-offrings shall
the people offer thee.
Yea, with an holly worshipping
then shall they offer all:
Thy births dew is the dew that doth
from wombe of morning fall.
4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say,
By the order of Melchisedech
thou art a priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, Shall wound for thee the stately kings
upon his wrathfull day.

- 6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead:
And over divers countreys shall
in funder smite the head.
7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxi. N.

He giveth thanks to the Lord for his mercifull works towards his church, and declareth wherein true wise-dome and right knowledge consisteth.

Sing this as the 104 psalme.

- With heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just.
2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound
As do him love and trust.
3 His works are glorious,
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.
4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should,
His mercy faileth never.
5 Such as to him love bear,
A portion full faire
He hath up for them laid:
For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightning and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders,
7 Of all his works ensueth
Both judgement, right, and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:
8 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure,
Which equity doth end.
Redemption he gave
His people for to save:
9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But alwayes to prevail:
His holy name be feared.
10 Whofo with heart full faine
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep Shall knowedge have full deep,
his praise shall last for aye.

Beatus vir. Psal. Cxii. W. R.

He praileth the felicity of them that fear God, and condemmeth the cursed state of the contemners of God.

Sing this as the Pater noster.

- The man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed:
2 His seed on earth God will uprear,
And blest such as from him proceed.
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.
4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light,

Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwayes in his sight.
5 Yea pitie moveth such to lend,
He doth by judgement things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail,
For in remembrance had is he:
7 No tidings ill can make him quail
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His heart is firm, his fear is past;
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poore provide,
His righteousness shall still remain:
And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain.
10 Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. Cxiii. W. R.

An exhortation to praise the Lord for his providence, in that contrary to the course of nature he worketh in his church.

Ye children which do serve the Lord, praise ye
his name with one accord; Yea blessed be alwayes his name, Who from the rising of the sunne, Till it return where it begun, Is to be praised with great fame. The Lord all people doth surmount, As for his glory we may count, Above the heavens high to be. With God the Lord who may compare, Whose dwellings in the heavens are: Of such great power and force is he.

- 6 He doth abase himself we know
Things to behold both here below
And also in heaven above.
7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poore which help none saw,
His onely mercy did him move.
8 And so him set in high degree
With princes of great dignitie;
That rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear:
Therefore praise ye his holy name.

In exitu Israel. Psal. Cxiii. w. w.

Israels delivery out of Egypt, putteth us in remembrance of Gods great mercies towards his children, and of our unthankfullnesse for the same.

Sing this as the 44 psalme.

When Israel by Gods addresse
from Pharaohs land was bent:
And Jacobs house the strangers left,

and in the same train went:
2 In Juda God his glory shewd,
his holinesse most bright:
So did the Israelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.

3 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amaz'd did flee:
The roaring streams of Jordans flood
recoyled backwardly.

4 As rams afraid the mountains skipt,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the silly trembling lambs,
their tops did beat and shake.

5 What ail'd thee sea, as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flee?

Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?

6 Why shook ye hills as rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?

Why did your tops, as trembling lambs
for fear quiver and quake?

7 O earth, confesse thy soveraigne Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:

Before the face of Jacobs God
fear ye both sea and land.

8 I mean the God, which from hard rocks
doth cause main founts to appeare:

And from the stony flint doth cause
gush out the fountains cleare.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. Cxv. N.

The faithfull oppressed by idolatrous tyrants, promise that they will be mindfull of so great a benefit, if it would please God to heare their prayer, and deliver them by his omnipotent power.

Sing this as the 119 psalme.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy name give praise,
Both for thy mercy and thy truth
that are in thee alwayes.

2 Why shall the heathen scorn us say,
where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols silver are and gold,
works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth, and do not speak,
and eyes, and do not see:

6 And they have eares joyn'd to their heads,
and do not heare at all:

And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell withall:

7 And hands they have, and handle not,
and feet, and do not go:

A throat they have, yet through the same
they make no found to blow.

8 Those that make them are like to them,
and those whose trust they bet:

9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:

11 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

12 The Lord hath mindfull been of us,
and will us blesse also:

On Israel and on Aarons house
his blessings he will show.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord
the Lord will blesse them all:

Even he will blesse them every one,
the great and eke the small.

14 To you (I say) the loving Lord
will multiply his grace:

To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord I say:

Which both the heaven and the earth
hath made and set in stay.

16 The heavens, yea the heavens high belong unto the Lord:

The earth unto the sonnes of men
he gave of free accord.

17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown:

Nor any that into the place
of silence do go down.

18 But we will praise the Lord our God
from henceforth and for aye:

Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi. N.

David being in great danger of Saul in the desert of Maon, perceiving the great and inestimable love of God toward him, magnified such great mercies, and protesteth that he will be thankfull for the same.

Sing this as the 103 psalme.

I Love the Lord, because my voice
and prayer heard hath he:

2 When in my dayes I call'd on him
he bowed his eare to me.

3 Even when the snares of cruell death
about beset me round:

When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.

4 Upon the name of God my Lord
then did I call, and say,

Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull,
and just he is also:

And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all those that simple be:

I was in wofull misery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my soul, fith thou art safe,
return unto thy rest:

For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall:

My moistened eyes from mournfull tears,
my sliding feet from fall.

- 9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will walk therefore:
10 I did believe, therefore I spake,
for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

- 11 I said in my distress and fear
that all men liars be:
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords name I will call
when I my prayer make.
14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him behight:
Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.
15 Right deare and precious in his sight
the Lord doth aye esteem
The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.
16 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo;
I do my self confesse,
Sonne of thy handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distress.
17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:
And I will call upon the name
of God the Lord alwaies.
18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him behight, Yea even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.
19 Yea in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee
O thou Jerusalem I say,
whetfore the Lord praise ye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxvii. N.

He exhorteth the Gentiles to praise God because he hath accomplished as well to them, as to the Jews, the promise of life everlasting by Jesus Christ.

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

- O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwayest
And all ye people every where set forth his noble praise.
3 For great his kindnesse is to us,
his truth endures for aye:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Confitemini. Psal. Cxviii. N.

David rejected of Saul and of the people, at the time appointed obtained the kingdome, for the which he bid-deth all men that fear the Lord to be thankfull, under whose person Christ is lively set forth, who should be of his people rejected.

Sing this as the 69 psalme.

- O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.
2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercy dures for aye:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for aye.

- 4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confesse and say,
The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for aye.

- 5 In trouble and in heavinesse
unto the Lord I cride:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not denide.

- 6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,
Nor fear what man can do to me
when God stands me about.

- 7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire upon mine enemy.

- 8 Better it is to trust in God
then in mans mortall seed:
9 Or to put confidence in kings
or princes in our need.

- 10 All nations have enclosed me
and compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

- 11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in, I say,
But in the Lords most mighty name
I shall work their decay.

- 12 They came about me all like bees;
but yet in the Lords name
I quench their thorns that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

- 13 Thou hast with force thrust fore at me
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquishd all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength;
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed
a Saviour most strong.

- 15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to passe great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwelling.

- 16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring
most mighty things to passe:
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

- 17 I shall not die, but ever live
to utter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous power
his works, and what they are.

- 18 The Lord himself hath chastened
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

- 19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them
the Lords praise to expresse.

- 20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut
But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third part.

- 21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,

And art become most lovingly
 a Saviour unto me.
 22 The stone which ere this time among
 the builders was refused,
 Is now become the corner-stone,
 and chiefly to be used.
 23 This was the mighty work of God,
 this was the Lords own fact:
 And it is marvellous to behold
 with eyes that noble act.
 24 This is the joyfull day indeed
 which God himself hath wrought:
 Let us be glad and joy therein
 in heart, in minde, in thought.
 25 Now help us Lord and prosper us
 we with with one accord:
 26 Blessed is he that comes to us
 in the name of the Lord.
 27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
 binde ye therefore with cord
 Your sacrifice to the altar,
 and give thanks to the Lord.
 28 Thou art my God I will confesse,
 and render thanks to thee:
 Thou art my God, and I will praise
 thy mercy towards me.
 29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord
 for gracious is he:
 Because his mercy doth endure
 for ever towards met

Beati immaculati. Psal. Cxix. W. 17.

The prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods Law, wherein he cannot satisfie himself, nor expresse sufficiently his affection, thereunto adding notable complaints and consolations meet for the faithfull to have both in heart and voice. And in the Hebrew, every eight verses begin with one letter of the alphabet.

Lessed are they that perfect are, and pure in minde and heart: Whose lives and conversations from Gods laws never start. Blessed are they that give themselves his statutes to observe:

Seeking the Lord with all their heart, and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray
 nor do no wicked thing,
 Which stedfastly walk in his way
 without any wandering.
 4 It is thy will and commandment
 that with attentive heed
 Thy noble and divine precepts
 we learn and keep indeed.
 5 O would to God it might thee please
 my wayes so to addresse

That I might both in heart and voice
 thy laws keep and confesse.
 6 So should no shame my life attaint,
 whilst I thus set mine eyes,
 And bend my minde alwaies to muse
 on thy sacred decrees.
 7 Then will I praise with upright heart,
 and magnifie thy name,
 When I shall learn thy judgements just,
 and likewise prove the same.
 8 And wholly will I give my self
 to keep thy laws most right:
 Forlake me not for ever, Lord,
 but shew thy grace and might.
 BETH. The second part.
 9 By what means may a young man best
 his life learn to amend?
 If that he mark and keep thy word,
 and therein his time spend.
 10 Unteignedly I have thee sought,
 and thus seeking abide:
 Oh never suffer me, O Lord,
 from thy precepts to slide.
 11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
 thy words I have hid still:
 That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
 12 We magnifie thy name, O Lord,
 and praise thee evermore:
 Thy statutes of most worthy fame
 O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceased to preach
 and publish day and night
 The judgements all which did proceed
 from thy mouth full of might.
 14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes please me no lesse indeed
 Then all the treasures of the earth,
 which worldlings make their meed.
 15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
 and thereto frame my talk:
 As at a mark so will I aim
 thy wayes how I may walk.
 16 My onely joy shall be to fix
 and on thy laws to sett:
 That nothing can me so farre blinde
 that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
 as may my life prolong:
 Thy holy word then will I keep
 both in my heart and tongue.
 18 Mine eyes which were dimme and shut up
 so open and make bright:
 That of thy law and marvellous works
 I may have the clear sight.
 19 I am a stranger in this earth,
 wandering now here now there:
 Thy word therefore to me disclose
 my footsteps for to clear.
 20 My soul is ravishd with desire,
 and never is at rest:
 But seeks to know thy judgements high,
 and what may please thee best.
 21 The proud men and malicious
 thou hast destroyd each one:
 And cursd are such as do not thy helts attend upon.

- 22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.
- 23 The princes great in counsel far,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
- 24 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve in stead of counsellors,
my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

- 25 I am, alas, as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
- 26 My wayes when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst heare:
Heare now eftssoon, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
- 27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
- 28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore haste Lord to send relief.
- 29 From lying and deceifull lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love
thy holy law me fend.
- 30 The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found:
I set thy judgements me before,
which keep me safe and sound.
- 31 Since then (O Lord) I fore't my self
thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.
- 32 Then will I runne with joyfull cheer
where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

- 33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right trade
of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end
my heart will I incline.
- 34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With heart and mind and all my might
I will it keep, I say.
- 35 In the right paths of thy precepts
guide me, Lord, I require:
None other pleasure do I wish
nor greater thing desire.
- 36 Encline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice
Lord shield me with thy grace.
- 37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power
to walk thy wayes aright.
- 38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord,
which thou hast made to me,

Which am thy servant and do love
and fear nothing but thee.

- 39 Reproach and shame which I so fear
from me, O Lord, expell:
For thou dost judge with equitie,
and therein dost excell.
- 40 Behold, my hearts desire is bent
thy laws to keep for aye:
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

VAV. The sixth part.

- 41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain, O Lord:
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths,
of lewd men and unjust:
For in thy faithfull promises
stands my comfort and trust.
- 43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest:
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
- 44 And whilst that breath within my breast
doth naturall life preserve:
Yea till this world shall be dissolv'd
thy law will I observe.
- 45 So walk will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
- 46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame:
Even before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.
- 47 I will rejoyce then to obey
thy worthy bests and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.
- 48 My hands I will lift to thy laws
which I have dearly fought:
And practise thy commandments
in will, in deed, in thought.

ZAIN. The seventh part.

- 49 Thy promise which thou madst to me
thy servant (Lord) remember:
For therein have I put my trust
and confidence for ever.
- 50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.
- 51 The proud and such as God contemne
still made of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn.
- 52 But call'd to minde, Lord, thy great works
shew'd to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.
- 53 But yet alas for fear I quake
seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgements who knows when?
- 54 And as for me I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwelt,
And thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep:
As for thy law also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay,
I have decreed and promised
thy laws to keep alway.
58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord grant me of thy grace.
59 My life I have examiaed,
and tride my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.
60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are:
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.
61 The cruell bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
so great are and so high:
That even at midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.
63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their hearts:
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandements start.
64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously
do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sorts
have I thy servant felt.
66 Teach me to judge alwayes aright,
and give me knowledge sure:
For certainly beleve I do
that thy precepts are pure.
67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went astray:
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and givest most liberally:
Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.
69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:
Yet thy commandements still observe
with all my heart will I.
70 Their hearts are (twain) with worldly wealth,
as greafe so are they fat:
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.
71 O happy time, may I well say
when thou didst me correct:

For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

J O D. The tenth part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy laws in ure:
74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy word
to put my trust in thee.
75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd
I know the cause is just:
So when thou dost correct me, Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray
some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy servant heest,
so from all ill me shend.
77 Thy tender mercies poure on me,
and I shall surely live:
For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give.
78 Confound the proud whose false pretence
is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy heests to know
I will my self employ.
79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.

C A P H. The xi part.

81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words sake still I trust
my hearts desire to have.
82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say,
Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?
83 As a skie-bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and drie:
Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandements slide.
84 Alas how long shall I yet live
before I see the houre,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt poure?
85 Presumptuous men have digged pits,
thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commandements are all true,
and causlesse they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightst me relieve.
87 Almost they had me clean destroyd,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keep till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The xii part.

89 In heaven Lord, where thou dost dwell
thy word is stablisht sure:
And shall for all eternitie
fast graven there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witnesset Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure
as no tongue can expresse.

91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere
According to thine ordinance;
for all things thee revere.
92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort fought,
Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.
94 No wight to me can tide make;
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws
mine eares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait:
But I the while considered
thy noble works and great.
96 I see nothing in this wide world
at length which hath not end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all end extend.

M E M. The xiii part.

97 What great desire and fervent love
do I beare to thy law!
All the day long my whole device
is onely on thy law.
98 Thy word hath taught me farre to passe
my foes in policie:
For still I hold it as a thing
of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdom I do passe also
the auncient men indeed:
And all because to keep thy laws
I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I have refrained eke
from every evil way, Because that I continually
thy word might keep, I say.
102 I have not swerv'd from thy judgements,
nor yet shrunk any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
finde I thy words alway!
Doubtlesse no hony in my mouth
feele ought so sweet I may!

104 Thy laws have me such wisdom learn'd,
that utterly I hate
All wicked and ungodly wayes,
in every kinde or rate.

N U N. The xiiii part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet
so doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where ever I go
it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn and will perform
most certainly doubtlesse
That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress'd
and brought me to deaths doore:
O Lord, as thou hast promised
so me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart and voice
most frankly I thee give Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soul is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assail:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets
to catch me at a bay,
Yet did I not from thy precepts,
once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway
as mine own heritage:
And why? for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent
thy statutes to fulfill:
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The xv part.

113 The crafty thoughts and double hearts
I do alwaies detest:
But as for thy law and precepts
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore have I thy promises
lookt for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promised so perform,
that death me not assail:
Nor let my hope abuse mese,
that through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break:
For nought avails their subtilty,
their counsell is but weak.

119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out
where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well,

130 My flesh (alas) is taken with fear,
as though it were benighted:
For when I see thy judgements, straight
I am as one astounded.

AIN. The xvi part.

131 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right:
Resigne me not to them that would oppress me with their might.
132 But for thy servant surely be in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foil,
which rage as they were wood.

133 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde,
thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
whereby thou wilt me save.
134 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellencie
teach me also to know.

135 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
grant me to understand How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
136 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite decayd:
Thy law likewise they have transgressed,
and none against them said.

137 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better than gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.

138 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All crafty and malicious wayes
I do abhorre therefore.

PE. The xvii part.

139 Thy covenants are most wonderfull,
and full of things profound:
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are true and found.
140 When men first enter into thy word
they finde a light most clear:
And very idiots understand
when they it reade or heare.

131 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd
to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my feet thereby
I sought what thing it meant.
133 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above,
As thou art wont to behold such as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquitie
thy servant overthrow.
134 From slanderous tongues and deadly harms
preserve and keep me sure:
Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the sunne in his bright hue,
Let shine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.

136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush out:
of dreary tears and fell;
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep never a deal.

ZADE. The xviii part.

137 In every point (Lord) thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous judge.
138 To render right, and flee from guile,
are two chief points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straightly.

139 With zeal and watch I am consum'd,
and even pine away
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deem:
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
142 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most just,
for ever to endure:
Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grief have seild on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to heare and know.

144 The righteousness of thy judgements
doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

KOPH. The xix part.

145 With fervent heart I call and cride,
now answer me, O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.
146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble request:
Save me therefore and I will keep thy precepts and thy behest.

147 To thee I cry even in the morn
before the day wax light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night,
and ere they call I wake:
That by devising on thy word
I might some comfort take.

149 Encline thine eares to heare my voice,
and pitie on me take:
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw neare, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are farre gone back,
and straid from it leudly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neare,
for need doth so require:
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.

151 But thy commandements have I learn'd
not now but long ago,
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them ground'd so.

RESH. The xx part.

153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold:
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause,
with speed some succour send:
From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked farre they are
from having health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant,
what tongue can them attain?
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
to let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me foret:
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is, for grief I die
when I these traitours see:
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy laws
with heart most glad and faine:
As thou art good and gracious Lord
restore my life again.

160 What thy word doth decree must be,
and so it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

SCHIN. The xxi part.

161 Princes have fought by cruelty
causeless to make me crouch:
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch:
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad
Then he that of rich spoils and prey great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falsties
I hate most and detest:
For why? thy holy law do I above all things love best.

164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord
singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull
to cause me to rejoyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love:
No danger shall their quiet state
empair, or once remove.

166 My onely health and comfort Lord
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done those things
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been mine exercise,
which my soul most desired:
So much to them my love was bent
that nought els I required.

168 Thy statutes and commandements
I kept (thou knowest) aright:
For all the things that I have done
are present in thy sight.

TAV. The xxii part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appeare:
And as thou hast me promise made,
to teach me thee to fear.

170 Mine humble supplication
toward thee let finde access:
And grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy word,
and on this wise say shall,
Gods famous acts and noble laws,
are just and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me save:
For thy commandements to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.

174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing els
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to live
thy name to magnifie:
And of thy judgements mercifull
let me the favour try.

176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandring sheep:
Oh seek me, for I have not fail'd
thy commandements to keep.

Addominum. Psal. Cxx. T. S.

David banished among the barbarous Arabians,
through false reports of envious flatterers, lamenteth his long abode among such infidels, given to all kinde of wickednesse and contention.

Sing this as the III psalme.

IN trouble and in thrall
Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.

2 Deliver me, I say
From liars lips away,
and tongues of false report,

3 What vantage, or what thing
Get'st thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flattering liar?

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween
No lesse then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas, too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect
And all of Isaacs seed
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life.
But when my tale was told Causeless I was controld
By them that would have strife.

Levavi oculos. Psal. Cxxi. W. W.

The prophet sheweth by his own example, that the faithfull ought to look for all their succour of God alone, who will govern and give good successe to all their godly enterprises.

I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour will,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep.

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve
No sleep at all can him catch,
But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover
As at thy right hand ever:

6 The sunne shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the moon not half so bright
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distresse,
And will thy life sure save:
And thou shalt also have

8 In all thy businesse good successe.
Where ever thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Letatus sum. Psal. Cxxii. W. K.

David rejoyleth that God accomplisheth his promise, and placed his ark in Sion, giving thanks, and praying for the prosperity of the church.

Did in heart rejoyce to heare the peoples

voice, In offering so willingly: For let us up

say they, And in the Lords house pray: Thus spake the folk full lovingly. Our feet that wandered wide Shall in thy gates abide, O

thou Jerusalem full fair. Which art so seem-ly, yet, Much like a citie near, The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell

That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain,
His folk to judge accordingly.

6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily:
7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughour
Thy palaces continually.

8 I with thy prosperous state
For my poore brethrens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee.
9 Gods house doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure
So much alwayes as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Psal. Cxxiii. T. S.

A prayer of the faithfull, which are afflicted by the wicked worldlings, and contemnners of God.

Sing this as the 73 psalme.

O Lord that heaven doest possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Even as the servant lifteth his,
his masters hands to see.

2 As handmaids watch their mistris hand
some grace for to achieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight:
For we are fill'd and overcome
with hatred and despight.

4 Our mindes be stuff'd with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wife
Do make of us their mocking stocks
the proud do us despise.

Nisi quia Dom. Psal. Cxxiiii. W. W.

The faithfull delivered out of great danger, acknowledge not to have escaped by their own power, but through the favour of God.

Ow Israel may say and that ruefully, If that the Lord had not our cause maintain'd: If that the Lord had not our right sustain'd, When all the world against us furiously, Made their uproars,

and said we should all die:

Psalms Cxxv. Cxxvi.

- 3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all,
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.
5 The raging streams,
most proud in roaring noise,
Had long ago
overwhelm'd us in the deep.
6 But loved be God
which doth us safely keep From bloody teeth,
and their most cruell voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.
7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers grin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have escaped thus.
8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then:
His name hath saved
us from these wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. Cxxv. W. K.

He describeth the assurance of the faithfull in their afflictions, and desireth their wealth, and the destruction of the wicked.

Sing this as the Pater noster.

- Such as in God the Lord do trust
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand.
The Lord will count them right and just:
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure.
3 As mighty mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so deare,
They never need to fear.
3 For though the righteous trie doth he
By making wicked men his rod:
Left they through grief forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be.
4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.
5 But as for such as turn aside
By crooked wayes which they out sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought:
With workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same, by R. W.

Sing this as the ten commandments.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely,
And flee to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery:
Their faith is sure still to endure,

Grounded on Christ the corner stone,
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem
The mighty hills do it compasse,
So that no enemies come to them
To hurt that town in any case:
So God indeed in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly
From this time forth world without end.

Right wife and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly
The firmers and ungodlies rod
To tarry upon his family:
Left they also from God should go,
Falling to sinne and wickednesse.
O Lord defend world without end
Thy christian flock through thy goodnesse.

O Lord do good to Christians all
That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end:
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Sonne our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts, and us succour:
That the right way from day to day
We may walk and him glorifie:
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

In convertendo. Psal. Cxxvi. W. W.

*This psalme was made after the return of the people
from Babylon, and sheweth that the means of their deliverance was wonderfull after the seventy yeares of capivty, foretold of by Jer. 25. 11. and 29. 10.*

When that the Lord again his Sion had forth

brought From bondage great, and also servitude extreame: His work was such as did surmount mans heart and thought: So that we were much like to them that use to dream.

Our mouthes were with laughter filled then,

And eke our tongues did shew us joyfull men.

1 The heathen folk
were forced then this to confesse,
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.
3 But much more we,
And therefore can confesse no lesse:
Wherefore to joy
we have good cause as we begun.
4 O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end:
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.
5 Full true it is that they which sow in teares indeed,
A time will come
when they shall reap in mirth and joy.
6 They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seeds:
For that their foes
full oftentimes did them annoy:
But their return
with joy they shall sure see,
Their sheaves home bring,
and not empai red be.

Nisi Dom. Psal. Cxxvii. W. W.

*It is not mans wit, power, or labour, but the free
goodnesse of God that giveth riches, preserveth towns and countreys, granteth nourishment and children.*

Sing this as the Lords prayer.

EXcept the Lord the house doth make,
And thercunto doth set his hand;
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safegard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morn
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worn:
But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ever ye see
That men have heirs to enjoy their land,
It is the gift of Gods own hand.
For God himself doth multiply
Of his great liberalitie
The blessing of posteritie.

4 And when the children come to age
They grow in strength and activeness,
In person and in comeliness:
So that a shaft shot with courage
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Lies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 Oh well is he that hath his quiver
Purnisht with such artillerie;
For when in peril he shall be Such one shall never shake nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the judge
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. Cxxviii. T. S.

*Herein he describeth the prosperous state of persons married in the fear of God, and the promises of Gods blessings to all them that live in this bonourable estate,
according to Gods commandements.*

Sing this as the 137 psalme.

Blessed art thou that fearest God
and walkest in his way:

2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou I say.
3 Like fruitfull vines on thy house side
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive plants
thy table round about.
4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see 5 The promised Jerusalem
and her felicitie.
6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great joyes encrease:
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

Sape expugnaverunt. Psal. Cxxix. N.

*He admonisheth the church to rejoyce though afflicted
in all ages, for God will deliver it, and suddenly destroy the enemies thereof.*

Sing this as the 137 psalme.

OFt they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assailed:
2 Oft they assailed me from my youth;
yet never they prevaild.
3 Upon my back the plowers plowd,
and furrows long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords
of wicked foes at last.
5 They that hate me shall be asham'd,
and turned back alio:
6 And made as grasse upon the house
which withereth ere it grow:
7 Whereof the mower cannot finde
enough to fill his hand:
Nor can he fill his lap; that goeth
to glean upon the land.
8 Nor passers by pray God on them
to let his blessing fall:
Nor say, We blesse you in the name
of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. Cxxx. W. W.

*An effectuall prayer to obtain mercy and forgiveness
of his sinnes, and at length deliverance from all evils.*

Lie to thee I make my mone when dangers me oppresse: I call, I sigh, plain and

grone, trusting to finde release. 2 Heare now

O Lord, my request, for it is full due time:

and let thine eares aye be prest unto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh
our sinnes and them peruse:
Who shall then escape, and say,
I can my self excuse?

4 But, Lord, thou art mercifull,
and turn'st to us thy grace,
That we with hearts most carefull
should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust,
my soul waits on his will:
For his promise is most iust,
and I hope therein still.

6 My soul to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway
More then they that watch and ward
to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put his truste
He is that God of mercy that his deliver must.

8 For he it is that must save
Israel from his sinne,
And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

Domine non est. Psal. Cxxxi. M.

*David charged with ambition, protesteth his humility
before God.*

Sing this as the Lamentation.

O Lord I am not puffed in minde,
I have no scornfull eie:
I do not exercise my self
in things that be too high.

2 But as the childe that weaned is even from his mothers breast:
So have I, Lord, behav'd my self
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay
From this time forth for evermore,
from age to age, I say.

Memento Dom. Psal. Cxxxi. M.

*The faithfull grounded on Gods promise made unto David, desireth that he would establish the same, both as touching his posterity, and the building of the temple,
to pray there as it was foretold.*

R

Remember Davids troubles Lord, how to the Lord he swore, And vowed a vow to Jacobs God,

to keep for evermore: I will not come within my house, nor climb up to my bed, Nor let

my temples take their rest, nor the eyes in my head,

5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we heare this sound:
And in the fields and Forrests there
these voices first were found.

7 We will assay, and go in now
his tabernacle there Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say,
into thy resting place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy saints and holy men
sing all with joyfullness.

10 And for thy servant Davids sake,
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it, Saying, the fruit of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sonnes my covenant keep that I shall learn each one:
Then shall their sonnes for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
and loves therein to dwell,
Saying, this is my resting place,
I love and like it well.

14 And I will blese with great increase her victuals every where:
And I will satisfy with bread
the needy that be there.

15 Yea, I will deck and cloth her priests
with my salvation:
And all her saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.

16 There will I surely make the horn
of David for to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

17 As for his enemies, I will clothe with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh then heretofore.

Ecce quidm. Psal. Cxxxi. M. 17.

The commendation of godly and brotherly amity, compared to the most precious oyl mentioned in Exod. 30.

Sing this as the 137 psalme.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyfull for to see,

Brethren

Brethren together fast to hold the band of amity!

1 It calls to minde that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment
Which on the sacrifices head
by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone,
but drencht his beard throughout,
And finally it did runne down
his rich attire about.

3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill,
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill:

4 Even so the Lord doth power on them
his blessings manifold, Whose hearts and mindes without all guile
this knot do keep and hold.

Ecce nunc. Psal. Cxxxiii. 17. 18.

*He exhorteth the Levites that watch in the temple,
to praise the Lord.*

Sing this as the 25 psalme.

BEhold and have regard
ye servants of the Lord:
Which in his house by night do watch,
praise him with one accord.

2 Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place,
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion blesse and will conserve
for evermore the same.

Laudate nomen. Psal. Cxxxv. N.

He exhorteth all the faithfull to praise God for his marvellous works and graces, wherein he hath declared his Majestie, to the confusion of all idolatry.

Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him,

praise him with one accord: O praise him

still all ye that be the servants of the Lord:

O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord: Ye of his court, and of his house,

praise him with one accord.

3 Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his name:
It is a comely and good thing
alwayes to do the same.

4 For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob
his very own ye see:
So hath he chosen Israel
his treasure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right sure
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods
most easie to intreat.

6 For whatsoever pleased him
all that full well he wrought:
In heaven, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds even from the earth,
he makes lightnings and rain,
He bringeth forth the windes also,
he made nothing in vain.

8 He smote the first-born of each thing
in Egypt that took rest:
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaoh thy cursed king,
and his severe servants.

10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:
He slue the great and mightiest
and chiefe of their kings.

11 Schon king of the Amorites,
and Og king of Basan:
He slue also the kingdomes all that were of Canaan.

12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage we see,
To Israel his own people,
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy name (O Lord) shall still endure
and thy memoriall
Throughout all generations
that are or ever shall.

14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeed:
And to his servants he will shew
favour in time of need.

15 The idols of the heathen are made in all the coasts and lands;
Of silver and of gold they be
the work even of mens hands.

16 They have their mouthes, and cannot speak,
and eyes that have no sight:
17 They have eke eares, and heare nothing,
their mouthes be breathlesse quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them
that so do set them forth:
And likewise those that trust in them,
or think they be ought worth.

19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord,
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

H 3

20 And

- 30 And ye thanke of Levies house,
praise ye likewise the Lord:
And ye that stand in awe of him
praise him with one accord.
31 And out of Sion sound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem,
praise him with one accord.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. CXXXVI. N.

A most earnest exhortation to give thanks unto God for the creation and governance of all things.

- Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endureth for ever:
3 Give praise unto the God of Gods,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
3 Give praise unto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Which onely doth great wondrous works,
for his mercy &c.
5 Which by his wisdom made the heavens,
for his mercy &c.
6 Which on the waters stretcht the earth,
for his mercy &c.
7 Which made great lights to shine abroad,
for his mercy &c.
8 As sunne to rule the lightsome day,
for his mercy &c.
9 The moon and starres to guide the night,
for his mercy &c.
10 Which smote Egypt with their first-born,
for his mercy &c.
11 And Israel brought out from thence,
for his mercy &c.
12 With mighty hand and stretched arm,
for his mercy &c.
13 Which cut the Red sea in two parts,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
14 And Israel made passe there through,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
15 And drowned Pharaoh and his host,
for his mercy endureth &c.
16 Through wilderness he people led,
for his mercy endureth &c.
17 He which did smite great noble kings,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
18 And which hath slain the mighty kings
for his mercy endureth &c.
19 As Sehon king of Amorites,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
20 And Og the king of Basan land,
for his mercy endureth &c.
21 And gave their land for heritage,
for his mercy endureth for ever:
22 Even to his servant Israel,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
23 Remembring us in base estate,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
24 And from oppressours rescued us,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
25 Which giveth food unto all flesh,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
27 Give thanks unto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

Another of the same, by T.C.

Sing this as the 148 Psalm.

O Land the Lord benigne,
Whose mercies last for aye:
Give thanks and praises sing
To God of Gods I say.
2 For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure
Eternally.

3 The Lord of Lords praise ye,
Whose mercies aye do dure:
4 Great wonders onely he Doth work by his great power.
For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure
Eternally.

5 Which God omnipotent
By his great wisdom high
The heavenly firmament
Did frame as we may see.
For certainly, &c.

6 Yea, he the heavy charge
Of all the earth did stretch:
And on the waters large
The same he did outreach.
For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be,
For why? his love is aye:
8 Such as the sunne we see,
To rule the lightsome day.
For certainly, &c.

9 And eke the moon so clear
Which shineth in our sight,
And starres that do appeare,
To guide the darksome night.
For certainly, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and fores
All Egypt smote he than:
Their first-born lesse and more
He slue of beast and man.
For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidst their land
His Israel forth brought:
12 Which he with mighty hand
And stretched arm hath wrought.
For certainly, &c.

13 The sea he cut in two
Which stood up like a wall:
14 And made through it to go
His chosen children all.
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then
The proud king Pharaoh
With his huge host of men,
And chariots eke also.
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wilderness
His people safe and sound:
And for his love endlesse
17 Great kings he brought to ground.
For certainly, &c.

18 And flue with puissant hand
Kines mighty and of fame,
19 As of Amorites land
Schon the king by name.
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og (the giant large)
Of Basan king alior
21 Whose land for heritage
Hegave his people tho.
For certainly, &c.

22 Even unto Israel
His servant deare, I say,
He gave the same to dwell,
And there abide for aye.
For certainly, &c.

23 To minde he did us call
In our most base degrees
24 And from oppressours all
In safety set us free.
For certainly, &c.

25 All flesh in earth abroad
With food he doth fulfill:
26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To laud be is your will.
For certainly, &c.

Super flumina. Psal. Cxxxvii. 17. 18.

The Israelites in their captivity hearing the Caldeans repeach and blaspheme God and his religion, desire God to punish the Edomites, who provoked the Babylonians against them, and prophesied the destruction of Babylon.

W

Hen as we sat in Babylon the rivers round

about, And in remembrance of Sion the teares

for grief burst out: We hang'd our harps and instruments the willow trees upon: For in that place men for their use had planted many

a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to us tauntingly:
Now let us heare your Hebrew songs,
and pleasant melodie.

4 Alas, said we, who can once frame
his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quiet forget
the warbling harp to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be ty'd for ever fast,
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now
the curld noise and crie
That Edoms sonnes against us made,
when they ras'd our cite.
Remember Lord their cruell words,
when as with one accord
They cride, On, sack, and rase their walls,
in despight of their Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happie shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed shall that man be call'd
that takes thy children young To dash their bones against hard stones that lie the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxxxviii. N.

*David praiseth the goodnesse of God towards him,
for which even forreign princes shall praise the Lord together with him, and he is assured to have like comfort of God hereafter, as heretofore.*

Sing this as the 111 psalme.

THEE will I praise with my whole heart,
my Lord my God alwayes:
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankfull mouth
thy holy name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindenesse sake,
and for thy truth withalls:
For thou thy name hast by thy word
advanced over all.

3 When I did call thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

4 Yea all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.

5 They of the wayes of God the Lord
in singing shall entreat:
Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowly sprite:
But he (contemning) knows a far
the proud and lofty wight.

7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand Rentred by thee: O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be
By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me.

8 Thy mercy Lord endures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix. N.

David to cleanse his heart from all hypocrisie, sheweth that nothing is so secret which God seeth not. After declaring his zeal and fear of God, he protesteth to be an enemy to all them that condemne God.

Sing this as the 137 psalme.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting thou dost know
2 And rising eke, my thoughts as farre
thou understand'st also.
3 My paths, yea, and my lying down
thou compass'st alwayes:
And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:
5 Thou me behinde hold'st and before,
thou lay'st thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderfull above my reach,
Lord, is thy cunning skill:
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain untill.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit
Lord whither shall I go?
Or whither shall I flee away
thy presence to scape fro?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present theret:
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appeare.

9 Yea let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and bide
Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide:
10 Yea even thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darknesse shall yet throud me from thy sight:
Lo, even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.
12 Yea darknesse hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darknesse and the light
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessest hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,
When I within my mothers wombe
enclosed was by thee.
14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
and wondrously I am:
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.
15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.
16 When I was formlesse then thine eye
saw me: for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before that after fashion took.
17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God
how deare are they to me!
And of them all how passing great
the endlesse number be!

18 If I should count them, lo their summe
more then the sand I see:
And whensoever I awake
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men
O that thou wouldest slay:
Even those O God, to whom, depart,
depart from me I say.
20 Even those of thee, O Lord my God,
that I speak full wickedly:
Those that are lifted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord,
and that in earnest wise?
Contend I not against them all against thee that arise?
22 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my utter foes.
23 Try me (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider Lord if wickednesse
in me there any be:
And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

Eripe me. Psal. Cxl. N.

David prayeth unto the Lord, against the cruelty, falsehood, and injuries of his enemies, assuring himself of his succour. Wherefore he provoketh the just to praise the Lord, and to assure themselves of his tuition.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

Lord save me from the evil man,
and from the cruell wight:
And from all those which evil do
imagine in their sprite.
2 Which make on me continuall warre,
their tongues so they have whet
3 Like serpents underneath their lips
is adders poison set.
4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands preserve me to abide Free from the cruell man, that means
to cause my steps to slide.
5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and grins
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:
Heare me, O Lord, O heare the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God, thou onely art,
the strength that saveth me:
My head in day of battell hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have the end of his desire:
Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.
9 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefest of them all,
Lord let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.

10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame,
And in deep pits; so as they may not rise out of the same.

- 11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight:
And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruell wight.
- 12 I know the Lord th'afflicted will revenge, and judge the poore:
- 13 The just shall praise thy Name: just shall dwell with thee evermore.

Domine clamavi. Psal. Cxli. N.

David being grievously persecuted under Saul, desireth succour and patience till God take vengeance on his enemies.

Sing this as the 145 psalme.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haste thee unto me:
And hearken Lord unto my voice
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:
And the uplifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth
set thou a watch before:
And also of my moving lips
O Lord keep thou the doore.

4 That I should wicked works commit
encline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicacies,
Lord, let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord,
for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyl shall be.
Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall
When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast:
Then shall they heare my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.

7 Our bones about the graves mouth
lo scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.

8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.

9 Which they have laid to catch me in Lord keep me from the snare
And from the subtil grins of them that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall:
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

Voce meâ. Psal. Cxlii. N.

David neither for fear nor anger would kill Saul, but with a quiet minde prayed unto God, who preserved him.

Sing this as the 145 psalme.

BEfore the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.

2 My meditation in his sight
to poure I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walk a snare
they slyly laid for me.

4 I lookt and viewd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for my soul nonocared tho.

5 Then cry'd I (Lord) to thee, and said,
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

6 Heark to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy name my soul
from prison (Lord) bring out:
When thou art good to me, the just shall presse me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cxliii. N.

An earnest prayer for remission of sinnes, acknowledging that the enemies did cruelly persecute him by Gods just judgement. He desireth to be restored to grace, to be governed by his holy Spirit, that he may spend the rest of his life in the true fear and service of God.

Sing this as the 145 psalme.

Lord heare my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee:
Lord in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgement with thy servant, Lord,
O enter not at all:
For justified be in thy sight
not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown:
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexitie
was mine accombred spire:
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and aflight.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate:
Yea in thy works I meditate that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands:
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirly lands.

7 Heare me with speed, my spirit doth fail,
hide not thy face me fro:
Els shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindnesse in the morning heare and know:
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies: for I have hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say,
Let thy good Spirit unto the land
of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake with quickning grace alive do thou me make:
And out of trouble bring my soul
even for thy justice sake.
12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all
That do oppress my soul, for I thy servant am, and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Psal. Cxliii. N.

David praiseth the Lord for his victories and kingdom restored, yet calling for the destruction of the wicked: and declareth wherein the felicity of any people consisteth.

Sing this as the 145 psalme.

BLeft be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battell by his might.

3 He is my goodnesse, fort, and tower,
deliverer and shield:
In him I trust; my people he
subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in price?
Or sonne of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanitie,
so passe his dayes to end

5 As fleeting shade. Bow down, O Lord,
the heavens and descend.

6 The mountains touch, and they shall smoke,
cast forth thy lightning flame
And scatter them: thine arrows shoot consume them with the same.

7 Send down thine hand even from above,
O Lord deliver me:
Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subrill mouth of vaniry
and fondnesse doth entreat:
And their right hand is a right hand
of falshood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God,
and singing will I be On viol and on instrument
ten stringed, unto thee.

10 Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings.

Unto his servant David help from hurtfull sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save and shield
whose mouth talks vanity:
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtilty.

12 That our sonnes may be as the plants
whom growing youth doth rear:
Our daughters as carv'd corner stones,
like to a palace fair.

13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry sorts be found:
Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade:
There be no goings out, nor cries
within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:
Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Psal. Cxlv. N.

*David describeth the wonderfull providence of God,
in governing and preserving all the other creatures. He praiseth God for his justice, mercy, and speciall loving kindnesse towards all those that call upon him, that fear him and love him.*

Thee will I loud my God and King, and blesse

thy name for aye: For ever will I praise thy name,
and blesse thee day by day. Great is the Lord,

most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach: From race to race they shall thy works

praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious majestie
the beauty will record:
And meditate upon thy works
most wonderfull, O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acts declare:
And I to publish all abroad
thy greatnesse will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great:
And I aloud thy righteounesse
in singing shall repeat.

8 The Lord our God is gracious,
and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger he is slow.

9 Yea, good to all, and all his works
his mercy doth exceed:

10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord,
and do thy honour spread.

11 Thy saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdoms glory show:

12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sonnes
of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom eke
to spread the glorious praise:
Thy kingdom (O Lord) a kingdom is that doth endure alwayes:

And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay.

14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee:
thou dost them all relieve:
And thou to each sufficing food
in season due dost give.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand
and bounteously dost fill
All things whatsoever do live with gifts of thy good will.

- 17 The Lord is just in all his wayes,
his works are holy all.
18 Neare all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the desires which they require that fear him will fulfill:
And he will heare them when they cry,
and save them all he will.
20 The Lord preserves all those, to him
that bear a loving heart:
But he them all that wicked are
will utterly subvert.
21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speak
the praises of the Lord:
All flesh to praise his holy name
for ever shall accord.

Lauda anima. Psal. Cxli. J. H.

David teacheth that none should put their trust in men, but in God alone, who is Almighty, & delivereth the afflicted, now is both the poore, setteth prisoners at liberty, comforteth the fatherlesse, widows, and is king for ever.

Sing this as the 137 psalme.

- MY soul praise thou the Lord alwayes,
my God I will confesse:
2 While breath and life prolong my dayes,
my tongue no time shall cease.
3 Trust not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.
4 For why? their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall:
And then the counsels of their heart
decay and perish all.
5 O happy is that man, I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid,
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
6 Which made the earth and waters deep,
the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keep
in truth, and ever shall.
7 With right alwayes doth he proceed
for such as suffer wrong:
The poore and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.
8 The Lord doth send the blinde their sight,
the lame to limbes restore:
The Lord, I say, doth love the right
and just man evermore.
9 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
and stranger sad in heart,
And quit the widow from distresse,
and ill mens wayes subvert.
10 Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion still shall reigne,
In time of all posterity,
for ever to remain.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlvii. N.

The prophet praiseth the bounty, wisdom, power, justice, and providence of God upon all creatures, but especially upon his church, which he gathered together after their dispersion, declaring his word and judgements so unto them, as he hath done to no other people.

Praise ye the Lord, for it is good, unto our God to sing: For it is pleasant, and to praise it is a comely thing.

- 2 The Lord his own Jerusalem
he buildeth up alone:
And the dispers of Israel
doth gather into one.
3 He heales the broken in their heart,
their sores up doth he bindes
4 He counts the number of the starres,
and names them in their kinde.
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite.
6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.
7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord joyces:
And to our God upon the harp
advance your singing voice.
8 He covers heaven with cloudes, and for the earth prepareth rain:
And on the mountains he doth make
the grasse to grow again.
9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young ravens when they crie:
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse
nor in mans legs doth lie:
11 But in all those that fear the Lord
the Lord hath his delight,
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

- 12 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem,
thy God, O Sion, praise:
13 For he the barres hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stayes.
14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the floure
of wheat he filleth thee.
15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly runne about.
16 He giveth snow like wooll, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread:
17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?
18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again:
His winde he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.
19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show:
His statutes and his judgements, he gives Israel to know.
20 With every nation hath he not so dealt nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlviii. J. H.

He provoketh all creatures to praise the Lord in heaven, and in all places, specially for the power that he hath given to his people Israel.

I've laud unto the Lord, From heaven that is Psalme Cxlix. CL.

3 Praise him both moon and sunne,
Which are so clear and bright:
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering starres of light:

4 And eke no lesse,
Ye heavens fair
5 And clouds of the aire,
His laud expresse.

6 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:
At his voice did appeare
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast:
To them he made
A law and trade
For aye to last.

7 Extoll and praise Gods name;
On earth ye dragons fell:
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes ye well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitfull are,
The cedars great and tall
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and cattell,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All kings both more and lesse
With all their pompous train,
Princes and all judges
That in the world remain
Exalt his name.

12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is farre above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The horn of his,
And help them all.

15 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse,
The children of Israel
Each one both more and lesse:

16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. Cxlix. N.

An exhortation to the church, to praise the Lord for his victory and conquest that he giveth his saints against all mans power.

Sing this as the 145 psalme.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God
a new rejoycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.
2 Let Israel rejoyce in him
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyfull in their king.

3 Let them sound praise with voice of lute
unto his holy name:
And with the timbrel and the harp
sing praises of the same.

4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliverance he will raise
the meek to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now
let all his saints rejoyce:
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice.

6 And in their mouthes let be the acts
of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double-edged sword:

7 To plague the heathen and correct
the people with their hands:

8 To binde their stately kings in chains,
their Lords in iron bands:

9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before.
This honour all his saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. CL. N.

An exhortation to praise the Lord without ceasing, by all manner of wayes, for all his mighty and wonderful works.

Sing this as the 147 psalme.

Yeeld unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his sanctuary:

And praise him in the firmament,
that shew his power on high.

2 Advance his name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:
According to his excellencie
of greatnesse give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the violl and upon the harp also.

4 Praise him with timbrel and with flute,
organs and virginalls:

5 With sounding cymballs praise ye him,
praise him with loud cymballs.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing praise the Lord:
To praise the name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

The end of the psalmes.

The ten commandments.

A song to be sung before morning prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100 psalme.

Praise ye the Lord ye Gentiles all,
which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right.
For he is full determined
on us to poure out his mercy:
And the Lords truth be ye assured
abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
and to Jesus Christ his true sonne,
With the holy Ghost in like manner
now and at every season.

A song to be sung before evening prayer.

Behold now give heed, such as be
The Lords servants faithfull and true:
Come praise the Lord every degree,
with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our own Gods mansion,
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night:
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion,
which made heaven and earth by his power,
Give to you and your nation
his blessing, mercy and favour.
Glory be to the Father, &c.

The x commandments of God. Exod. 20. W. W.

Attend my people and give care, Of ferly things

I will thee tell: See that my words in minde thou bear, And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy soveraigne Lord and God,
Which have thee brought from carefull thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rods:
Make thee no gods on them to call:

2 Nor fashioned form of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging,
With grievous plagues this sinne will smite.

3 Take not in vain his holy name,
Abuse it not after thy will:
For so thou mightest soon purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods helts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long dayes and good maist live
In earth where God a place doth lend.

The Lords prayer.

6 Beware of murder and cruell hate
7 All filthy fornication fear.
8 See thou steal not in any rate.
9 False witness against no man bear.

10 Thy neighbours house with not to have,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine:
His field, his ox, his ass, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us, O Lord,
To keep these laws our hearts restore:
And cause us all with one accord
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have
To keep these laws after thy will:
Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy names sake grant us this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ:
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords prayer. D. Cox.

Our Father which in heaven art, And mak'st us

all one brotherhood, To call upon thee with one heart, Our heavenly Father and our God:

Grant we pray not with lips alone, But with our hearts deep sigh and groane.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide

To magnifie thy holy name,
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poore sheep.

Thy kingdome come even at this houre,
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into us poure,

With all his gifts most plentifully.
From Satans rage and filthy band defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,

Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill,
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from warre, and from bloudshed,

Also from sicknesse, dearth, and pine:
That we may live in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefulnesse.

The Creed.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull consciences;
As we forgive both great and small
Which unto us have done offence.

Prepare us, Lord, for to serve thee
in perfect love and unike.

O Lord, into temptation
Lead us not; when the fiend doth rage
To withstand his invasion
Give power and strength to every age.
Arm and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith, and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord from evil deliver us,
The dayes and times are dangerous,
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.

A blessed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our souls receive.

For thou, O Lord, art king of kings,
And thou hast power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universall.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have pray'd with one accord.

The twelve articles of the christian faith.

All my belief and confidence is in the Lord

of might; The Father which all things hath made the day and eke the night; The heavens and the firmament, and also many a starre: The earth

and all that is therein, which passe mans reason farre.

And in like manner I beleeve
in Christ our Lord his sonne, Co-equall with the Deitie,
and man in flesh and bone;
Conceived by the holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
And of his mother mary born,
yet she a virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was
for sinne in bond and thrall;
He came and offered up himself
to death, to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being judee,
Was crucified on the crosse,
and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the sprite:
His body then was buried,
as is our use and rite.
His soul did after this descend
into the lower parts;

A prayer to the holy Ghost.

A dread unto the wicked sprites,
but joy to faithfull hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again,
To th' end he might be glorified,
out of all grief and pain.
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still.
On Gods right hand his Father deare,
according to his will;

Untill the day of judgement come,
when he shall come again
With angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertain)
To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearly bought:
The living and the dead also
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy spirit of God
my faith to satisfie,
The third person in Trinitie
beleeve I stedfastly:
The holy and catholique church
that Gods word doth maintain,
And holy scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death Release and pardon of my finnes,
and that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise again
before the Lord of might:
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

And then shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide,
And give life everlastingly
to those whom he hath tried:
Within his realm celestiall
in glory for to rest,
With all his holy company
of saints and angels blest.

Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each houre:
To whom be all dominion
and praise for evermore.

A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the sermons.

Sing this as the 119 psalme.

Come holy Spirit the God of might,
comforter of us all;
Teach us to know thy word aright,
that we do never fall.
O holy Ghost visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield,
Against all sinne and wickednesse,
Lord help us winne the field.

Lord keep our king and his counsell,
and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sinne to flight.
O Lord that givest thy holy word,
send preachers plenteously:
That in the same we may accord
and therein live and die.

O holy spirit direct aright
the preachers of thy word,
That thou by them mayst cut down sinne
as it were with a sword.

Da pacem.

Depart not from thy pastures pure,
but aid them at their need:
Which break to us the bread of life,
whereon our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unirie,
Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all papiſtrie.
Convert all thoſe that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
and praife thee day and night.

O Lord increaſe our faith in us,
and love ſo to abound:
That man and wife be void of ſtriſe,
and neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace, O Lord,
to nations farre and nigh:
And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may ſing to thee.

All glory to the Trinitie
that is of mighties moſt:
The living Father, and the Sonne,
and eke the holy Ghoſt.
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and ſo ſhall be henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem Domine.

Give peace in theſe our dayes, O Lord, Great dangers are now at hand: Thine enemies with one accord Chriſts name in every land Seek to deſace, root out and race Thy true right worſhip indeed. Be thou the ſtay, Lord, we thee pray, Thou help'ſt alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we do lack
Through miſbelief and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou doſt not ſlack,
Which we unkindly gain-ſtrive.
With fire and ſword
This healthfull word
Some perſecute and oppreſſe:
Some with the mouth
Confeſſe the truth
Without ſincere godlineſſe.
Give peace and us thy Spirit down ſend,
With grief and repentance true
Do pierce our hearts, our lives to amend,
And by faith in Chriſt renew.
That fear and dread,
Warre and bloudſhed,
Through thy ſweet mercy and grace,
May from us ſlide:
Thy truth may bide,
And ſhine in every place.

The lamentation.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my truſt, give care unto my wofull cry: Refuſe me not that am unjuſt, but bowing down thy heavenly eye, Behold how I do ſtill lament my ſinnes wherein I do offends O Lord for them ſhall I be ſhent, ſith thee to pleaſe I do intend?

No, no, not ſo, thy will is bent
to deal with ſinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they ſhall repent,
thou grant'ſt with ſpeed their juſt deſire.
To thee therefore ſtill ſhall I cry
to waſh away my ſinfull crimes:
Thy bloud, O Lord, is not yet dry
but that it may help me in time.

Haste thee, O Lord, haſte thee, I ſay,
to poure on me thy gifts of grace,
That when this life ſhall ſlit away,
in heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou doſt reigne eternally
with God which once did down the ſend,
Where angels ſing continually:
to thee be praife world without end.

A thankſgiving after the receiving of the Lords Supper.

Sing this as the 137 pſalme.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts
and mercies evermore
That he doth ſhew unto his ſaints,
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot ſo praife the Lord
as he doth right deſerve:
Our hearts cannot of him ſo think
as he doth us preſerve.

His benefits they be ſo great
to us that be but ſinners:
That at our hands for recompence
there is no hope to winne.
O ſinfull fleſh, that thou ſhouldeſt have
ſuch mercies of the Lord!
Thou doſt deſerve more worthily
of him to be abhorrd.

Nought els but ſinne and wretchedneſſe
doth reſt within our hearts:
And ſtubbornly againſt the Lord
we daily play our parts.
The ſunne above in firmament
that is to us a light:
Doth ſhew it ſelf more clear and pure
then we be in his ſight.

The heavens above and all therein
more holy are then we:
They ſerve the Lord in their eſtate,
each one in his degree.

A thanksgiving.

They do not strive for mastership,
nor slack their office set:
But serve the Lord and do his will,
hate is to them no let.

Alfo the earth and all therein
of God it is in aw,
It doth observe the formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein
doth bend when God doth beck:
The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and fear his wrathfull check.

But we, alas, for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord
as doth the ox or mule.
A law he gave for us to know,
what was his holly will:
He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please:
Nor doth the thing that might us lead
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie:
And he again of his good will
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedie was none
to bring us unto life,
The sonne of God our flesh he took
to end our mortall strife.
And all the law of God the Lord
he did it full obey:
And for our sinnes upon the crosse
his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget
what good he to us wrought:
A signe he left our eyes to tell
that he our bodies bought:
In bread and wine here visible
unto thine eyes and tast,
His mercies great thou mayest record
if that his spirit thou hast.

As once thy corn did live and grow,
and was cut down with sibe,
And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive:
And as the mill with violence
did tear it out so small,
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all:

And as the oven with fire hot
did close it up with heat,
And all this done that I have said,
that it should be our meat:
So was the Lord in his ripe age
cut down by cruell death:
His soul he gave in torments great,
and yielded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread,

With much reproach and troubles great
on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time
are pressed very soire,
And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more:

Because the juyce that in them is
as comfortable drink
We might receive, and joyfull be when sorrows make us shrink.
So Christ his bloud our pressed was
with nails and ek with spear:
The juyce thereof doth save all those
that rightly do him fear.

And as the corns by unitie
into one loaf are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole church,
though he in heaven sit.
As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one In faith and love in Christ above,
and unto Christ alone:

Leading a life without all strife
in quiet rest and peace:
From envie and from malice both
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew
that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to lead a life
as alwaies willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure
with him to have a place.

P
Reserve us, Lord, by thy deare word, from Turk
and Pope defend us Lord: Which both would thrust out of his throne, Our Lord Jesus Christ
thy deare sonne:

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of lords by right:
Thy poore afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God holy Ghost our comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:
Give us one minde and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in persons three,
Thy name be praised in unitie:
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.
